

Expressions.

Additional locals on first page.

See Read Peacock & Co's. new "ad."

The price of wheat and oats is advanced.

The Lebanon public school closed last Friday.

A. I. Morris, of Albany was in the city Tuesday.

Every customer at Borum & Kirk's barber shop gets a clean towel.

Jacob Arn returned Tuesday from a visit in Salem.

Henry Jackson, of Sweet Home was in Lebanon Tuesday.

J. S. Courtney M. D. Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher, Lebanon, Or.

Mr. W. B. Donica refused 30 cents per bushel for his oats in the warehouse this week.

Settle your account with Cruson & Menzies at the old stand with G. W. Cruson.

H. C. Klepper has put a nice new picket fence in front of his property.

Summer school at the Santiam Academy begins April 30, 1894. See circular, just out.

A subscription to the EXPRESS from low until after the election, for only 25 cents.

All accounts of the firm Cruson & Menzies must be settled at once with G. W. Cruson.

All public school grades at one dollar a month, at the Santiam Academy summer school. See circulars.

Mr. Harden has moved into Mr. Montague's house the one recently vacated by J. M. Marks.

We need our money and must have it pay your account with Cruson & Menzies to G. W. Cruson.

If you are thinking of buying a new spring dress, remember Read, Peacock & Co's new spring goods.

I have a few second-hand books that I will close out at a bargain.

M. A. MILLER.

Baker is receiving clothing, boots and shoes daily, in spite of the hard times. His low prices make the goods sell.

Is it good to let the child spend five months of the year on the street when he can go on with his studies at the academy at one dollar per month?

We received a letter this week from H. J. Boyd, the photographer, saying he would be back about the first of May.

These hard times we want to save all we can, but of course we have to eat, still you will save some by getting your groceries at Bach's.

S. M. Garland is the proud father of a fine 10-lb. girl who arrived last Saturday, April 21. Mother and baby doing well.

The Theater Royal Dramatic Co. have canceled their engagement at this place. They said that they would make a new date sometime in the near future.

The fireboys are drilling regularly twice a week and are making rapid progress. They will be in condition to cooperate with any of the valley teams at the contests this summer.

Mr. F. L. Frost, one of the proprietors of the Tallman warehouse, was in the city this week, offering 30 cents for good oats. We don't know whether he succeeded in buying any or not.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give an ice cream social, at the G. A. R. hall on Wednesday evening May 2. Admission including supper 10 cents. An interesting programme has been prepared.

Last Wednesday evening at the business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. the following delegates were elected to the state convention which meets at Corvallis, May 10th. Mrs. J. H. Beattie, Misses Maud Aldrich and Emma Crudall, Messrs. L. A. Wiley and Don Swan.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. For sale by N. W. Smith druggist, 50 cents a bottle.

Messrs. J. R. Whitney, C. W. Watts, C. B. Winn, Al Boenicke, E. M. Horton and Jos. Klein of Albany, passed through Lebanon Monday on their return to Albany from a fishing jaunt up the Santiam. They took dinner at the St. Charles and were registered as "Coxey's Advance Guard," but from the general appearance of the gang we would guess that Coxey would scarcely own them abroad.

Mr. Ada W. Unruh will be in Lebanon Friday May 4th. In the interests of the Temperance cause, will hold a woman's meeting at 2 P. M. to which every woman in town is invited. Also a chalk talk for the children, and young people, at 3:30 P. M. and a popular meeting in the evening for everybody. Subject of lecture "Our National Sin." Mrs. Unruh is very highly recommended as an eloquent and interesting platform speaker, and we ask everybody to come out and hear her. Meetings to be held in the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Abbey Fry, left for Albany last Saturday to attend college.

R. W. Fisher, the Sodaville merchant, was on our streets Tuesday.

Miss Maud Aldrich was a compositor in this office for a few days this week.

When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Bach's.

Mr. C. M. Charlton of Salem is in the city visiting his father.

Hiram Baker received a large invoice of Spring clothing this week of the latest shades and styles.

A line of both cotton and woolen dress goods have just arrived at Read, Peacock & Co's. Something new.

The accounts of Cruson & Menzies will be placed in the hands of a collector April 1, 1894. G. W. CRUSON.

