An Act to Exempt Homesteads.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. The homestead of any family shall be exempt from judicial sale for the satisfaction on any liability hereafter contracted, or for the satisfaction of any judgment hereafter obtained on such debt.

Section 2. Such homestead must be the actual abode of, and owned by, such family or some members thereof.

Section 3. Such homestead shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars in value, nor exceed one hundred and sixty acres in extent, if not located in town or city laid off into block and lots; if located in any such town or city, then it shall not exceed one block; but in no instance shall such homestead be reduced to less than twenty acres nor one lot, regardless of value.

Section 4. This act shall not apply to decrees for the foreclosure of any mortgage properly executed; but if the owners of such homestead be married, then it shall be executed by husband and wife.

Section 5. When any officer shall levy upon such homestead, the owner thereof, husband, wife, agent or attorney for such owner, may notify such officer that he claims such premises as his homestead, describing the same by notes and bounds, lots or block, or legal subdivision of the United States; whereupon such officer shall notify the creditor of such claim, and if such homestead shall exceed the minimum in this act, and be deemed of greater value than fifteen hundred dollars, then he may direct the sheriff to select three disinterested householders of the county, who shall examine and appraise such homestead, under oath, commencing with the twenty acres or lot upon which the dwelling is located, appraising such lot or twenty acres separately; and if the same exceed fifteen hundred dollars, then the sheriff shall sell all in excess of fifteen hundred dollars by lots or smallest legal subdivision, ordering them in the order directed by the judgment debtor, if he chooses to direct; otherwise he shall sell the same as aforesaid, so as to leave the homestead as compact as possible.

Section 6. In lieu of the proceedings aforesaid, the execution creditors may at any time pay the execution debtor the sum of fifteen hundred dollars and proceed to sell the homestead as he might heretofore have done, adding the said fifteen hundred dollars to his lien, but the money aforesaid shall be exempt from execution.

Section 7. The homestead aforesaid shall be exempt from sale on any judicial process after the death of the person entitled thereto for the collection of any debts for which the same could not have been sold during the lifetime, but such homestead shall descend as if death did not exist.

Approved February 21, 1893.

Huntington, Ind., May 29.—Last night passers-by noticed smoke coming from a small dwelling at Rosnoke, occupied by Christian Habogoz and wife. The doors were all bolted and had to be knocked in. Mrs. Habogoz was found in her bedroom with her throat cut from ear to ear, and the bed on fire. Habogoz was afterwards found in a garret dead. Habogoz was 75 years old and his wife 70. For the last few years she has been sick in bed, and the husband refused to let a physician visit her, claiming she was getting on all right, and he could take care of her. In the evening he was seen in the rear of the house grinding a huge knife, and it is supposed the horrible murder and suicide was committed with it. The house was burned to the ground.

Mrs. Garland who accompanied her husband to San Francisco, will go on to Selma, California where she will spend several weeks visiting her parents. Atty. Garland will go to Oakland and Sacramento on business, while there, having taken advantage of the excursion rate.
