The populists claim they will poll 1800 votes in Linn county this year.

A hog with a face closely resembling that of a human being is owned by a Colquitt, Ga., farmer.

The Western Washington State Convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held this year in Chehalis in June.

Ex-City Treasurer Adolpg Krug of Seattle, convicted of embezzlement, has been sentenced to seven years at heard labor.

Richard Nelson, Treasurer of the Longshoreman's Union at Portland has absconded with $1,100 of the union's money.

The gold product of Western Australia last year was double that of the previous twelve months. The prospects for the present year are most promising.

Iowa's new liquor law provides that saloons shall have but one entrance, and that must open upon the principal street on which the saloon is located.

The expenses of funerals, especially as it concerns the poorer classes is the subject of investigation in New York by those interested in social problems.

It is said that the French Anarchists, Vaillant, Henry and Pauwel all had insurances on their lives, payable to the Anarchist Propaganda in London.

The blue uniforms of Austrian Army are to be abolished and a sober gray substituted. This is the decision of a committee of experts appointed to investigate and settle the question of the best color for soldier's clothes.

A strange disease is affecting the cattle in Osage county, Kansas. The disease starts in the hoof of the animal, creating irritation. The entire leg soon becomes affected. The animal grows frantic, gnawing at the part continually, and death results in a few days.

The New York Board of Health is making a practical fight against the spread of the tubercular disease. Acting on the belief that consumption is a preventible disease, instructions have been issued and printed in English, German, Italian and Hebrew, giving clear directions for proper care and precaution.

The Pendleton Tribune says: It is estimated that by next Saturday night nearly $50,000 will have been paid for taxes at the sheriff's office. Taxes will become delinquent after that date. The receipts for this week are expected to reach $35,000. Total amount to be collected for all purposes is $213,005.

The trustees of the Oregon Soldiers' Home have awarded the following contracts for furnishing the new home at Roseburg: For furnishing blankets to the Albany Woolen Mills Co.; for mattresses, the Pacific Mattress Co., of Albany, for chairs and bedsteads, the Lee Brown Manufacturing Co., of Stayton. This speaks volumes for Albany's manufacturing industries.

According to the statement of a leading populists here are in Tacoma and Seattle over 1500 members of the industrial army. Some time ago a man representing himself as an organizer of this order was in that city and gained a large number of recruits. One man who claims he is a member says instructions have been received from headquarters that will start a contingent from the sound cities towards Washington very shortly. The route taken will be over the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways.

C. H. Enig, a carpet weaver of Hamilton, Ohio, sold a dozen eggs to the family of J. P. Bergin. Upon breaking the shell of one, the eye end of a broken needle to which was attached a piece of thread dropped out with the yolk.

The S. P. R. R. have agreed to issue tickets to persons attending the Prohibition Convention at Salem, April 4th for one and one-third fare. Pay full fare going and get ticket for one-third fare returning. All prohibitionists are invited to attend as delegates.

Bradstreet's review of the state of trade pronounces the outlook very cheering. Consumption is stimulated in all staple lines. In the New England, and middle states, where general trade was reported barely steady, there are reports of increased sales, and some drygoods houses are working nights in Chicago, to keep up with orders.

The Scio Press says: The populist(?) who made the loan a week or two ago of $100, taking a note bearing interest, due a year hence, of $150 for it, should justly forfeit the whole amount to the school fund. A man who will take advantage of other people's necessities has a soul so small that if it were placed in the hull of a mustard seed, would have as much room in comparison, as would a tadpole in Lake Superior.

A dispatch to the Salem Journal from Corvallis reads: It is rumored that Mrs. Kenyon, Dr. Applewhite's paramour in the alleged adultery case to come up when court convenes, has made a long affidavit, telling the whole story from beginning to end. Her bondsmen say they will surrender the prisoner and withdraw bail. Dr. Applewhite is the treasurer of the State Agricultural College and a prominent man.

THE POPULIST.

(Composed by PETER LA FARGE.)
 O Populist! O Populist!
 They say you have gone wild,
 So, when you argue politics
 Just give it to us mild.
 For there are things a-going on here
 I do not think are fair.
 For the goldbugs have the money
 And Cleveland's got the chair.

O Farmers! O Farmers!
 Hard times now have come
 And if you're not very careful
 Then you will lose your home.
 You be a little careful
 Look out now what you're about,
 For if you do not pay your taxes,
 The sheriff will sell you out.
 For there are things a-going on here
 I do not think are fair.
 For the goldbugs have the money
 And Cleveland's got the chair.

You can see the women running
 The street, with a house full of
 Children, and nothing to eat,
 Nothing to eat—nothing to wear.
 For the goldbugs have the money
 And Cleveland's got the chair.

