

Expressions.

Additional locals on first page.

Come in for job work. Try the new drink, Cream Soda, at Zahn's.

The Oregon Pacific has 'paid off' for May.

Camp meeting began at Waterloo yesterday.

Special baking done to order at M. A. May Zahn's.

M. A. Miller carries a complete line of paints and oils.

Dr. Skipworth returned home from Portland the first of the week.

Have you examined those new summer suits at S. P. Bach's.

Fresh pies, cakes and bread at Peebler's grocery store.

M. A. Miller now has a complete line of drugs and stationery.

Pumps and pipe down to Albany prices. F. C. AYERS & Co.

Call and examine my new stock of spring clothing. S. P. BACH.

J. S. Courtney M. D. Physician, Surgeon and Accoucheur, Lebanon, Or.

Parties who were to pay their subscription in wood will please haul the same now.

Miss Courtney of Chicago is in the city visiting her brother Dr. Courtney and family.

A large stock of spring clothing has just been received by S. P. Bach. He has the latest styles and colors. Call and get prices.

The Mills City Gazette says: Our young men are getting up a picked ball nine and wish to play the best club that can be found outside of the league club.

I would be very much obliged if the person who carried off my L. inch monkey-wrench would bring the same back. If you don't you are liable to get into trouble. J. A. DORRIS.

The Hotel Portland is proving an elephant on the hands of the owners. The first year there was a deficit of $600, next year $200 and only $48. A big improvement certainly.

Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure any ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. 50 cent bottles or sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Word has been received says the Eugene Guard that John Stewart got safely across the Cascade range with his stock, having nine head more than when he started. He picked up some of the Mullican cattle of which 150 were lost. The delivery of the cattle was made at Sisters on Squaw creek. With his drivers he is expected home Sunday.

There will be services in the First Presbyterian church every Sunday, morning and evening. The evening sermon is especially intended for the young people. Young People's prayer meeting at 7 p. m. on Sundays. All are cordially invited to come and worship with us. Please make yourself known to the Pastor.

EDWARD ECCLESTON.

It is reported that one of the Albany men at the big dinner at the Palace hotel was so confused by the myriads of mirrors that when he came to go for his hat he reached out his hand to the darkey in the glass for it, much to the amusement of his friends. The gentleman has not yet returned home.—Democrat.

Four convicts were pardoned last week by the governor. David Wiggins, sentenced from Union county for 10 years for rape; John Conklin, from Douglas county last July for two years for larceny; C. H. Hawkins, from Wasco county, September 1884, for 15 years for manslaughter; Frank Grasty, from Multnomah county, June 24, 1882, for larceny for 3 1/2 years.

Chauncy M. Depew was seen in Chicago and expressed himself on the world's fair rates as follows: "The present rates are unquestionably too high, and will come down. The truth of the matter is, the reports of the incomplete condition of the fair caused railroad men to think that no occasion for lower rates existed, but now that the exposition is complete, the roads will do the fair thing and put in satisfactory rates."

C. H. Ralston, is in portland The Champion Mill flour is the best in the market. Try it.

Waterloo and Sodaville will both celebrate.

Chas. F. Miller, returned to Lebanon this week.

The bank failure has been the main topic of conversation this week.

Dr. Lamberson has bought a new Hall safe to keep his money in.

Ruff Hiatt is in Salem this week visiting and looking after some business.

Clare Vunk died at the home of his father in Albany, last Monday evening, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. J. F. Stubblefield has opened a type writing office in Dr. Courtney's building, where she solicits your patronage.

E. B. Crouch and Chas Stokes left last Saturday for Oakland Oregon, where they will do some carpenter work for J. V. Keebler.

It is reported that Hon. T. J. Black will appoint a Lebanon man to one of the highest positions in the Custom House.

Prof. Michener is an applicant for our public school for another year and he will probably get it as he has given the best of satisfaction.

The Church of Christ meets in the Academy for regular services every Lord's Day in the morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Senator Stanford passed peacefully away at his home in Menlo Park Cal. last Wednesday. He was 69 years old and is said to be worth more than fifty million dollar.

I have 10 acres of garden land adjoining Lebanon, part of it lays on the inside of the incorporation, for sale at a bargain. Call and get prices and see the land. W. C. PETERSON.

