

FRIDAY, FEB. 2, 1894.

Expressions.

Additional locals on first page.

Mr. Jos. Leonard is quite ill.

Great clearance sale at Read, Peacock & Co.'s.

Oats, hay, bran, chops and all kinds of feed, at Peetler's.

C. A. Zahn returned home from Seilo last Saturday.

J. E. Adcox is now agent for the Albany Steam Laundry.

Mrs. Funk was visiting in the city last Saturday and Sunday.

Fresh pies, cakes and bread at Peetler's grocery store.

Mrs. N. W. Smith is visiting her parents, at Sheridan, this week.

For gente' furnishing goods and groceries, go to Pugh & Wallace.

We are glad to report S. O. Wallace able to be out on the streets again.

For the choicest groceries at hard times prices, go to Pugh & Wallace.

J. S. Courtney M. D. Physician, Surgeon and Accoucheur, Lebanon, Or.

Mrs. Warner has rented J. A. Roberts' residence property, and has moved thereon.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to M. A. Miller will please call and settle at once.

The confectioner's art, making cream candies and other confectionery, is taught at Zahn's store.

Isaac Benjamin returned home from Portland the first of the week, but did not bring his wife with him.

The best quality drugs, and great care is used in compounding prescriptions, at Smith's drug store.

Rev. Templeton, of Cottage Grove, passed through Lebanon this week, on his way to and from Sodaville.

If you want to get value received for your hard-earned money, call at Baker's and buy your boots and shoes.

Anyone having any second hand clothes to spare will please leave them at the postoffice for the Dorcas Society.

Bach is not selling his clothing at cost, but still you can get a better suit there for less money than anywhere else.

C. B. Montague will speak on the political issues of the day, in the interests of the Populists, at the court house in Albany, to-night.

These hard times we want to save all we can, but of course we have to eat, still you will save some by getting your groceries at Bach's.

F. L. Kenton, of Albany, has made an assignment. His assets are $2500.57; liabilities, $3000.71. There are about thirty-five creditors.

A San Francisco dispatch says Fore-cast Official R. S. Pague will abandon the weather bureau service and take up the practice of law.

Misses Ada Miller and Maud Aldrich left last Saturday for Portland, where they will spend a week or so visiting relatives and friends.

C. A. Zahn has just received a supply of orange cider, from California, part of which is from blood oranges. Try the blood orange cider—a delicious drink.

There is no danger of the goat belonging to the A. O. U. W. lodge, at this place, dying of inertia, as the membership of the order is steadily increasing.

Send your name and address to Read, Peacock & Co., Albany, Oregon, and mention the EXPRESS, they will mail you a fashion sheet free each month.

County Surveyor Fisher, with Messrs. Buckhart, Moist and Reed, as viewers, viewed out the new proposed road on the east side of (r)oo) last Monday.

at the Baptist church.

at the Baptist church.

at the Baptist church.

Mrs. ... is quite sick this week.

M. A. ... carries a complete line of paints and oils.

Jos. V. ... intends leaving soon for New York state.

A great reduction in prices of goods at Read, Peacock & Co.'s.

Born, to the wife of Joe Hanaard, Feb. 1, 1894, a girl.

M. A. Miller now has a complete line of drugs and stationery.

Mrs. Henry Klum is dangerously ill, at her parents' home in this city.

Every customer at Borum & Kirk's barber shop gets a clean towel.

Drugs and chemicals of every description, at Smith's new drug store.

Clarence Morgan and Andy Gatchell left Wednesday, for Hood River.

Boyd guarantees the photos he makes for $1.50 per doz. never to fade.

Please come in and pay up, as I need my money. N. W. SMITH.

Take your cash or produce to Pugh & Wallace, and get its equivalent in groceries.

When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Bach's.

Hiram Baker has just received a large invoice of boots and shoes. Call and examine before buying else where.

Large congregations listen every night to very good sermons at the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Waldrop in the pulpit.

An agent of the Portland Publishing Co. was in Lebanon the first of the week, soliciting advertisements for a register for the St. Charles Hotel.