You see them running around
 Gathering up old bags
 For they are going to make money
 And make it out of rags.
 They had better get good strong ones
 So they will not tear, for they may
 Have to put on gunny sacks to wear.
 Hard times now have come,
 As you may suppose
 Men, women and children
 Are all out of clothes—
 Nothing to eat—nothing to wear,
 For the goldbugs have the money
 And Cleveland's got the chair.

You will see the preachers running
 (around)
 Hunting up their church members,
 And not one to be found.
 They will go to the sisters—
 O! Are you hurt?
 And what is the reason
 That you do not come to church?
 O this is the reason,
 It is this, dear brother,
 I haven't any clothes.
 Oh, you must come sister,
 Now don't say you can't,
 For Cleveland has a patch
 On the seat of his pants.

Each is not selling his clothing at cost, but still you can get a better suit
 there for less money than anywhere else.

Bold Burglars.

Sunday morning about fifteen tramps were dumped off the overland at this city and then spread themselves out over the city after whatever they could capture. In the forenoon during the absence of the families at church a couple men entered the residence of Robert Conn on 4th street and stole about $8 in cash and two gold rings belonging to Mrs. McChesney. The residence of County Recorder E. E. Davis, which is near Mr. Conn's, was also entered. Dinner had been set already for the family on their return from church. This the men took internally besides 65 cents in money. In the evening the residence of Mrs. Dana Burmaster, opposite the U. P. church, was entered during the evening services. Beds were overturned, the contents of drawers emptied on the floor, and $15 dollars secured, but other things were left. In each case the burglars were after money straight. Chief of Police Lee during the day searched a large number of strangers and gradually drove the tramp element from the city after a chase lasting until 11 o'clock at night. Our citizens generally should be careful to keep their windows as well as doors fastened. The large number of tramps now traveling through the country calls for extra precautions.—Democrat.

A Surprise Party.

A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Guy at their home last Saturday night under the management of Mrs. Parker. The guests numbered a round dozen beside the younger ones, all of whose names are not known to the writer. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bilyeu and daughter, Daisy; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thompson, Minnie and Ebert; Rev. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Zahn Parrish and children, Rev. C. R. Lamar, Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson and the Messrs. Hamsard. It was a genuine surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Guy. Mrs. Parker went over early in the evening to keep Mrs. Guy at home while the guests were collecting, and Mrs. Guy said Mrs. Parker was never known to keep a secret before. A splendid social time was had until 10 o'clock and then came the grandest part of the evening, which was enjoyed by all, and especially the two Revs. It was said the cause of Rev. Turner's thin appearance was that he ate so much it made him poor to carry it. ONE OF THE GUESTS.

A. B. Owen, of Roseburg, made a curious discovery the other day in an oak tree which proved to be a small leather pouch which had evidently been placed there a long time ago and was almost concealed by a new growth about it. Within this pouch there are several stock certificates in the "Thirty-one Union Gold, Silver and Gold Mining Co.," an incorporation owning property in the Garden Bar district in Placer county, California. This stock aggregated 140 shares of $100 each, the capital stock of the company being $820,000 and were issued to J. A. Manier on Nov. 5, 1863—over thirty years ago. Each certificate has attached to it a 25-cent revenue stamp. The question is, who placed the papers in the tree, and when, and for what purpose?

A delicate and successful surgical operation was performed on the person of Mr. C. J. Hardman, residing a few miles from Albany, Thursday of last week by Drs. Maston & Davis. The operation consisted in opening the abdominal cavity and removing adhesions that had formed between the omentum and intestines and removing a portion of the omentum and straightening the intestines that had been bound down by adhesions and become knotted. The operation has proven to be entirely successful as Mr. Hardman is taking nourishment and feeling quite well on this the ninth day after the operation. So much for modern surgery.—Democrat.

A man in a neighboring town says that when he meets a hog now in the road he feels like taking off his hat to it. Because, he says, the American hog is the salvation of this country. When everything else fails, when wheat is low, and horses won't sell, when the farmer is at his wit's end to know where to get the money to pay his taxes and interest, the hog comes to his rescue and helps him out. Long live the American hog.—The Dallas Times-Mountaineer.

A practice common at country post-offices, is for person who have locked boxes to try their keys in other person's boxes to see if it will fit or if the box is locked, very few know that they lay themselves liable to prosecution and fine. This act is a violation of "Uncle Sam's" postal law, and is punishable as such. A case occurred recently where valuable mail was taken from a box in the postoffice by unknown parties. A young man was arrested for the theft, and although the crime could not be proven, it was shown that he was in the habit of opening boxes without permission and he was fined $300 and given one year in the penitentiary.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have duly filed my final account in the matter of the estate of Peter Welt, deceased, in the county court of Linn county, Oregon, and that said court has set Monday the 7th day of May 1894, at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. of said day as the time for hearing all objections to said final account and the settlement of the same; therefore all persons having any interest in said estate or having any objections to said final account are hereby notified and required to appear at said time and have such objections heard and settled by the court.

Dated this 6th day of April, 1894.