A complete set of false teeth, alleged to have been worn by Washington, were shown at a recent meeting of the Maryland State Dental Association in Baltimore.

I am now prepared to furnish supplies of all kinds to hop growers cheaper than they can be bought in Portland. quassa wood whale oil soap a specialty. J. A. LAMBERSON, Commission Merchant, Lebanon Or.

After a successful run on one of the Chicago banks the depositor put his money in an inside pocket, and asked the police to lock him up to keep anybody from getting it.

Send your name and address to Read Peacock & Co., Albany, Oregon, and mention the EXPRESS, they will mail you a fashion sheet free each month.

I. G. Tupper has left Cincinnati to walk to San Francisco in 300 days. If he makes the trip in that time without riding even a mile he will receive $1000.

Last week a Linn county farmer went to Albany and needing some money sold a horse for $116. He invested the money in a saloon during the night and returned home next day with out a cent.

Whung Wa the Chinaman who stole $80 from his countryman at the Hotel Eugene a week or two ago, had a hearing in the circuit court Wednesday and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, where he was taken Thursday morning by Deputy sheriff Day.

Rev. G. Whitaker D. D., President of Willamette University, will preach in the Methodist church Saturday evening, June 24, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Whitaker will also preach Sunday morning and lecture in the evening. Subject of the lecture: "The Book of Books." All are invited to these services. H. OBERG, Pastor.

Are you insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Chief Justice Fuller overruled the decision of the federal circuit court which issued an injunction restraining the directors of the world's fair from opening its gates on Sunday. The restraining order of the circuit court, preventing opening of gates on Sundays, must therefore be set aside and the case remanded. This decision settles the matter finally, as the only appeal is to the Supreme Court of the United States, which does not meet until October when the fair will be ended.

Go to Zahn's for milk shakes. C. A. Zahn is now making delicious ice cream.

The town of Tillamook was visited by a $50,000 fire Monday morning.

Bill Hildreth left the first of the week for Walla Walla.

Kelly, Dunne & Co's, pure prepared house paint for sale by N. W. Smith.

Mrs. Oberg and children are visiting her parents in Dayton.

Miss Alice Withers is clerking in Baker's store during the absence of Ass.

On July 4, 5, 6, and 7, the Roseburg local, bound north, will stop over at Salem, until 6 p. m., to allow people to witness the races.

Miss Libbie Carothers is in Monmouth this week attending commencement exercises.

T. C. Peebler, Asa Baker, Clark Kimbro and Arthur Hardy left Monday for the mountains, on a fishing trip.

E. L. Power, successor to Thompson & Overman at Albany, is the place to buy harness, whips, robes, etc.

Dr. J. N. Bedpath and wife, of Stellacoom, Wash., are in Lebanon visiting relatives. The Dr. is the physician in the state insane asylum.

For single or double harness, saddles etc., go to E. L. Power at Thompson & Overman's old stand, Albany, Oregon.

Persons who have chitten bark are requested to bring it in right along. I have plenty of money to pay for it with. J. A. LAMBERSON.

Mrs. M. L. Pipes, of Portland, and Mr. Pipes' mother and sister, Mrs. Kate Jones, of St. Louis, Mo., are in the city visiting the family of Dr. Skipworth.

Agent Bennett informs us that he has orders to sell round-trip tickets to any point in Oregon on July 1, 2 and 3, good until July 6, for one fare.

Miss Fannie Griggs and Mrs. Funk, of this place, and Miss Ramsey of Halsey were among the number who went to San Francisco on the last steamer. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Mr. E. Vron, left Tuesday for Chicago, to attend the World's Fair and visit his old home. Mrs. Menzies will go back about the 1st of September and accompany her father home.

Eugene Register: The Powers brothers left the first of the week for Eastern Oregon with a band of about five hundred cattle which they will pasture on ranges east of the mountains during the summer.

Never before have the prospects for a large crop of wild blackberries in the mountains been better. The vines are loaded with blossoms, and if blight does not overtake them, berries will indeed be plentiful.

According to the Oregonian's Washington specials, there has been considerable treachery displayed by some of the bosses at Washington.

