A Little Strange.

Last Tuesday evening Clint Gordon's dog, "Joan's" returned to Lebanon in a bad looking condition, and nearly starved, which caused considerable uneasiness about Gordon. He left July 5th alone with his dog for the mountains on a prospecting trip, and as the dog was never known to leave him, and as Clint raised him in the mountains, it seems strange that he would leave him unless there was something wrong. Clark Kimbrough left Wednesday for the mountains to search for him. Clint's many friends in Lebanon think there is something had happened to him. To say the least it is a little strange.

The Five per Cent Fund.

The secretary of state has computed the area of the several counties of the state as required by the act of 1893, and has apportioned the money in the 5 per cent fund arising from the sale of government land in the state among the counties of the state according to area. The amount payable to each county is as follows:

The secretary of state says he will promptly send warrants to those counties that have promptly paid the taxes of 1893, and will not hasten to make the state pay money to certain counties that withhold what they owe to the state. Some of our counties make a practice of deferring payment of overdue taxes, thus causing the state to pay interest on warrants for the lack of funds. This is unjust to the other counties that pay up promptly, and the authorities propose to require payment of interest on unpaid balances to offset the loss caused the state by such non-payment.

Another National Bank for Albany.

A large number of leading capitalists of Albany, have joined together and have applied for a charter for a National Bank, which will be organized just as soon as possible. Ample capital will be subscribed and the business placed on a sure basis.

Probably the bank of Oregon building will be rented until its building is placed on sale when it will be bought and become the permanent place of business for the new banking business.

The enterprise is a good one and it will be solid and secure from the start, and is assured of plenty of business, for there is a demand for it. Its organization will do much to restore confidence and make better times here.—Herald.

How are you fixed for letter-head bill-heads, envelopes, note-heads, statements and the like? Don't follow the old style of using unprinted stationery. We print everything at this office and charge a reasonable price only. We claim to do as good work for as little money as any office in the state.

Dodge Sale.

At Dodge farm, on the Brownsville Road, Saturday, Aug. 5, 1893, at 10 o'clock a. m. will be sold at public auction a fine lot of driving, tilting and work horses, milk cows, bees and bulls, and fine sheep, wagon, plows and other farming implements.

Council Proceedings.

Council met last Tuesday evening in an adjourned meeting.

Roll call and all the members present except G. M. Westfall.

The assessment made by the city recorder for street purposes was read, and by motion was accepted.

The committee previously appointed to examine the condition of all side walks and cross walks made their report, and by motion the report was accepted, and the following persons were ordered to build walks in front of their property: J. H. Whitebee, Wallace, Mrs. W. D. Mesarvey, D. Harte, Gottsche, J. W. Seantland, J. C. Caldwell, D. C. Holt, Joe Elkins and J. B. Thompson.

A large number of persons were ordered to drive the nails down in their sidewalks, and that they be served with a written notice.

On motion the marshal was ordered to repair all cross walks that need it.

The city treasurer made his annual report which was placed on file.

Bill of J. A. Roberts for $18 was allowed, and a warrant was drawn on the treasury for the same.

The Telephone and Telegraph Co. filed their acceptance of the franchise in accordance with the ordinance, and the same placed on file.

Council then adjourned to meet on July 20.

The Soldiers Home Case.

Attorney General Geo. E. Chamberlain, who returned yesterday from Salem, says that in the supreme court application was made to have the injunction case of D. C. Sherman vs. A. J. Bellows et al, placed upon the docket for hearing this term. In disposing of the application the court said in substance: "There are other cases of equal public importance being pressed for hearing at this term in advance of this case, which are entitled to precedence if any are to be advanced. Taking into consideration the undecided cases already submitted and those now set for hearing, in all of which opinions must be written, it is apparent that if the case is now heard it could not be examined or decided before the beginning of the October term, and hence it is thought better to postpone the hearing and have the case set for argument on the October docket, when it can be heard and determined while argument is fresh in mind." This is the injunction suit brought to restrain the location of the soldiers home at Roseburg.—Herald.

The Linn County Bank.

Mr. H. M. Beall, the newly appointed receiver of the Linn County bank, arrived yesterday and will take charge of the bank. A notice to depositors and others interested, signed by the comptroller of the currency and also by Mr. Beall, will be found in the Herald publishing columns.

Mr. Beall was seen by a Herald reporter and questioned concerning the policy in clearing up the business of the bank.

"I reached Albany today and have not yet fully assumed charge of the bank," he said. "It will probably be several days before any business toward settling up the affairs will be transacted. As to whether or not the collections of the bank's securities will be rigidly pushed I cannot say. I am simply a creature of the government, and must act on instructions from the treasury department."

Mr. Beall was formerly cashier in The Dalles bank, and thoroughly understands the situation. It is safe to say that the collection of the $200,000 on the banks securities will not be pushed so as to create any business disturbance. Those acquainted with the business say it will probably require a year or eighteen months to settle up the business.—Herald.

Depositors Meeting.

The actual depositors of the Bank of Lebanon is hereby called to meet in the bank building on Monday July 24th 1893, at one o'clock p. m. for consultation. None but actual depositors or their legal representatives will be admitted to the meeting.

MANY DEPOSITORS.

About Half a Crop.

Reports from grain dealers and millers, covering six principal wheat-producing states, producing two-thirds of the total crop, indicate that they will furnish about 150,000,000 bushels this year, against 230,000,000 last year.

Ohio and Oregon are the only states which will raise as large a crop as last year. Indiana promises an average crop, Michigan nearly an average, Missouri two-thirds, Illinois a trifle less than two-thirds and Kansas one-half.

The new wheat will not move as early as usual. The sections which usually ship early have a poor crop. Over 60 per cent of the farmers say they will hold or are not disposed to sell at the present low prices.

Jim Lotan Arrested.

James Lotan, ex-collector of customs of the port of Portland, gave himself up to the United States marshal at noon on Monday, to answer the charge of two indictments preferred against him by the federal jury.

Robert G. Paddock, deputy inspector of the custom's service, was arrested before noon, on the same charge as preferred against Lotan.

The charges against both men are to the effect that they were engaged in conspiracy against the United States. There are two accusations made by the grand jury. One that they defrauded the government of revenue duties due on certain quantities of opium brought into this port.

The second allegation is that they laded Chinamen from off steamers from British Columbia ports on fraudulent certificates.

Charles Cardinell, a deputy in the custom house was also arrested on the same charge. All the men were released on $2000 bonds each. Indictments have also been returned against several other alleged smugglers, who are not yet under arrest. Some of them, it is understood, live at Astoria and other places. Much excitement has been caused by the wholesale arrest of prominent officials on so grave a charge.

Mr. Lotan declined to make any statement beyond he was innocent of the charge.