W. J. Guy returned to Portland Monday where his wife is being treated at a hospital.

The art of cream candy making taught at A. E. Davis' store. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

G. F. Knowles and family arrived in Lebanon yesterday. They are recent from South Dakota. They have rented one of Mr. Kirkpatrick's buildings, and will open a racket store.

Wash fabrics of almost every description, new goods, new styles and low prices. S. E. YOUNG, Albany, Or.

The Express acknowledged a pleasant call from A. J. Johnson candidate for state senator on the republican ticket. Mr. Johnson is a fine upright young man.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will have charge of the public service next Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30. A good interesting service may be expected.

You should remember that the best place to buy pianos or organs is at Will's music store, Albany, Or. His goods are not taken advantage of people's ignorance and he is a cheap made piano at the price of a good one.

A prominent member of the republican club was heard to remark, that he was very thankful that Mr. Mitchell the republican speaker, had a stormy night for his speech, as the address was not worth hearing.

The county commissioners, accompanied by expert Dan Large, went out to Sanderson's bridge yesterday afternoon to see how work was progressing on it. They found everything apparently satisfactory. It will be completed and opened for public travel about next Thursday.—Irraid.

The Lincoln county democrats have nominated Marsh Simpson for county judge. It is almost half a century since, as a boy, he came with his father, Uncle Mid Simpson, across the plains and began to rough it out beyond the Lukiamute.—Ex.

The Evans & Soutrg theatrical company is not meeting with success in Oregon. It is so tough that the city council at Grants Pass and Ashland refused to grant them license to play, and their engagements at those places were cancelled.

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock as Gus Johnson and S. T. Hobert were talking on the latter's farm about two miles from Silverton, beneath an old oak tree which had been burning for two days; the tree suddenly fell, and before Mr. Johnson could escape he was caught by a limb and thrown down and the main portion of the huge tree fell upon him crushing him to death.

Another movement is being made to secure for Yaquina a life saving station, and it is a good one. For the past fifteen years a service has been needed in that section and thereby many lives could have been saved which were lost. Capt. Blakeney, chief of the life saving service, and Capt. Hooper, of the "Richard Rush," have been looking over the grounds, but as yet no definite site has been selected.

If you have anything you don't want or can't sell, or something your hogs can't eat, why in the thunder don't you bring it to this office and apply it on your subscription? If you don't read and have no use for the paper take the stuff to the preacher; he comes next.—Desoto (Cal.) Shavings

The regular subscription price of the EXPRESS is $1.50 a year, and the regular subscription price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50. Any one subscribing for the EXPRESS and paying one year in advance, can get both the EXPRESS and the Weekly Oregonian one year for $2.00. All old subscribers paying their subscriptions for one year in advance will be entitled to the same offer.

Just as a traveler was writing his name on the register of a Hempted hotel, a bed bug appeared and took his way across the page. He paused and remarked, "I've been bed by Galveston fleas, bitten by Waco spiders and interviewed by Fort Worth grey backs, but I'll be darned if I was in a place before where the bed-bugs looked over the register to find out where your room was.—Byron Eagle.

Why is a news paper like a pretty girl, is explained in the following: "To be perfect it must have the embodiment of many types, though inclined to be giddy; it enjoys a good press, the more rapid the better; it has a weakness for gossip; talks a great deal; can stand lots of praise and is awfully proud of a new dress, and cannot be kept in good humor without cash.—Steptenville Journal.

Bargin sale at Read Peacock and Co. Redpath Brother's shoes at Read Peacock and Co.

Mr. J. R. Smith finished moving into the city yesterday.

Spring shades of kid gloves, Centemier regular line and with large pearl buttons, Foster hook, Biarritz and gauntlet at S. E. YOUNG, Albany, Or.

There will be services in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the second and fourth Sundays in each month, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. W. V. MCGEE, Pastor.

Mrs. F. H. Roseco has sold her residence on Third street to Mr. P. J. Smiley for $1500 and her Washington street property to Mr. Ed. Washburn for $450. Mrs. Roseco expects to re-locate to Portland to reside.

