The cat with nine lives is hardly surpassed by a boy at the Dalles. His name is Clemens Wetle. He commenced by breaking his leg in three places. Shortly afterwards a horse stepped on his foot cutting off his big toe as neatly as a bisquit cutter could have done it. Last summer he was badly powder-burnt, while investigating its explosive power with other children. A few days ago a mule kicked him in the abdomen. Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, he was shot in the stomach with a .32 caliber bullet, and still lives. The bullet went in and came out again without lacerating the internal organs.

Sheriff's Sale.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Linn.

E. Chamness, W. H. Sloper and J. E. Sloper, partners doing business under the firm name of Chamness & Sloper Bros., Plaintiffs, vs.

D. C. Shepherd and — Shepherd, his wife, and the Waterloo Development Company, a Corporation, Defendants.

NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale duly issued out of the above named court, in the above entitled suit, I will, on Saturday, the 8th day of January, 1894, at the front door of the Court-House in the city of Albany, Linn County, Oregon, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. of said day, sell at public auction, for cash in hand, to the highest bidder, all the right, title and interest of the Defts. D. C. Shepherd and Mrs. D. C. Shepherd, his wife, on the 5th day of January, 1893, in and to the real property in the said execution and order of sale described, subject, however, to the rights of the Waterloo Development Company, said real property being described as follows, to-wit: Lots 3, 4, 5 & 6 in Block 47 in the town of Waterloo, Linn County, Oregon, together with the improvements thereon.

The proceeds arising from said sale to be applied, first, to the payment of the costs and disbursements of said suit, taxed at $23.95, and the costs of and upon said execution; second, to the payment of the plaintiffs' claim, amounting to the sum of $55.61, with interest thereon from the 5th day of January, 1893, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and the further sum of $25.00 as attorneys' fees, and the further sum of $5.00 for making and recording mechanic's lien; and the overplus, if any, to be paid over to the said Waterloo Development Company upon the purchase price of said land by the said D. C. Shepherd; and the remainder, if any, to the said D. C. Shepherd, his heirs or assigns.

Dated this 4th day of December, 1893.
