Administrator's Notice.
Notice is hereby given that, by authority of an order issued out of the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, on the 2nd day of October, 1893, I, as administrator of the estate of John M. J. Lovell, deceased, will, on the 10th day of November, 1893, at the hour of two o'clock p. m. of said day, on the premises, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for one-half cash and balance in one year's time at ten per cent interest per annum from date of sale, secured by first mortgage on the property sold, the following described real estate, belonging to the said estate: Beginning at a point seventy-eight (78) rods north of the south-east corner of Richard and Louisa Cheale's Donation Land Claim, Notification No. 2300, Claim No. 55, in Linn County, Oregon; thence south seventy-eight (78) rods to the said corner; thence west eighty-one (81) rods; thence north eighty (80) rods; thence in an easterly course eighty-one (81) rods and a fraction rods to the place of beginning; containing forty acres in Linn County, Oregon. Sale to be at the residence of the deceased, situated near the south-east corner of the above described premises.

JAMES MARLEY LOVELL,
Administrator of the estate of John M. J. Lovell.

Summons.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, holding terms at Albany, State of Oregon, County of Linn, s. v. W. B. Dunbar, J. M. Seche and J. A. Roberts, Trustees, Plaintiffs.

U. C. Hackleman and Carrie Hackleman, his wife, Isaac White, Henry Dettmolder & J. L. Haas, doing business under the firm name and style of Dettmolder, Haas & Co., T. P. Crandall doing business under the firm name and style of T. P. Crandall & Co., Garrison, Woodruff, Fruit Co., a corporation, and S. Steinberger, Defendants.
To T. P. Crandall, doing business under the firm name and style of T. P. Crandall & Co., Garrison, Woodruff, Fruit Co., a corporation, and S. Steinberger, of said defendants.
In the name of the State of Oregon—you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit by the first day of the term of said Court, next following the expiration of the publication of this summons, to-wit: by the fourth Monday of October, 1893, the same being the 23d day of October, 1893, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: For judgment against said defendant T. P. Crandall, for $3000.00, and interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 23d day of July, 1893, and the further sum of $250.00 attorney's fee and for their costs and disbursements, and for a decree for the foreclosure of their mortgage, as against all said defendants, on the following described real estate, situated in Linn County, State of Oregon, to-wit: Lots one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4), five (5), six (6), seven (7), eight (8), nine (9), ten (10), Block No. six (6), in J. M. Seche's fourth addition to the Town of Lebanon, and for the reformation of said mortgage and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable.
This publication is made by order of Hon. Geo. H. Burnett, Judge of the above entitled court, duly made on the 15th day of August, 1893, and filed on the 22nd day of August, 1893.
SAML. M. GARLAND and STOWE & SOMERS, Atty. for Plaintiffs.

A Sheriff's Story.
This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the grange alliance committee filed their complaint against Sheriff Noland. They allege that the sheriff has been allowed warrants to the amount of $11,555.28, since November 1, 1892, and that they are fraudulent and made with the intent of cheating and defrauding the county, and were made in collusion with Judge Fisk and County Commissioner James Parker. The complaint asks that the county treasurer, Frank Reisner, be restrained by an order of the court from paying the said warrants. The complaint covers 30 pages of type-written manuscript. James F. Anis, John Burnett and L. Fisk appear as attorneys for plaintiff. H. C. Perkins makes affidavit to the truthfulness of the complaint. The plaintiffs, besides asking for the injunction restraining the payment of the warrants, ask for their costs and disbursements.

Sheriff Noland will meet the matter in the courts fearlessly. The charge that Judge Fisk and County Commissioner Parker are in collusion to defraud the county will not be entertained a moment by any one acquainted with these gentlemen, and we believe is a damnable one and unwarranted and unjust in the extreme.

To show to what extremes the committee go in their charges against Sheriff Noland, the complaint alleges that he has not performed any service whatever since Nov. 2, 1892, but what is of a fraudulent nature. In a nutshell, the whole cause of complaint arises from the fact that Mr. Noland has compelled the payment of delinquent taxes and charged for it—Eugene Guard.

A Heavy-Weight.
From a Special Dispatch to the Boston Herald.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 27, 1893.—Rhode Island's champion fat man, George Walker, who died in the village of Rockland, Seitate, Monday, will be buried to-morrow. He was 42 years of age, weighed 513 pounds and measured 72 inches around the waist. The casket and box to hold it were made to order, and 500 feet of lumber were consumed in their manufacture. The pillow for the head and shoulders required half a bale of excelsior. The coffin is 7 feet 5 inches long, 3 feet 7 inches wide and 28 inches deep. Walker's wife weighs less than 100 pounds.