My line of jackets and capes for spring and summer wear is now complete. Capes are the thing this year. And I carry a particularly fine line of novelties, at reasonable prices. S. E. Young, Albany, Ore.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Jane Moist went out to close the barn door just as the storm came and the door came to with such force as to throw her to the ground and dislocate her shoulder. As Mrs. Moist is quite old, it was a great misfortune for her. Dr. Booth was called and set the injured shoulder.

The Odd Fellows Hall, last night was filled with members, their families and invited guests to witness the anniversary exercises in honor of the 75 years of existence of Odd Fellows in America. A pleasant time was had by all who attended.

Will Elkins little two year old girl was buried last Tuesday, beneath a wreath of rare flowers; the offerings of sympathizing friends. She was a bright and beautiful child and her loss will be a sad blow to the young parents.

A. W. Muckie who has been in Lebanon for the past week looking around, with a view of locating, left Wednesday for his home in Labert Co. Kan. He was favorably impressed with this country, and intends returning at such an as he can get his business so arranged.

Contrary to expectations the salmon season on the Columbia does not start out very favorably. The average catch for the first few days was about 175 salmon per cannery, and the cannery men are not particular at present whether they pack or not.

A company has been formed at Newport to put up and operate a telephone line connecting Yaquina and Toledo with that place. It will probably extend a line down to the Alsea during the summer. The necessary material is on the way from San Francisco.—Ex.

Deputy Sheriff Sisemore, of Jackson county, brought two prisoners down to-day and turned them over to Superintendent Downing, for safe keeping. The miscreants are Frank Yeomans and Harvey Martin. The first was sentenced to fifteen years and the latter to twelve years for the same crime, that of assault and robbery. The sentence is a heavy one.—Salem Independent.

Miss Bina West will arrive in this city on next Monday, April 30, from Port Huron, Mich. She will give a free lecture on the benefits of the order known as the Ladies of the Maccabees. Miss West is a speaker of unguised merit, is a beautiful and refined young lady. All are invited. Union hall at 8 P. M., Monday evening, April 30, 1894. J. A. LAMBERSON.

Commander Lion Tent, No. 7 K. O. T. M.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. For sale by N. W. Smith, druggist, 50 cents a bottle.

A dispatch from McMinnville states that Hon. O. H. Irvine and wife and child were thrown from a buggy Sunday by a runaway team, and all received serious injuries, but none likely to prove fatal. The buggy was hurled down an embankment and literally torn to pieces. The occupants were taken from the wreck severely bruised. A later message to Mr. Irvine's brother in this city says that the injuries inflicted were not serious, Mrs. Irvine having her wrist sprained and the others escaping.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Johnathan Kenison, of Bolen, Worth county, Kansas, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it cured me. He got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. For sale by N. W. Smith, druggist, 50 cents a bottle.

The first shipment of spring goods has arrived at Read, Peacock & Co's.

The widow of Dr. D. Hayes Agnew, of Philadelphia, has given $25,000 to the University Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania.

At a Chicago museum, Cora Beckwith, the English swimmer, is attempting the feat of floating in a tank seven days without leaving the water.

The pioneers of Polk county are to hold their annual reunion at the Dallas camp ground Saturday, June 16, there being a camp fire the previous evening.

Another remarkable fish is on exhibition at Vancouver, B. C. Its head resembles that of a rabbit and its eye perfectly transparent. No one has found a name for it.

Word reaches us that Bert Waugh, a former brakeman on the O. P. passenger train, was recently shanghaied at Coos bay, where he had gone to work. It seems that Bert was working on the vessel helping to load it. Just before the load was completed the mate sent him down in the hold to work, and while he was down there the vessel got under way and sailed with Bert an unwilling passenger. The vessel was San Francisco bound, however, and it is more likely that Bert was perfectly satisfied to be shanghaied after he got over his scare.—Toledo Leader.

COXEY'S ARMY.

It is Rapidly Nearing Washington—Protection of the Capital.

Coxey's army is marching toward the National Capital and are rapidly nearing their destination. Had the rank and file of the "Commonwealth" done their trading with Read, Peacock & Co., there would have been no need for such a movement, for they would have saved enough on their purchases to tide them over the hard times.

