 Some of the farmers around here are greatly uneasy about the pest that is on the wheat. While some think it will soon leave others are afraid that it will completely take all of the grain. We have heard of a few farmers who intend cutting all their grain soon and making hay of it.
 The Lebanon Cornet Band have decided to give free open air concerts every Saturday evening on the Academy grounds, beginning Saturday evening July 7th. The boys have been working hard for the last few weeks and are now able to make excellent music. A band is indeed a great benefit to a town, and the citizens of Lebanon should give the boys every encouragement.
 The young people of the Baptist church tendered Rev. C. R. Lamar a farewell social at his residence last Monday evening and everybody had a very enjoyable time. Rev. Lamar and wife were presented with a beautiful bed spread. He left Wednesday for his new field and his family will join him as soon as the railroad is opened up.
 Jerome Skelton had an interesting runaway last Saturday. As he was on the grade this side of Sweet Home with a load of lumber the brake slipped and the horses became frightened and ran to the bottom of the hill where the wagon came uncoupled and threw Mr. Skelton off but fortunately not hurting him seriously. The horses ran about 5 miles before they were caught.
