There are several candidates for nomination by the republican convention for the various state offices, but for state printer every county seems to have from one to a dozen men seeking this honor. We know of several of these aspirants who are bound to be disappointed.—Statesman.

The San Francisco papers have entered into a crusade against cigarette smoking. It is to be hoped that the crusade will succeed in stopping the sale of cigarettes, as "Young America" is fast becoming a cigarette fiend.

A great many business men claim advertising does not pay, yet they would not have a three-line local inserted, stating that they were high-priced, carried shop-worn goods, etc., for $25.

The Seattle bank failures are coming in now, two having closed their doors within a few days. This is the town where business men were supposed to hang together.

Now is the time for the man without the gripe to take a grip and visit the Midwinter fair.

There was one good point in the Corbett-Mitchell fight—it only lasted a few minutes.

Bismarck and the Emperor of Germany have become reconciled.
