

FRIDAY SEPT. 7, 1894.

Expressions.

R. Chendle has moved back on his farm.

A. H. Cruson is in Southern Oregon this week.

W. J. Royce is in Portland this week on business.

Marshall Morgan has moved in the McCauley house.

W. J. Royce's father from California, is visiting in the city.

A line of Oxford ties have just arrived at Read, Peacock & Co's.

Frank Tivey and sister have moved into one of Mrs. F. M. Miller's houses.

Mrs. C. H. Lane and son of Salem is in the city visiting her sister Mrs. Lovelee.

License has been issued for the marriage of George Overton and Musette Huston.

Claud Lee, who has been visiting in the city left for his home in Junction City Monday.

H. J. Boyd and wife returned Wednesday from Newport. They report having had a fine trip.

Misses Lizzie and Lillie Farrell, of Albany, were visiting relatives and friends in this city this week.

T. C. Peebler is getting his new room fitted up in nice style. He expects to move into it next week.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Wm. J. Ortel, of McMinnville, and Miss Nina Parker on Wednesday evening, Sept. 10.

We need some one in Congress who will look after the Willamette river. It is navigable and should be kept so.

A motor designed to be worked advantageously by either steam or water, which may be also readily converted into a powerful pump, has been patented by C. E. Brown, of Stayton.

D. Andrews and A. Umphrey intend opening up a new store this fall. They will occupy the building Read, Peacock & Co. now have.

J. O. Rowland and son Will, was in the city this week a few days on their way home from Prineville.

Mr. A. Humphrey returned yesterday from Harrisburg, where he had been to see his sister, who was quite sick.

There is to be a foot-race at Waterloo Sunday, Sept. 16, between Frank Lewis, of this city, and a Mr. Myers, of Seio, for $40 a side.

Joe Kelso, E. Parker and Mike Wiesman left this week for a deer hunt. They will go near Oakland, Or., on J. V. Keebler's ranch.

Mr. Coudell was thrown from a wagon this week, and his shoulder was dislocated. Dr. Booth attended him, and reduced the fracture.

Ed Kellenberger's brother, John Kellenberger, and family arrived here Wednesday from West Hoboken New Jersey. They have come out here to locate.

Mrs. Geo. Rice is on a deal to dispose of her millinery stock. If she succeeds in selling, she intends to locate in California, probably at Los Angeles or Sacramento.

Dr. Leininger, J. R. Whitney, D. O. Woodworth, C. W. Watts and Chas. Metzgar, all of Albany, passed through this city Wednesday, on their way to the mountains, for a hunt. We may look out for some big bear stories when they return.

Rev. E. C. Fry, of Woodstock, Va., is expected to arrive in this city Monday. Rev. Fry has received an appointment as missionary to Japan, and is on his way to that country. He will remain in our city for a few days, visiting his father, Geo. Fry, and family.

David Fry formerly on the Express force but now a compositor on the Medford Mail, is in the city visiting his parents and old friends. David is a first-class printer and a fine jolly fellow and the Express boys and girls are glad to have him around.

There will be a fruit social at the residence of G. Lovelee, Tuesday evening, Sept. 18, 1894, to which everybody is invited, regardless of age, sex, color or any other conditions. There will be good music and all that goes to make a good time. Refreshments will be served. Hop checks will be legal tender.

Corvallis has a young lady 16 years of age who for a walker, is hard to hunt. One hot day last week, she walked in to town from her country home, a distance of twelve miles, in three hours, and after a two hours' rest, made the return trip in the same time or twenty-four miles in six hours. Beat it if you can.—Informor.

The Corvallis Times man seems to have been watching for scandal. The last issue says: The air at Newport is fragrant with a bigger scandal than ever. It is supposed to have transpired on the bench, but none of the details could be learned. Except for the influence it might have, in teaching people to behave at the seaside, it is perhaps just as well for it never to be published.

New goods at Read, Peacock & Co's. Hiram Baker sells 16 yards of calico for $1.

Prescriptions carefully prepared at Smith's.

R. B. Montague spent last night in Albany.

Buy your groceries at Peebler's and save money.

Feed oats for sale. Enquire of W. B. Danne.

We are glad to report Ruff Hiatt able to be out.

If you want to get nice fresh bread go to Peebler's.

