"KEEP IT OUT OF THE PAPER."

"Keep it out of the paper," is the cry which the newspaper publisher daily hears. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request does not realize it. A newspaper is a peculiar piece of property in the public's eye. The news-gatherer is stormed at because he gets hold of one item, and is abused because he does not get another. Young men and often young women, as well as older persons, perform acts which become legitimate items for publication, and then rush to the newspaper office to beg the editor not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party doing the same thing they were guilty of, forgetting, apparently, their late visit to the printing office. The subscribers expect to read the news and there is always wonder when any of these items fail to appear in the next issue.—Newspaper Man.

The EXPRESS wishes its readers a merry Christmas.

May the O. P. now cease to be a sch. pay its debts and get on its Eastern Oregon.

Owing to the hard times Christmas will be less observed here than it has been for many years.

'Tis no longer a case of "Barkis is willin'" at Honolulu, but "Willie is Barkin'."—Tacoma News.

Scholars attending the New York public schools have formed an anti-cigarette-smoking league.

Hard times have filled up the ranks of the army, and on the first of November there were but twenty-eight vacancies in the total establishment of 25,000 men.

The soldiers' home trustees have elected a treasurer and secretary, each with salary attachments of several hundred dollars per annum. What tomfoolery.—Statesman.

Down in Jackson county the populists and prohi's are fusing. As it's a difficult task to mix oil and water, the attempt will result, no doubt, in confusion.—Statesman.

The courts will see how much actual labor falls to each of the five receivers of the Union Pacific, and will in due time fix their respective pay. No princely salary of $18,000 will be granted.

"I have worn corsets all my life," says a member of the New York Women's League, "and I have had fourteen children—three pairs of twins—and I never had so much as a headache."—Exchange. The good lady has done very well.

Among the applications to make novel exhibits at the coming mid-winter fair in San Francisco is one by Edward M. Greene. It is a mammoth scale of Justice. The figure of Justice is 150 feet high. The cross beam of the scales she holds in her hand is 300 feet long. Each scale is a car capable of holding fifty people, who may be carried to a height of 288 feet. The whole arrangement is to be manipulated by machinery placed beneath the base of the statue. There is telephonic communication between each car and the engine room and everything may be regulated smoothly and quickly. The Chronicle thinks there is no doubt that the statue would make a unique display and might perhaps share the honors with the electric tower.—Scientific American.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

Is what you need. The production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the structure of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains nothing mineral or oil. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Root Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Growers, $1.00 per bottle; 1/2 for $0.50. Soap, 20c per jar; 6 for $1.00.
