A Boy Again.

The director of one of our large corporations was in the habit of prowling around the office. One morning he happened to come across the dinner-pail of the office-boy. His curiosity led him to take off the cover. A slice of home-made bread, two doughnuts and a piece of apple-pie tempted the millionaire's appetite. He became a boy again, and the dinner-pail seemed to be the one he carried sixty years ago. Just then the office-boy came in and surprised the old man eating the pie—he had finished the bread and doughnuts.

"That's my dinner you're eating!" said the boy.

"Yes, sonny, I suspect it may be; but it's a first rate one for all that. I've not eaten so good a one for sixty years."

"There," he added, as he finished the pie, "take that and go out and buy yourself a dinner; but you won't get so good a one," and he handed the boy a five-dollar bill.

For days after, the old man kept referring to the first-class dinner he had eaten from the boy's pail.—Ex.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

[From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.]

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Another Train Robbery.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Sept. 15.—The express car of the Michigan Range passenger train, which left Hancock at 9 o'clock this morning, was held up and robbed by bandits a half mile from Boston station about a half hour later. The robbers secured $75,000 in cash. The money was intended for the employes of the Calumet & Hecla copper mine. The express car was in charge of Messenger D. Hogan, and there were no special guards. The train was within half a mile of a little station called Boston, five miles from here, when a man flagged the train. The engineer quickly applied the brakes, no thought of train robbers entering his mind. The man disappeared behind the station-house, and as the train stopped two women passengers got off. At that moment a masked man jumped on the locomotive and pointed a revolver at Engineer Schuler and ordered him to stop. The fellow pushed the engineer into a corner of the cab and grasped the lever to keep the engine moving slowly. Fireman Sutherland jumped out and was met by two of the robbers, who fired at him, ordering him back. Two more robbers in the meantime got on the front end of the express car, and with a sledge smashed in the car door. They compelled the messenger to open the safe. The robbers, after leaving the train, disappeared in the woods. Among the passengers, who were ignorant of what had taken place, was Teller Fish, of the First National bank of Hancock, with $40,000 in currency in his pockets, but the robbers did not know it. Four suspects have been arrested and the evidence against them seems to be very strong.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by M. A. If reports are anywhere near correct, some of the hop-pickers who are picking for Dr. Davis, near Harrisburg, are or were in very near destitute circumstances in the culinary line. Some families' sole food for two weeks was nothing but potatoes, which Dr. Davis hauled by the wagon load and gave them away without asking the least bit of compensation. People may get hard up but there is no danger of starving to death in this country. —Halsey News.

Lebanon public school will open next Monday, Sept. 25th, with Prof. Michener as principal, and Miss Fannie Griggs, Miss Abbie Fry and Mrs. Funk (Lute Wiley will occupy Mrs. Funk's place, for the present) as assistants. It behoves every parent to see that their children are properly entered the first day and started on an equal footing with every student in the school. It is with the parents to make a good school just as much or more than it is with the teachers. Start your children the first day, provide them with the necessary books with which to intelligently pursue their course of study, and then see that they are there each and every day to keep pace with their class. Unless this is done, no teacher, no matter what the ability, can make a success of our institutions of learning.

How is This?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, it is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the Magazine one year for one dollar the regular subscription price; and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months—one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel by mail, post paid, every week for fifty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month, for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publisher can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers.

Among the authors of the coming series are, Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A. Conan Doyle, Miss Braddon, Captain Marryat, Miss Thackeray and Julie Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual opportunity, send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine one year. Your first copy of the magazine and your first number of the fifty-two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P.