Redpath Brother's shoes at Read Peacock and Co.

Go to Hiram Baker's for your $1.50 men and ladies' shoes.

Everybody that can spare the time has gone to the hop yards.

Jack Halston is helping M. A. Miller in his drug store, this week.

Times are hard. Buy your groceries at Peebler's and save money.

A line of Children's shoes just received at Read, Peacock & Co's.

Come in and examine my new stock N. W. SMITH.

If you want photos made and haven't the money Boyd will take your produce.

See Read, Peacock & Co's. $1.50 shoes for ladies. Something new and stylish.

Miss Beuna Kirkpatrick returned Sunday from a visit with friends at Shedd's.

When you want a new hat don't forget Pugh and Munsey. They have the latest styles.

Mrs. A. Brownell and daughter, Miss Clare, of Albany, are in the city, visiting Mrs. Brownell's sister, Mrs. Chandler.

Place your insurance with Peterson & Umphrey. They represent a number of reliable companies that pay when there is a loss, and do not keep you waiting for your money.

Mr. J. J. Dubulle next week will begin the erection of a handsome residence at the vacant lot at the corner of Lyon and 4th street, opposite the Evangelical church.—Democrat.

C. F. Humphrey, representing the Bradstreet Commercial Agency, of Portland, was in the city this week, gathering data of the business men, for a revised edition. Mr. Humphrey is an old newspaper man, and is a very pleasant and sociable fellow.

If you want to go East write or call on W. C. Peterson, local agent of the Northern Pacific R. Co., at Lebanon Oregon, for your tickets. The rates are low, and accommodations are not excelled by any road running east.

If you want to buy, sell or trade a farm, town lot, horses, cows—in fact anything,—call on Peterson & Umphrey, and they will find you a deal if there is one to be found.

John Diamond, an old pioneer of 1847, passed through town this week, on his way to his home in Coburg, after spending a few days at Lower Soda. While in this city he visited with old pioneer friends.

C. E. Pugh, Will and Charlie Donnan returned Sunday from Snow creek, on Seven-Mile hill. A. F. Stowe and Lance Peterson remained there, to hunt a while longer. The party killed two deer before they returned. Will Donnan killed one, and Attorney Stowe the other.

Dr. J. W. Ransom and party passed through Lebanon Wednesday on their return from a hunt at Moos Lake. They killed and elk weighing 1200 lbs. and five deer. The elk's horns attracted considerable attention as they passed through this city.

Miss Lois Courtney who has been visiting her brother Dr. Courtney, and family here for the past year, left Tuesday for her home in Illinois. Her friends gave her a farewell party at the Doctor's residence last Saturday evening. While here Miss Courtney has made many friends who regret seeing her leave.

On July 11 Mr. John Hamilton, postmaster and merchant at Tallman, came to Albany on business, and has never returned, nor are his whereabouts known. His brother, A. J. Hamilton, of this city, knows nothing about him. It is thought he "skipped out." His post office accounts were practically straight, but he owed Allen & Lewis about $153, which Mr. Bell of Tallman as surety, has to make good.—Democrat.

A party consisting of Col. Mitchell of the Oregon National Guard of Portland, Major Jackson, of the U. S. army of Vancouver, Mr. D. Weill, of Paris, France, one of the principal owners of the wagon road property, Mr. John McNamara, of Portland, and Major La Motte, of the O. N. G. of Portland, passed through this city Monday in a nice four horse out fit going across the mountains. They will combine business with pleasure and inspect the lands of the company and road, and also enjoy the sport of hunting. They are well provided with both army guns and Winchester, as well as excellent camp equipage, and several of the army officers are crack shots.

COLLAPSE OF A BRIDGE.

It Fell Twenty Feet Precipitating a Team to the Bottom.

On Saturday a team owned by A. L. Bridgefarmer, of Tangent, and driven by his son David, was crossing the bridge across Muddy creek, between that place and Peoria, when the structure collapsed. There were five men in the wagon, but no other load. The team, wagon and occupants were precipitated to the bottom, a distance of about 20 feet. It was miraculous that no one was hurt. Two of the men were caught under the wagon in the water and had a narrow escape from drowning. The horses were slightly injured.

