Make More Money.

A gentleman from the planet Mars, who came down to this planet for his health, met a Citizen of Earth. "Ah there," quoth the Gentleman from Mars, "how's business?" "Poor," replied the Citizen of Earth, "Times are mighty hard."

"So-o?" replied the Gentleman from Mars. "Grain crop short?"

"No."

"Cattle and sheep dying?"

"No."

"Under-production of clothing?"

"No."

"War in the land?"

"No."

"Cholera sweeping the land?"

"No."

"Floods and storms destroying everything?"

"No."

"What's the matter?"

"Not enough money."

The Gentleman from Mars thought, and scratched his head. Then he thought again. Then he said:

"Who makes the money?"

"We do."

"Of what do you make it?"

"Oh, gold and silver and nickel and paper and several things."

"Isn't there enough material to make more money?"

"Yes."

"Then why are you such a pack of blamed fools that you don't make some?"

And the Citizen of Earth was abashed.—Stockton Mail.

There will be services in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the second and fourth Sundays in each month, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

W. V. McGEHE, Pastor.

The Ladies' Bazaar of Albany has again added a millinery department, and has secured the services of a first-class trimmer from San Francisco. Call around and see them when in Albany.

C. G. Yelm, a travelling man of La Fayette, Ind., while in Davenport, Iowa, received an 1804 dollar from a hotel clerk. He has just sold it to the cashier of a Chicago bank for $855. The coin is one of only four, and has long been unaccounted for.

A correspondent to the Florence West writes as follows on the road question: "The water is all right, but the country wants roads. A town without roads is too much like a town in Iowa which was described as 'one wing resting on the mill-dam and the other resting on the damned mill.' There is no such thing as a thriving town or country without roads."

The following are the services for next Sunday at the C. P. Church: Song service for young and old, 10:20 a. m.; preaching service 11 a. m.; organization of Sabbath School, 2:30 p. m.; preaching service, 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited to attend, especially former pupils, young and old, friends and members. Come and be with us and let us do each other good.

W. V. McGEHE, Pastor.

There are 172 papers published in this state, for a population of 300,000; 17 are daily, 5 semi-weekly, 125 weekly, 1 semi-monthly and 14 monthly. Is it any wonder then that hard times is telling the tale, and already lessened the number a few? While some editors have started the song which warbles: "Delinquents, there must be a settlement this fall. We can't run a paper without money, wood, potatoes or a few gunny sacks to make undersuits for the coming winter."—Dallas Observer.

Referring to the State Agricultural College's money in the bank of Job Bros. at Corvallis, the Salem Journal says: A few days before the bank closed Treasurer Shipley drew a $10,000 warrant of the state treasurer, out of a $30,000 appropriation, and deposited it with Hamilton, Job & Co. They endorsed it and sent it to Ladd & Tilton to pay a debt they owed there and the state treasurer cashed it with their endorsement. They practically paid a private bank balance with public money. This is a matter of record that should be shown in due season.

Trespass Law.

The last session of our legislature enacted a trespass law, the provisions of which are not generally known, and violators may profit by reading the same over carefully. We publish the law by request in full:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than an officer on lawful business, being armed with a gun, pistol, or other firearm, to go or trespass upon any enclosed premises or lands without the consent of the owner or possessor thereof.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot upon or from the public highways.

SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person, being armed with a gun or other firearm, to cause, permit or suffer any dog, accompanying such person, to go or enter upon any enclosed premises without the consent of the owner or possessor thereof; provided, that this section shall not apply to dogs in pursuit of deer or mammals.

SEC. 4. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than fifteen dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and in default of the payment of the fine imposed shall be committed to the county jail of the county in which the offense is committed, one day for every two dollars of the said fine.

SEC. 5. Justices of the Peace for the proper county shall have jurisdiction of the trial of offenses herein defined.

Prineville News.

(From Ochoo Review.)

Ferd McCallister will begin picking hops on Monday, Sept. 25th.

We understand Elder Day has resigned as pastor of the Baptist church of this place.

Mike Fitzgerald and Miss Jennie Gambill, of West Branch, were married a week ago Sunday.

C. F. Smith left Wednesday for Eugene to buy powder, etc., to be used in constructing the "Stewart grade."

A number of gentlemen contemplate organizing a brass band, and ere long they will be wafting discordant sounds in the wilderness.

Chris Colrs was over to Trout creek the first of the week, and says there were six inches of snow on the summit of the mountains between Trout and McKay.

The sales of beef in Crook county this fall will amount to about $100,000 and of horses to some $10,000, but what the wool sales will aggregate nobody can estimate.

The recent rains thoroughly wet the ground, causing the grass to start, and feed will be excellent on the open range by the time the sheep are brought out of the mountains.

Last Tuesday the officers of the Prineville Irrigation Co. issued $7000 preferred 10 per cent bonds, payable in three years, secured by mortgage on the company's ditch. All but $500 of the bonds were taken by parties here.

Lon Hodges got home Monday from Kentucky. Like most of the others who took horses to that state to sell, he reports a dull market. When he left for home, Mr. Elkins still had fifty head of horses which he had not disposed of.

On Friday of last week the case of M. H. Bell against the town of Prineville came up in Justice Elliott's court. The demur of the defendant to the complaint was sustained. We understand the case will be appealed to the circuit court.

In Justice Elliott's court last Wednesday Henry Deerheak was put on trial, charged with petit larceny in having stolen some provisions and other articles from T. C. Swin's house. The evidence found against him being conclusive, he was found guilty and fined $55.

Last year there were 10,500 bushels of wheat ground into flour at the Prineville mills. This was less than 2,000 short of the amount required to supply the local demand. If the recent rains have not materially injured the wheat that was not threshed the amount that will be brought to this market will be nearly double that of last year, hence there will be considerable surplus. As there is no market for the surplus and there will be a shortage in the supply of bacon and lard, why would it not be a good investment for some one to go to Web-foot and buy up a lot of hogs to feed the surplus grain to.

The beautiful white buildings of the Chicago Exposition are to be sold as junk. They are soon to be advertised and knocked down to the highest bidder. About the only things of future use in them are the iron and steel arches and timbers. It is thought that not more than $1,000,000 can be realized from the auction. The Manufacturers and Liberal Arts building, which cost $1,600,000 will, it is believed, be given to the one who will tear it down and carry the material away. The magnitude of the undertaking will be realized when it is stated that each arch contains twenty car loads of steel, all the pieces being firmly riveted together.

A Harrisburg correspondent of the Albany Herald says: "A little child died at the Davis hop yard last Friday night. The child was in the care of a woman giving the name of Mrs. L. M. Buchanan. When the news reached the city, Dr. E. DeGus and C. F. Wright, the undertaker, called on Mrs. Buchanan. The Dr. says there is not the least doubt but the child's death was caused by croup. Regarding herself Mrs. Buchanan said that for the past two years she had lived in Eugene but she would leave for Port Angeles, Wash., as soon as hop picking was over. Regarding the child she said it was her son's and that its mother is unknown. 'It is a snail,' she said, 'and there is nothing more to say about it.' The child was buried Saturday."
