Up to the present time the department has reinsed to make it public, because the report was ordered by Congress and, it is claimed, to make it public, because the report was ordered by Congress and, it is claimed, to make it public, in Congress. Enough is learned about it, however, to know that the board-railway proposition has received a black eye; also the canal, which, it is claimed, would cost too much money. The only scheme recommended by the board is said to be a portage rail-way. It will be almost impossible for the Oregon delegation in Congress to construct this report. The Department of State has not been informed of the reported purpose of the Chinese government to retaliate upon the United States, evidenced by the re-ported prohibition of the purchase, use or sale of American kerosene in the prov-ince of Amoy. Even if there has been such a prohibition, it is not believed at the department that it can be regarded as a neasure adopted in a spirit of retal-iation, but rather as an exhibition of the extremely conservative character of the Chinese. More resistance to such an in-novation as the use of kerosene may have been strengthened by some recent meter Vicetoy of a province would surve-by be authorized to institute a policy of retaliation, which would rather be initi-ated by the importal government itself. The suggestion comes from Chicago that the World's Fair may have to be continued throughout next year in order to enable the management to recoup li-self for the vast expenditures that have been made. The Spanish caravels are on their way to Chicago by a long water route, and will probably not reach the World's Fair before July. They will be objects of great interest to the people who encoun-ter them in the St. Lawrence or the Lake.