Services at the Baptist church every Sunday. Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Y. P. U. Junior 2:30 p. m. Y. P. U. 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday 8 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to these services. C. R. LAMAR, Pastor.

The EXPRESS returns thanks to Stephen A. Cobbell for a fine mess of new potatoes brought in last week which were the first that we have tasted this year. He also brought us some very large strawberries, one of which measured 7 inches around, and it is the first years crop off of the vines.

Chas. Grisham and — Dible had the yellow team and carriage out last Sunday, and as — Dible was leaving Mrs. Grisham's place alone, he layed the lines down to close the gate and the team ran away, smashing the carriage up so badly that Westfall & Smith refused to take it back, so they paid $100 and took the carriage.

Mrs. Geo. McHargue had quite a serious runaway Wednesday says the Brownsville Times. She was driving from Main street to the picnic grounds at a lively gait, when, in turning she was thrown out heavily on her head and shoulders, bruising her quite badly. The horse ran a little ways father, when the buggy struck a bush and turned over, throwing the occupants. Lizzie McLeod and a little boy out but not injuring them. Andrew Kirk was also the victim of a serious accident. He was in town with his beef wagon when his team took fright and got beyond his control. He was considerably bruised. The buggies in both accidents were wrecks.

BENJAMIN BROS.

Have just received a Large and Well-Selected Stock of

Dress Goods, Linens, Table Linens, Laces, Boots, Shoes, Embroideries, Clothing, Underwear,

And other goods, direct from the East, and

Their Prices Are So Low

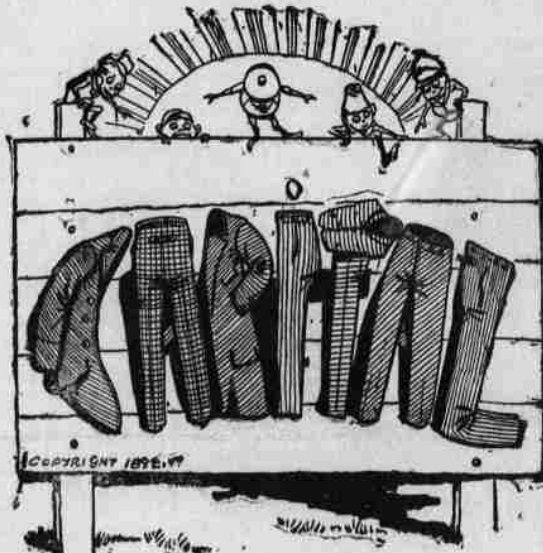

That they will astonish you.

Be Sure and Call and See Them Before Buying Elsewhere.

Country Produce Taken at Highest Market Price.

Remember the place—In the Odd Fellows' Building, NEXT TO THE POST-OFFICE.

LEBANON, - - - - - OREGON.

Clearly Visible.

The abundance of light in our new store renders the most delicate shade and the faintest pattern clearly visible—which enables one to make selections of Spring Clothing without the slightest inconvenience.

No Handsomer Clothing

was ever opened in this City than that we have received for this Spring's trade.

Suits in Cheviots, Velours, Tivolis, Bedford Cords, and Fancy Cassimeres.

Neglige Shirts, Dress Shirts, Underwear and Neckwear.

New Stiff Hats and Fedoras, and Footwear of The Best Makes.

Special Attention Given to Mail Orders.

The L. E. BLAIN CLOTHING CO., FLINN BLOCK. ALBANY, OREGON.

ALL GOODS WARRANTED.

The fact that items like the following are going the rounds of the papers is significant: Albany Woolen mills which secured the contract for supplying the new uniforms for the national guard has captured another prize, having been awarded the contract for supplying blankets and other woolen goods to the U. S. Indian department in competition with the whole United States. Oregon woolen manufacturers are coming to the front.—Albany Democrat.

About 11 o'clock last Saturday night Chief of Police McFeron and Police-men Lee and McClain, proceeded to look upon the interior arrangement of one of the Chinese houses on Second street. In the second story, after running out the labyrinth of halls, turns and stairways they found a small room divided by a counterlike partition behind which were three Chinamen working the pharaphanelia of a lottery game. They deposited several gold watches and $80 cash that they would appear before the recorder for trial Monday.—Herald.