Prineville News.

[From Ochoco Review.]

The meadows on Ochoco will yield a large amount of hay this year.

The cattle men expect to begin gathering beef about the 25th of August.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Slayton, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Uren, Miss Jessie Welch and Miss Mabel Slayton left yesterday for the soda springs on Santiam.

A Hackleman has arrived on this side of the mountains with a large band of young cattle. He took them to his ranch in the southern part of the county.

M. A. Moore will assume the duties of postmaster on Aug. 1st, his commission having been received. He is re-fitting his saddlery shop, and will put the office in the front part.

Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Garland started Wednesday for their new field of labor, Oakland, Douglas county, where they will take charge of the public school. Their numerous friends here wish them a pleasant sojourn in their new home.

All the teachers for the ensuing year have been elected by the school board of this district. L. N. Jaggitt will have charge of the school as principal, Miss Maggie Newman will teach the intermediate grade and Miss Effa Crooks the primary grade.

Recently a bed of gold was discovered at the bottom of a 200 foot shaft in the Virtue mine near Baker city. After removing the water a solid streak of gold eight inches wide was revealed. Two miners took out two sacks of ore worth $10,000, one specimen weighing $800.

The rawhide with which Miss Aqua did such good service on the person of O. D. Taylor in the Dalles recently, has been put up at raffle, and nearly all the chances—$50 in number—have been taken.

The financial statement of the First National Bank of Prineville at the close of business on July 12, published in another column, shows Prineville's bank to be in a condition which many larger concerns might envy. The cash on hand at that date was more than 75 per cent of the amount of deposits. This condition causes all to have implicit confidence in the stability of the bank, and to have no fear of its going under, even if all other banks in the state should fail.

Shortly before 1 o'clock, Friday, July 28, Mrs. Dona Cyrus, wife of W. H. Cyrus, died at her home at Haystack, after an illness of four weeks, aged 30 years, 5 months and 6 days. Mrs. Cyrus was a daughter of Ephraim Stringer, of Linn county, and was married to W. H. Cyrus on Oct. 31, 1892. She leaves an infant daughter aged four weeks, and an affectionate husband to mourn her loss. The remains will be taken to Linn county and placed to rest in Dodge cemetery near Lebanon.

How is This?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, it is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar the regular subscription price; and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months—one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel by mail, post paid, every week for fifty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month, for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publisher can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors of the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Ceell Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A. Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine one year. Your first copy of the magazine and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P. O. order, registered letter or express. Address

"My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhoea or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A.