The bridge was built only six years ago, and what should cause it to break down unless the work was defective, is not known.—Herald.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Council met Thursday night. The Ordinance Committee was instructed to draft an ordinance requiring the marshal and recorder to pay to the treasurer all moneys in their hands belonging to the city, without paying the claims for cost etc.

Petition asking that cows and other animals be prevented from running at large at night, was laid on the table, a councilman objecting to the wording of the petition on the ground that petition did not state that petitioners were residents of Lebanon.

The repairs made by the Electric Light Company to the streets, in places that had been by the company torn up, was approved.

The City Attorney asked instructions from the Council or to their wishes in regard to punishing youthful offenders for breaking windows and like offenses. The council directed the marshal to arrest offenders.

The following bills were allowed:

P. W. Morgan, for salary.	$20 00
S. M. Garland "	5 00
For lights.	80 00
For Water.	40 00
G. B. Cotton cutting thistles	75
C. W. Stokes, repair to walks	1 00
G. W. Cruson, insurance.	21 00
Smith & Westfall, feeding estray	3 00

Women School Superintendents.

In the school superintendency contest the decision of Judge Burnett is in effect that the constitution does not permit a woman to hold the office, and Mr. Handley still holds possession unless the matter is carried to the supreme court and decided differently, which is doubtful. In fact, it is not probable that Mrs. May will go to the expense of appealing the case as there is not enough salary connected with the office to warrant it, even if she were ultimately successful. It leaves the matter now in a shape for the county court to appoint a school superintendent, which responsibility it will probably not shirk. Someone should be appointed, even if it is Mr. Handley. It remains to be seen if the county court will allow Mr. Handley to hold the office by taking no action, or appoint him or someone else to fill it.—Tillamook Headlight.

A Court Martial.

Colonel Samuel L. Lovell, of the Second regiment, Oregon National Guard, is to be tried at Salem, on Oct. 10th, by court-martial for embezzlement, attempted bribery and mutilation of records. The specifications have not been finally framed by the military authorities, but they will embrace the foregoing accusations. The court will be made up of the following officers: Brigadier General H. B. Compson, Col. M. E. Freeman, Col. A. L. Saylor, Col. Dhas. F. Beele, Col. G. T. Thompson, Lt. Col. O. Summers, Lt. Col. W. F. Butcher and Capt. Gantemlein. Lovell is said to be about $2000 short in his accounts while colonel of the second regiment. As it was the tax payers' money that he squandered, the civil courts should try him.

A Summer Hotel.

During the past week this place has been visited by a party of San Francisco capitalists, who are negotiating for a site on which to erect a first-class summer hotel. It is to cost not less than $50,000, and it is their intention to have it completed in time for next season. It will be furnished with all modern conveniences, and will be supplied with a variety of amusements calculated to assist summer visitors to pass the days in an agreeable and refreshing manner. If this project is carried out in the manner and style contemplated, it will enable Newport to boast the possession of the finest summer hotel on the Northwest coast.—Correspondent Oregonian from Newport.

Great Tidal Wave.

The great tidal wave that was predicted would spread over the Pacific Northwest according to Prof. Falb's prediction, failed to materialize, although it struck Lebanon in true tidal style at 3:30 P. M. Tuesday. Main street was almost entirely blocked and goods boxes were tossed every way. They complained that large invoice of boots and shoes, for Hiram Baker.

Subscribe for the EXPRESS, and get the news.

PRESIDENT CONDIT RESIGNS.

Prof. F. G. Young, of Portland, Elected President of Albany College.

A meeting of the trustees of Albany College was held at the office of Judge J. C. Powell last evening, at which time the resignation of Rev. E. N. Condit as president of the institution was read, and was very reluctantly accepted.

Prof. Condit having become confident that a change of climate is necessary for Mrs. Condit's health, has accepted the presidency of the Occidental College at Los Angeles, California, and will remove to that city. He has been identified with Albany College for many years, during which time he has done a grand educational work at the head of this institution of learning and it is with regret that this connection is severed.

Prof. F. G. Young, principal of the Portland High School, was immediately elected to fill the vacancy. He will remove to Albany with his family in time for the opening of the college on September 12.—Herald.

COMMUNICATION.

