The following is an extract from a letter written by Mr. Zahn, from Medford, Or.: "I have had no time to investigate closely, but am of the opinion that work is a little more plentiful here than at Lebanon. Medford, by the way, is surrounded by a magnificent valley. The season is the same—even found even a little snow on the corner of a house. All the surrounding mountains are covered with snow."

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by N. W. Smith, druggist.

Obituary.

Died, near Lebanon, Or., March 16, 1894, Miss Elizabeth Petree, in the 52d year of her age.

Sister Petree was born in Anderson county, Tenn., Oct. 27, 1841. She joined the Bethel Baptist church about 35 years ago. Came to Oregon in 1874, and in the same year joined the Oak creek church. Was a charter member of the First Baptist church of Lebanon, which was organized in May, 1890.

She is not dead, this child of our affection, But gone unto that school, Where she no longer needs our poor protection, And Christ himself doth rule.

As a fair maid we shall again behold her, Clothed with celestial grace, With all the beauties of her soul expanded, Standing before her Father's face.

HAPPY HOME.

Mrs. Grant Lindley is quite poorly.

A petition has been circulated through this district for a division of district, it being so large it is almost impossible for small children to attend school, especially in the rainy season.

Rev. Norton holds regular meetings at the school house Thursday and Sunday evenings.

Mr. John French is slowly convalescing but is still very weak. He is under the skillful care of Dr. B. O. Fellows, who thinks he can bring him out all right.

Mrs. Louise Phelps, of Waterloo, is again with her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, of Spring Farm.

Mr. Ralph Junkins, of Oakville, an adopted son of Mrs. Louise Phelps, is visiting Mrs. Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. Cummings.

The coyotes made a raid on W. G. Brown's sheep a few nights since and killed five head.

Cold, rainy, disagreeable weather, farmers begin to look a little down in the mouth, feed is getting scarce and no grass.

For all the times are very hard, there is considerable improving going on in this section.

Mr. French and Grant Lindler were elected school directors at a special meeting to fill the places of J. Fitzwater and R. Lindley, resigned.

Mr. Winkler is circulating a remonstrance against a division of the district.

BEDROCK.

A Pleasant Surprise.

On Friday evening, March 16th, 1894, a pleasant surprise party was given at Mr. J. W. Burkhart's.

The party was given under the supervision of Mrs. Burkhart and daughter Maggie in honor of Miss Frankie Burkhart's seventeenth birthday.

The evening was spent in poetry, music and philosophy, and a good time in general. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. McCully, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. Settle, Mr. and Mrs. Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth, Misses Cora Doughton, Carrie Unger, Mattie Gentry, Belle Keebler, Arrah Stewart, Cora McCully, Messrs. Bynum and Frank Doughton, A. Bartley, Wm. and Geo. Unger, Clyde McKnight, Messrs. Blacklaw, Messrs. Buckner, Wm. Frank, Gilbert McCully and Oscar Davis.

At the doorway hour of two o'clock all repaired to their respective homes and left the wearied host and hostess to wander from the line of toil to dreams.

A Fatal Accident.

A sad accident occurred on Mill Creek, a branch of the Mohawk river, twenty miles from Eugene, Thursday, March 15th, about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Wm. Crawford, the unfortunate victim, was engaged helping Wood & Lilly on a drive of 1,500,000 feet of logs for the Harrisburg mill.

The water in Mill creek was very high and the current strong. The loggers were employed breaking a jam at an old drift. The logs started, and a long log shot out on the bank above a tree. The moving logs caught the end remaining in the creek and awning the other end rapidly up the bank, the tree forming a fulcrum. Crawford was standing on the bank and was caught by the log and carried along to a drift above, where his head was caught between the log and drift, crushing his skull and killing him almost instantly.

A companion standing near caught his legs and saved the body from being swept into the stream.—Guard.
