In the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Linn.

In the matter of the estate of Elation, John M. J. Lovell, Deceased.

To Theresa Wilson, Emily Walker, Sarah Wiley and to the unknown heir or heirs of Jeremiah Lovell deceased, and to all others known and unknown, interested in said estate. Greeting.

In the name of the State of Oregon, You are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, at the Court Room thereof, at Albany, in the County of Linn on Monday the 2nd day of October, 1893, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, then and there to show cause if any you have, why the application of J. H. Lovell, Administrator of the estate of John M. J. Lovell, deceased, to sell the real property belonging to said estate, described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point Seventy Eight (78) rods North of the South-east corner of Richard and Louisa L. Cheadler's Donation Land Claim, Not. No. 2903. Claim No. 55, in Linn County, Oregon; thence South Seventy Eight (78) rods to said corner; thence west Eighty-one (81) rods; thence North Eighty (80) rods; thence in an Easterly course Eighty-one (81) and a fraction rods to the place at beginning, containing forty (40) acres in Linn County, Oregon, should not be granted.

Witness, the Hon. J. N. Duncan, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, with the Seal of said Court affixed, this 18th day of August, A. D., 1893.

Attest: N. P. Payne, Clerk. Ry B. M. Payne, Deputy.
(Seal)

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, holding terms at Albany, State of Oregon, County of Linn, s. s. W. R. Duncan, J. M. Settle and J. A. Roberts, Trustees, Plaintiffs.

C. C. Beckman and Carrie Beckman, his wife, Isaac White, Henry Dettmerhoff & J. J. Haas doing business under the firm name and style of Dettmerhoff, Haas & Co., T. F. Crandall doing business under the firm name and style of T. F. Crandall & Co., Garroton, Woodruff, Pratt Co., a corporation, and N. Steinberger, of said defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon—You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on the first day of the term of the said Court, next following the expiration of the publication of this summons, to-wit: by the fourth Monday of October, 1893, the same being the 23rd day of October, 1893, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: For judgment against said defendant C. C. Beckman, for $2000.00, and interest thereon at the rate of all per cent. per annum from the 25th day of July, 1892, and the further sum of $250.00 attorney's fee and for their costs and disbursements, and for a decree for the foreclosure of their mortgage; against all said defendants, on the following described real estate: situated in Linn County, State of Oregon, to-wit: Lot one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4), five (5), six (6), seven (7), eight (8), nine (9), ten (10), Block No. six (6), and St. Helens's fourth addition to the Town of Lebanon, and for the redemption of said mortgage and for the proceeds of said sale applied in satisfaction of said judgment, and that the claims and interests of all said defendants subsisting and junior to plaintiff's mortgage and for such other relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This publication is made by order of Hon. Geo. B. Burnett, Judge of the above entitled Court, duly made on the 18th day of August 1893, and filed on the 22nd day of August 1893.

SAM'L M. GARLAND and SOLEYS, Attys. for Plaintiffs.

The Salem Press says: "Wm. Brenner and several scores of our townsmen were up at Waterloo last Sunday. While there he matched his race horse 'Arlington Spot' with Bellinger Bros.' 'Billy Bellinger' for a race to occur on Sept. 10th, at Waterloo, for a purse of $110; distance 300 yards. Also at the same time and place he matched Al Moore's 'Johnny' in a 200 yard race with Jennings Bros.' horse 'Eats' for a purse of $20."

Are Your Trees Dying?

It is easy to set out trees, and still easier to forget them during the busy season. As a result, a serious loss is going on, and thorough discouragement maturing relative to the setting of fruit trees, says a correspondent in the Country Gentleman. Owners are too frequently satisfied that the work is well done and no further attention will be required. The surface of the soil gets crusted or covered with weeds, which take from it in their rapid growth the very elements the trees require during their first season. Clean culture for fruit trees cannot be too strongly insisted upon, whether they are growing among hard crops or not. To sow grain among young trees is the height of folly, for it shows plainly that you value a single year's crop more than the apple crop of many seasons which may be derived from trees well grown. Growing plants take the most readily available plant food, and thrifty, clean-limbed trees cannot be produced in a sod-bound or grass or weed-grown field. The young trees should have a liberal quantity of muriate of potash, spread upon the surface of the soil annually, and so continuously cultivated in as to eradicate every vestige of plant growth. If the planter of an orchard has been so unwise as to sow the land to grain, he may avoid the worst consequences of his folly by cutting it before it exhibits the first indications of ripeness, and making it into hay.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

[From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.]

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of Aldrich & Weeks, at Lebanon, Linn Co., Oregon, including the Champion Mill Company, has been and is this day dissolved by mutual consent of the parties, G. W. Aldrich having purchased the interest of W. C. Weeks, who retires therefrom. The business will hereafter be carried on by G. W. Aldrich, the purchaser thereof, who hereby assumes all partnership debts, and who alone is authorized to collect and receipt for all debts due the late firm.

G. W. ALDRICH,
W. C. WEEKS.

Dated this 24th day of Aug, 1893.