In referring to the proposed fishway at Oregon City, Fish Commissioner McGuire says the upper Willamette will be full of salmon before January 1, 1895.

Rev. Joe Waldrop will speak in Montague's store building, next Tuesday, Feb. 6, at 1 o'clock p. m., on the political issues of the day as viewed from a Populist standpoint.

Mr. Dibble died at his home in this city, Tuesday, of erysipelas, aged 56 years. Rev. Lamar conducted the funeral service in the Baptist church. He was buried in the Masonic cemetery.

You should remember that the best place to buy pianos or organs is at Will's music store, Albany, Or. He does not take advantage of people's ignorance and sell a cheap made piano at the price of a good one.

A young man at Grant's Pass was recently fined $40 for disturbing a religious meeting at the M. E. church. He stood outside and swore and used obscene language. The fine, though heavy, about suits the offense.

Mrs. W. E. Chandler came over from Corvallis Wednesday, and will again be in the store of Read, Peacock & Co., of this place, for a few months. Mrs. Chandler has many friends here who are glad to welcome her back.

We understand that Benjamin Bros. have had a falling out, and that they will now dissolve partnership and divide up the stock. Isaac Benjamin's brother-in-law came down from Portland to help him out of the difficulty.

There are two assessments in the A. O. U. W. order, for the month of February. Total number of members in Oregon, 5,776; total number in the order on the first day of Dec., 324,276; increase in the order, for November, 1,136.

Ruff Hiatt brought us a package of persimmons, for us to sample, one day this week. They were sent to Mr. Hiatt by his cousin, Miss Eoline Hiatt, of High Point, North Carolina. It reminded us, as well as Ruff, of old times, to taste persimmons.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Jas. V. Keebler, of Oakland, Ore., was in our city the first of the week, on business and visiting relatives. Jim is still running his Uncle's ranch. He says they have had only four inches of snow so far, which only lay on the ground a short time.

Have you tried Pugh & W. for gente' furnishing goods and groceries? If not, why not?

Pugh & Wallace will sell you groceries as cheap as any one in the city. Try them and see.

Baker is yet in the lead in low prices and good goods. Prices must correspond with what farmers have to sell.

There will be services in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the second and fourth Sundays in each month, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

W. V. McGee, Pastor.

The Salvation Army is creating quite a religious sensation in Pendleton. With their pretty female lieutenants and the clatter and bang of their horns and drums they are, as it were, scaring a lot of sinners right up to the gates of heaven.—Ochoco Bell.

We are informed that another steamship will be placed on service between this port and Frisco, also that whenever there will be an aggregate of five tons or more for this city the steamer will stop here and discharge the freight.—Yaquina News.

The worst knoked out man in the Jacksonville contest was not Chas. Mitchell, but Governor Mitchell. For talking through his hat, he is a dangerous rival of a certain gentleman who spends about two days out of each week at Salem, Oregon.—The West.

Prof. W. S. Mayberry has resigned his position as principal of the Brownsville Public school and has moved to Lebanon. He will occupy his cottage in the north end of the city. The EXPRESS is glad to welcome Prof. Mayberry and his estimable wife to our city.

No wonder the Chinese are suspicious about the motive of all this registration business. The idea of requiring three photos of each Celestial is enough to suggest the thought that Uncle Sam intended to start an art gallery and use them for decorative purposes.

Mr. H. C. Watson, a well known attorney of Albany, has been appointed referee in the famous case against Sheriff Noland, of Lane county. He is to employ a stenographer, take the testimony, find the law and facts, and report at the next term of court on March 5th.

A gray-haired old lady was seen going north on the railroad track this morning. She carried two bundles, fastened together with a string and slung across her shoulders. This woman applied for work at the Crook hotel, but her habits and conduct were such that Auntie Anderson told her to rustle, and she has evidently rustled.—Salem Journal.

The Albany Daily Telescope "scopes" no longer. The editor couldn't find his profits with a telescope.—Sunday Mercury. A good many of our exchanges, including the Albany Herald and Democrat, have announced the Albany Morning Telescope as dead. The Telescope comes to us regularly, but as yet has not denied the charge.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by N. W. Smith, druggist.