To Steam the Ties.

At present the Southern Pacific railroad company is making some extensive improvements on its grounds at Cornelius, in Washington county. Two switches 1300 feet long are being put in, and a plant for steaming railroad ties will be built this summer. The ties will be subjected to a process that will remove all the wood sap, and afterward they will be chemically treated to prevent decay. This is the only establishment on the Pacific coast and for the present is experimental. It will have a capacity of about 400 ties per day, and the whole work will give employment to 30 or 40 men. If the company meets with the success promised by patentees of the process the work will be enlarged.—Eugene Register.

Charged With Assault And Battery.

Quite an interesting trial occurred last Saturday, interesting alike to teachers and parents. It seems that one Girard teacher at Fern Ridge, had occasion to punish one of his pupils, Miss Mary Loofturrow, for violating the rules of the school, in regard to whispering; and in so doing the young lady was thrown to the floor, and her attire considerably disarranged and damaged. Her parents and friends claim she was cruelly beaten and had the teacher arrested for assault and battery. A number of witnesses were examined for both the prosecution and the defense. Deputy Prosecutor P. R. Kelly, and attorney A. F. Stowe appeared for the state, and Jno. M. Somers for the defence. After a prolonged session the jury agreed to disagree and the case will be tried again Saturday at 10 A. M.

LEBANON PRODUCE MARKET.

[Changed Every Week.]

Wheat—41c.

Oats—30c.

Hay—$9 per ton.

Flour—$0 50@.75 per sack.

Chop—$1 00 per cwt.

Bran—75c per cwt.

Middlings—$1 00 per cwt.

Potatoes—30c.

Apples—Dried, 6c per lb

Plums—Dried, 5c.

Onions—2c.

Beef—Dressed, 5c.

Veal—4@5c.

Pork—Dressed, 5c.

Lard—12c.

Hams—12c per lb.

Shoulders—10c.

Sides—11c per lb.

Geese—$7 per doz.

Ducks—$4 00 per doz.

Chickens—$2 75@3 00.

Turkeys—10c per lb.

Eggs—8c per doz.

Butter—20c per lb.

Hides—Green, 1c dry, 2c.

Sealed Bids Wanted.

Sealed bids will be received up to noon of May 15, 1894, to furnish school district No. 16, Linn county, Oregon, with 20 cords of old, dry, red fir, and 15 cords of large dry oak or maple.

All wood to be two feet long, well seasoned, of large timber and to be securely piled in tiers in the basement of the school house, and to be delivered by Oct. 1, 1894.

Separate bids will be received for fir, maple and oak. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Directors.

SAM'L M. GARLAND, District Clerk.

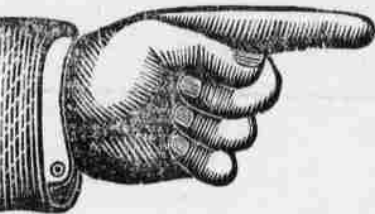

Bargains:

Our Spring stock is coming in and we have no room in the store for it. In order to make room we have marked our Odds and Ends in Shoes down very low, many below cost. They are all good Goods but we want to carry only full lines

We have thrown out a large number of remnants in both Woolen and Cotton Frabric containing from 3-4 yards up which we will sell at a great reduction from the regular price. Come in and see our BARGAIN COUNTER you will save money.

In addition to the elegant bargains we would call the attention of the public to our new stock of Summer Dress Goods, comprising all the latest styles. Also our stock of Men's Women's and Children's Boots and Shoes received direct from the manufactures.

Very Respectfully Yours,
Read, Peacock & Co.,
Lebanon, Oregon.

SAVE MONEY

BY TRADING WITH
S. P. BACH

Who always carries a nicely selected stock of Clothing, Gents' Furnishing goods, groceries, &c.

If you do not already give him your patronage try him, and you will always trade at his store.
In Courtney's Brick. Next Door to Bank.

BRICK!

I have a LARGE STOCK of BRICK, for sale at my Yard, in the suburbs of Lebanon, For Sale at Reasonable Rates. All kind of mason's work done with neatness and despatch.
D. W. HARDEN.

A. H. CRUSON

PAPER HANGING AND GRaining.