GARDEN GROVE, Cal., Sept. 3, 1894.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXPRESS:

I see no rules in your paper forbidding novices to write to your paper, and as my first short letter appeared, I will try again.

May be you think we are all drowned down here as the weather prophet has foretold, but such is not the case, as we are living on as dry ground as ever and just as far from the beach.

We had a small shower last night which laid the dust for a few hours today. Speaking of the dust recalls to mind an article in the EXPRESS in the Waterloo Garbage column, where the writer says the dust is so deep that they have to bridge the dangerous places—the dust is not quite that bad here hence requires no bridging.

28 ult. was a scorcher. The thermometer went to 116 deg. in the sun and 105 degrees in the shade. Two men were sunstruck in Los Angeles but no fatal results have yet been reported. Some of the walnut groves look as though a fire had gone through their branches, all of the leaves and even some of the fruit being cooked on some of the trees. I do not understand these hot winds from the desert, but some people say it was the effect of the alliance picnic held here in the grove that day, and when the speakers were rubbing the Republicans and Democrats over the coals it produced the heat. Let the cause be what it may I do not want to see another such day.

Californians are strictly in it now, every man, woman and child, young and old who can get away from city or country homes rush to the beach. Surf bathing is at its height now. People by the thousands go in bathing every day little children four and five years of age up to the old people who are bent and gray with age. It is a sight never to be forgotten to see how hideous some people look in bathing costumes. We have Laguna, New Port, Shell, Bolinas, San Anselmo, Long Beach, Redonda, Santa Pedro, and Santa Monica beaches, all popular resorts and all in a radius of twenty-five miles of Garden Grove. Sugar beet harvest is in full blast now, but the tonage is small to the acre owing to dry weather. The mill expects to turn out 20,000,000 pounds of refined sugar this year.

I spoke something about snakes in my last letter, well they have all been shipped East, I refer to those to large rattlesnakes I saw in Santa Ana, but there are plenty more five-footers up in the mountains. Anyone can get plenty of snake specimens by going to the mountains.

Respt. Yours,
J. M. BUNTINGSHAW

Declared Insane.

Samuel Howell, of Seio, aged 32, was brought to this city Saturday and upon examination was declared insane and was taken to the asylum by Deputy Sheriff Quincy Propst. His mental disorder has been coming upon him gradually for some time. He received a blow upon the head some time ago from a falling tree, which it is thought may have caused it. His insanity seems to take the form of a hallucination on financial questions.—Herald.

An Oregon Invention.

A recent number of the Scientific American contains a description and cuts of a very compact and powerful motor invented by C. E. Brown of Stayton, Oregon. The motor is designed for operation by steam, water or other power, and can be used with equal facility as a rotary pump. In construction it is simple and it will in all probability ultimately supersede ordinary motors of engines for many purposes.

New goods and new prices in stationery at N. W. Smith's new store.

A man by the name of Thompson is in the city, with a band of horses, on his way to his home in Gilliam county. He brought over a band some time ago, but failed to dispose of them all and is taking the remainder back.

Henry Smith and Ed Umphrey killed 34 China pheasants, yesterday. This is the largest number that has been bagged in one day by any of our sportsmen, this year. The EXPRESS returns thanks for a fine mess of the birds.

1893. Read, Peacock & Co. 1894.

New Goods Are Arriving.

- Challies,
- Outing Flannels,
- Ginghams,
- Prints,
- White Goods.
- Boots,
- Shoes,
- Oxford Ties,
- Gent's Furnishing Goods.

Only 1st Class Stock of Dress Goods in Lebanon.

Give us a Call

Highest market price paid for country produce.

Lebanon, Oregon.

1854. Santiam Academy 1894.

Fall Term Commences September 24th.

Scientific, College Preparatory, Business, Primary and Music.

Circular Containing Full Information regarding Tuition, Courses of Study, Text-Books, Etc., Cheerfully Mailed on Application.

S. A. RANDLE, Principal, LEBANON, OREGON.

Wheels! Wheels!!

The Two Leaders of the World!

VICTOR and RAMBLER

—Send for catalogues.—

Write for bargains in second-hand and '93 wheels.

CHAS. A. SEARS.

Albany, Oregon.

Also see CHAS. M. ANDERSON, at the EXPRESS Office.

A. H. CRUSON

PAPER HANGING AND GRAINING.