I have just received my spring and summer samples, and will be glad to have every one call and examine them before going elsewhere, for I am prepared to make clothes to order cheaper than ever before. Genuine Black Clay Worsted suits, from $25 up; business suits, from $20 up; pants, from $6 up. Fit and workmanship guaranteed. Don't forget the address, G. L. VEELE, Merchant Tailor, Lebanon, Or.

The residents of Lebanon and vicinity must be pretty hard up. At a meeting held in that city last week resolutions were passed endorsing Penoyer's Christmas letter to the president. If it is really true that

The Oregonian of

J. M. Marks is one non on the charge of alleged to have stolen purse containing $20, and other articles from his brother. The story covered when the news searched. Marks is insanity will be his

The casual reader this paragraph a slight cause. The Oregonian is familiar with its leaders is well known in the parties of the state, honored and distinguished in Linn county, and due much of the pl of his party. Now not be ignorant of our county-man's treated the dense to great Oregonian editor has heard of populist leader. T able that this great malice aforethought rent news item as to the eve of a great pol one of the populist leader bonds for houses would be bad enough. patience ceases to be a v adds that insanity will Oh! shame on you! To a populist leader a burglar and a lunatic. But revenge will come to the abused and vilified leaders. Before many moons these despised leaders will be in power, and then the Oregonian's assessment will be raised—in proportion to its conceit.

John, and not J. M. Marks is the party alluded to.

Parker Turnidge, son of Jos. Turnidge, of Lacombe, was taken to Albany yesterday, to be examined before the County Judge, as to his insanity. The lad is about 15 years of age. He had been attending some Free Methodist meetings, and evidently got worked up over religion. The young fellow is to be pitied. He is the boy who drove the delivery wagon a short time, for his brother, here in town.

One day last week Rev. Beattie showed us a model of an invention on which he holds a patent. The apparatus is for lowering a coffin into the grave, and is a very neat structure. Any one who has ever witnessed an accident at a grave, while the coffin was being lowered, by a strap breaking or some other cause, will fully appreciate this invention. Rev. Beattie has refused an offer of a large sum for seven state rights. He has sent the model to J. B. Thompson, who is now at San Francisco, and will exhibit it for Mr. Beattie. It is to be hoped that this invention will come into use at all burials in the United States, as it undoubtedly will prevent a large number of exceedingly unpleasant accidents.

John Rolfe met with a serious and very painful accident at the brewery last evening. He was varnishing the inside of a huge beer tank, using a candle for a light instead of the usual lantern. Suddenly the inflammable substance caught fire and he was caught as within a fiery furnace. The only mode of escape was a small man-hole. The head brewer and Chris Vandran, who were near by, ran to his assistance and pulled him out as quickly as possible. He was badly burned about the face and hands. Dr. W. H. Davis was called, who dressed the burns, and partially relieved his sufferings. While his injuries are very painful it is thought he will recover from the effects of the accident.—Albany Herald.

A Seilo girl comes into recognition of an Oregonian report follows: "Lena Houston, 17 years of age, taken from the Delevan boy, End, by Officer Tom day and given an and a nearly part of L. are, person some.

Whatever Lebanon as a part of the Gospel, I that with but one as cannot image with as with.

The church of God picket fence of any yet it is not true that once what denomina to." To save people sole object of every met and the organization individual most efficient important work is son should connect where he will feel

"Whosoever shall name is our brother." Proselyters ab

Mr. Kinder and after a fox, and after succeeded in tracing brought it down. It of the grey species.

Mr. French is implashing and grubbing, pour of rain is against su

We are informed that and many others who h with la grippe, are now

The weather is warm if we had a little sun kinds of vegetation rapidly. We anticipat

W. H. Cummings let a hing to Mr. Breed, and acres more to his tillable la

Died.

Perry R. Gatchell died day evening, at his home of heart trouble, which on by inflammatory rheu

Perry was 14 years, 9 months of age. He was a and was a favorite among

Rev. J. Waldrop p furm in the Bay of