THE MORTGAGE TAX AND ITS FRIENDS.

Nine-tenths of the people of Linn County agree that the mortgages should be taxed. The Oregonian and the Portland ring bitterly oppose this law. The people represent their own interest, while the Oregonian clique are pulling for the moneyed interest. Whom will you send to the legislature—men who believe like the Oregonian and its clique, or men whose past record show them to be the people's friend? Ponder well the following facts and vote for your own and your neighbors interest.

In 1880 Hon. W. R. Bilyeu was a member of the State senate. A wiser, more active or more honest member was never elected. Always mindful of the interest of the people, with a mind strong enough to cope with his opponents and with an energy that never tired, Bilyeu introduced and had passed in the senate of 1880, the Mortgage Tax Law. The Oregonian and clique fought this law bitterly and succeeded in pigeonholing it in the house, the chairman of the committee to which it was referred being in the "ring." Who represented Linn county in the house all of this time? We think his name is S. A. Dawson. Who is before the people now for the senate? Hon. S. A. Dawson. The conclusion is plain, unless Mr. D. has experienced a change of heart, he would very likely oppose the taxing of mortgages. If he is now in favor of the law, we will be pleased to publish the fact in the Express.

Again in 1882, the people sent Bilyeu to the senate, as a reward for his brave defense of their own interest. Again did he hear the lion in his den; and despite the Oregonian and clique, the Mortgage Tax Law was passed and sent to the house. This time it passed that body. Where was Mr. Dawson then? He was not in the legislature. Who was in the legislature? Hon. J. J. Whitney. He worked long, wisely and well for this law. He never missed the roll calls, he was there at his post of duty and fought the clique until he succeeded in having the law passed. Judge Whitney is again before the people for his old position. Why not elect him? Did he not always serve the people honestly and intelligently? With Bilyeu in the senate and Whitney in the house the people of Linn county may know that they have two champions whom the "ring" can neither buy or bully. They know this because these two men have been tried and found true.

Mr. Bilyeu's service in senate is a record of honor to himself and good to his people. Compare his record to that of his opponents. The coming legislature will be the most important for years. We need men of legislative ability—brains, training and energy—men who are "on to" jobs of Simon and his clique and know how to defeat them, men who know what to say and will say it, men who know what to do and will do it, W. R. Bilyeu and J. J. Whitney are the men.

WHEN the organ of a political party can find no flaw in a candidate's record, after diligent search but seeks to manufacture prejudice against him without good reason, then the aforesaid organ admits the weakness of its own candidate and the strength of its opponent. The conduct of the Albany Herald toward Jackson is a case in point. That paper can find nothing to reflect on Jackson, but hammers away at him simply because the County Court (which is Republican) "made a bad bargain with the Abstract Company." There is no connection between Jackson and the county court or Jackson and the Abstract Company. If any one is to blame it is the County Court. Jackson will lead McFerron several hundred votes, and the senseless utterances of the Herald tend only to increase Jackson's lead. Jackson has made a first-class sheriff and the people know it and are not going to give him up for a bird in the bush, or two of them for that matter.

THERE was a peculiar marriage ceremony in New York last week, which is certainly a bizarre way of tying the nuptial knot in this country. In one of the fashionable churches of the metropolis, last Friday evening a week ago, Miss Julia W. Morris was thrown and there married to Mr. Frank F. Gearity, who lay dying of the time 2000 miles away, in El Paso, Tex. It was at the dying bridegroom's request, sent by a telegram, the dispatch being duly witnessed at El Paso, that Mr. Robert J. Hoy took his place, by appointment, as his proxy, and married him to Miss Morris. The ceremony was performed after consultation with eminent lawyers, who decided that the laws of New York would recognize the validity of the marriage.

From reading the reports of the destructive storm on Lake Michigan one concludes that they must have a very poor lifesaving service at Chicago. The loss of life in proportion to the number of persons exposed is frightful. Ships are being beaten to pieces and the crews drowned within fifty yards of the shore. The thousands of spectators who lined the shore are horrified to see men and women clinging to the rigging in momentary danger of death, and yet the life boats do not go to their rescue.

Judge Mills Monday sentenced Coxe, Browne and Jones to 20 days' imprisonment in jail for displaying a banner in the capitol grounds on the occasion of the May-day demonstration. Coxe and Browne were also sentenced to a $500 fine or 10 days' imprisonment for trespassing on the capitol grounds.