This is the last meeting of the county board of equalization. The feature of to-day's meeting was the strenuous effort of the Benedictine father of Mt. Angel. It seems that they own 2240 acres of mountain and 1435 acres of valley land, 3675 acres altogether. On this they are taxed $29,043. Their argument was that under the law they should not be taxed, but the judge did not see it that way.—Salem Independent.

H. G. Cochrane Commits Suicide.

Early Monday morning Mr. Robert G. Cochrane, one of the most prosperous of Linn county farmers, residing three miles this side of Brownsville, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. The act was committed beside a spring a hundred yards from the house. He had gone to the spring before breakfast, but his wife called him to breakfast, after which he immediately returned to the spring and shot himself back of the right ear with a 38 calibre revolver, the ball coming out back of the other ear. He fell forward into the spring. Mrs. Cochrane heard the report, and fearing the worst, rushed to where she found her husband lying dead, his head in about two feet of water. Justice S. P. Barger called a jury and found according to the facts. The evidence indicated that Mr. Cochrane had been contemplating the deed for a week or more. He had not been exactly in his right mind. His stomach had been in a bad condition for some time, a fact that preyed on his mind. The deceased was 54 years of age, and leaves a wife and three or four children. He was a man well liked, and his death will be generally regretted.

Chinamen Had to Go.

Butterville, in Marion county, last Monday was the scene of a most determined and successful eviction of Chinese laborers. It is the center of a large hop growing neighborhood, and employs many pickers of that product. Very many people—men, women and children, had gathered there for the purpose of getting work at hop picking, and it is said that many of them were in actual need of the employment to ward off starvation. After getting there they learned that Chinamen had been engaged by contract and that white labor would not be employed. They then gathered in an orderly manner and marched to the different yards, gathering up the Chinamen and marching them to the boat landing drove them on board the steamer Toledo, coercing the captain into taking them to Portland. Part of the hop yard men agreed to accept the white labor if the Chinamen were disposed of. The outcome will be watched with interest.

Administrators Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Administrator of the co-partnership estate of Barbour & Dalgleish, Wm. M. Barbour, deceased, has filed with the Clerk of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, his final account, and the Judge of said court has fixed upon the 4th day of September 1893, at the hour of 10 a. m. of said day for the hearing of objections if any, to said account, and for settlement of said estate.

The Salem Independent says: Mrs. Mary Spencer was brought to the asylum to-day from Gates. Mrs. Spencer is a granddaughter of William Morgan, the man who, about sixty years ago, wrote an exposure of Free Masonry and afterwards mysteriously disappeared. Mrs. William Morgan was slightly demented and her granddaughter probably inherits it. The patient is 39 years old, but looks younger. She is oftentimes violent and thinks that people are continually making signs. It is supposed she gets her idea of the signs from a close perusal of her grandfather's work.

School Funds.

The following letter has been sent to school clerks in this county:

DEAR SIR:—I herewith enclose you an order on the county treasurer for the amount of the state school fund apportioned to your district. This fund was only about half what we expected from the state, but the state department has made arrangements to distribute the remainder of the funds about the first of January, 1894. Of the county funds I am sorry to say that they are locked up in the suspended Linn County Bank. The receiver of the bank has informed me that from one-fourth to one-half of the money now in the bank belonging to the school fund will be paid by the first of January.

The funds now in the bank amount to something over $17,700, and I hope to be able to distribute this money to the districts before the appointment next spring. Of course the districts will get their money as soon as the bank pays it to the treasurer.

There is also over $8000 of delinquent school taxes yet to be collected by the sheriff. This added to the funds in the bank and what we have estimated will be the remainder paid us by the state, will give about a four dollar per capita yet to the districts, or in round number, about $31,000.

G. F. RUSSELL,
Supt. Schools.

The amount apportioned to Lebanon is $337.45.

"Times Are Hard."

The following article from the Oregon State Journal is "more than half true," although rather overdrawn.

"Times are very hard when it comes to paying debts or for the necessities of life, but when it comes to luxuries and pleasure there is generally plenty of money dug up to keep business lively.

"A slide medicine show can run here every night for three weeks in succession, and have from 300 to 800 people at each 'performance' at 10 and 15 cents a head, and sell loads of 'medicine' at $1 a bottle cash down, when a large majority of the audience live from hand to mouth, and are always in trouble and 'hard run.'

"It is needless for the Populists or anybody else to try to help people who are born like a sieve, to sow and scatter every cent they can lay their hands on as fast as they can get it. Nobody can help them—they can't help themselves, and don't know enough to take care of themselves. No law and no legal protection that can be devised can help them. God himself can't help them, for he has tried by making a world full of everything needed and giving them a fair chance, under laws requiring industry and economy, and has failed to keep them from continual poverty and want, which they attribute to the imperfection of the laws of God or man, when they are usually to blame themselves."

License was issued Tuesday for the marriage of Fred Fish, of Lane county, and May Bellinger, of Linn county.