D. L. Fry, who works on this paper, and formerly lived in that section, was quite well acquainted with Walker, and says that when in good health Walker weighed nearly 600 pounds.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Oct. 14.—At the city hall in the presence of the society of pioneers this afternoon, the venerable bridegroom, Judge N. P. Earp, was married to Mrs. Annie Alexander. Judge Earp is 80 years of age and father of the celebrated Earp boys who were engaged in so many bloody encounters with ruffians in Tombstone's palmy days. The bride is 30 years younger than her husband.

There will be services in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the second and fourth Sundays in each month, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

"Tramp, Tramp, Tramp."
Last Friday evening the train sidetracked three cars here for May & Senders. About the time the train pulled out C. L. Morris saw a tramp come out of one of the cars; he was followed by another, and another. Mr. Morris commenced to count, and he kept on counting until 27 had come out of the three cars. But all did not look like tramps; some were well dressed and carried a valise, and there is no doubt that half the number were amply able to pay their fare had they been inclined to do so.—Harrisburg Courier.

Tramps are still giving the Southern Pacific railroad company and the people of Southern Oregon much annoyance. A report from Roseburg says that every freight train from the north brings in a large number of tramps. The city gave 65 of them a Sunday dinner. Monday morning when the south-bound overland arrived they rushed in and took complete possession of one of the coaches. This was too much for Conductor Huff, and he summoned Night Watchman Wright, and with the trainmen proceeded to put them off. A lively scrimmage followed, but the tourists had to get out, one of them being badly injured by a brakeman's lantern coming in contact with his head, and several others bruised. Later on the freight carried them all out of town.

Last evening's (Saturday) overland when she pulled into Salem looked as if she had about as many tramps aboard as she had passengers. The blind-baggage and the tender was simply one mass of men, nearly forty, some of them (so thick were they) having their hands full to hold on. A few were obliging enough to allow the fireman to operate the water tank, but the majority of them, stuck right to the train as if they feared, were they once off, they could not have gotten on again. They were a desperate and hard-looking lot of fellows but Salem was lucky and the entire outfit went on through. It was rumored here yesterday that when the morning freight train pulled into Gervais yesterday she was loaded with about fifty or seventy-five tramps. Of course they were kind enough to allow the necessary switching to be done. When this was finished and the train made up the tramps were neatly given the slip. The train instead of pulling out as usual, backed up a short distance, under a guise of switching, and then the engineer opened up the throttle and when she went past the gang of tramps in waiting she was traveling at a fearful rate of speed, such that had any of them attempted to board her they would have been sent to their Maker in double-quick time. The information says that they were so angry at being fooled that they swore vengeance to the community at large. Nothing concerning any violence by them from Gervais has been received.—Statesman.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Sodaville Items.

More new students at the Seminary. Still there are visitors to the "Soda Springs."

Rev. Mr. Plozman preaches here next Sunday.

Rev. Mr. McGee preaches next Sunday morning and evening, at Lebanon.

Dr. Prill is getting along well with his book-keeping class, at the Seminary.

Our district school is still increasing, and we feel sure of its success under the management of Mr. Lou Jackson, who is energetic and pushing, aside from his ability.

Dr. D. M. Jones begins to lecture, this week, on physiology, at the Seminary. We are sure the Doctor will fill the student with enthusiasm and instruct him well in that branch of study. The Doctor has a fine skeleton which is invaluable in the study of the human frame-work.

Many of the citizens agreed Sunday to put in next Saturday getting wood for the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The ladies agreed to furnish a good dinner to all who will help. A good time is anticipated by all. Dinner will be set at the Seminary as there are ample conveniences there, such as seats, tables, etc., and Mrs. McGee's kitchen furniture, etc.

The Way an Editor Pleas'd Dr. Talmage.

The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes with religious regularity the sermons preached by Rev. Dr. Talmage. On a recent Sunday Dr. Talmage took the story of the life of Jephthah as a text, and delivered an inspiring discourse. The following Monday the sermon was published in the Enquirer, under the annexed headlines:

Jeph—The Old Freebooter—At an Early Age He Was Forced to Rough It—He Held Up the End of His String in Great Shape—And Soon Sewed Up the Gates of Twenty Cities—On His Return From Victory He Kept a Promise—He Must Sacrifice the First Person Seen in His Door—He Looks—Holy Horrors—It Is His Fair Daughter—But Jephthah Was a Man of His Word and the Beautiful Young Girl Was Slain.

Dr. Talmage was so pleased that he wrote to the religious editor of the Enquirer complimenting him on the effort.—Ex.