THE California good roads convention will be held in San Francisco this week for the purpose of inaugurating some plan to improve the roadways of the state. We hope that they will have better luck than Coxe's good-roads movement, and will remember to keep off the grass.

ALL the papers of the State, regardless of politics, speak well of Hon. J. K. Weatherford for Congress. Every one acknowledges his honesty, integrity and ability. He will pole a handsome vote and will make Herman get down to his knitting.

CLEVELAND's treachery to his party, as Penroyer is pleased to call it, is not half so glaring as Penroyer's treachery to the party that raised him from his obscure saw mill to the Governor's chair.

PENROYER is a political fake, handy but unscrupulous with his tongue, an avowed friend of the poor man but a better friend to himself.

ONE WALLACE will be next Assessor. No man has ought to say against him, but all speak in praise of his honesty, integrity and ability.

STANDARD has the Clerkship almost in his hands. Brownville should be honored at this election by honoring her favorite son.

SCOT is the field this time to win. Shelton will take Ed Davis' place in the Recorder's office.

ONLY ten days more and the political agony will be over. What a load of suspense it will take from the mind of the numerous candidates.

THE foundation of Grant's Pass' new city hall is about completed, and work will go forward on the superstructure.

A. A. Kew, S. A. Nickerson and Mrs. Jos. Elkins returned this week from Pendleton where they had been as delegates to the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. and the Rebekah. They report a fine time.

A CHALLENGE.

A "Populist," who has never made a speech in public since his boyhood days when he recited "The Boy Stood on the Burning Deck," will meet any representative republican in Linn county in open debate, in the town of Lebanon, at a date to agree upon. Here is a chance to administer anodyne to your dying issue, "protection." You can devote two-thirds of your time in explaining the cause of the present panic, the tariff humbug and waving the bloody shirt. One-third of your time must be devoted to the discussion of the main, and only issue, the financial question.

Address: THE EXPRESS, Lebanon, Or.

The above challenge of the Unknown "Populist" is hereby accepted by a person who never went to school at all and don't know and never heard about the boy who stood on the burning deck. Mr. Editor tell him to name his day, date and hour.

Has Saved His Life!

Marvelous Cure!

HARNEY, OREGON, April 30, '93. O. W. R. MFG. CO., Portland, Ore.

Dear Sir: About a year ago I was laid up with rheumatism. I was in a terrible state. I could not turn over in bed without assistance. As there was no physician in Harney I tried various liniments, but they all failed. When my condition was very serious, as the pain seemed to be striking near the heart, your agent came along and had a bottle of Congo Oil. Hearing I was ill with rheumatism, he called upon me, and brought a bottle of Congo Oil. He commenced rubbing me with it, and in less than five minutes I was relieved; in half an hour I was able to swing my feet out of bed, and one hour I was down stairs. He left the bottle with me and I applied it several times. From that day to this I have not been troubled with rheumatism. I feel that I owe my life to the wonderful oil. All this can be verified by Fred Dalmeida, of Harney, also the landlord of the hotel and several others. I always carry a bottle of Congo Oil in my grip now.

Yours very truly, C. H. NORTON, Assayer Burns, Harney Co., Oregon.

Scrofula Cured.

Twenty-seven Years.

Suffered all the time and Sores Constantly Breaking out—Used Eleven Bottles of Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root and Fitted a Cure.

Dear Sir: Ever since my eleventh year I have been sorely afflicted with Scrofulous sores breaking out on various parts of my body. The glands of my neck were the most affected. I have doctored with many physicians, but their medicine did not seem to do me any good. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root and I felt that the first bottle was doing me good, so I kept on until I had taken eleven bottles, and am now completely cured, and have never felt so well in the last twenty-seven years. It certainly was a cheap doctor bill, as the total cost of the medicine was only $5.50. I now cordially recommend Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla as the King of Blood Purifiers.

Diabetes Cured!

Wonderful Work.

A New Being Created!

Dear Sir: If you could see the writer of this letter and note the wonderful change that has been effected in his case by taking Dr. Grant's Kidney and Liver Cure, you would certainly be astonished. I was a most wretched sufferer for three years, trying all kinds of medicine and getting no relief. The flow of urine was very excessive. I was very constipated and also covered with carbuncles, and felt at war with myself and the world at large; but, thanks to your wonderful medicine, I felt as though I was a new being, and I consider a wonderful cure has been effected in my case.

With my best wishes for your further success, I remain Yours respectfully,
