

Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY NOV. 2, 1894.

Expressions.

Ed Kellenberger was in Portland this week on business.

Miss Anne Lee, of Junction City, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. R. Thom left last Monday for Portland to have her baby treated at the hospital.

A great many married people wonder why unmarried people want to get married.

Mrs. W. R. Barrett and Mrs. J. R. Thompson returned Monday from the Baptist association at Portland.

An Albany young man will in the near future make a pretty Lebanon young lady his bride.—Telecope.

Quite a number attended the magic lantern entertainment at the Baptist church last Wednesday evening.

Miss Mabel Carson left Monday morning with her little brother, for Salem, where the little boy will enter the blind school.

Boyd doesn't charge any more for photos on cloudy days than when the sun shines, but gets a good picture just the same.

Just to help us on our way, Boyd will make a reduction of $1.00 on the cost for photos to all who have been married less than three months.

S. M. W. Hindman, who has been sojourning on Squaw creek during the past month, starts for his home in Lebanon Monday.—Ochoo Review.

Rev. E. T. Ingle will re-deliver his address on the "Evolution of Education," (by request) before the Seminary at Sodaville on the first Sunday in November, at 7:30 p. m.

The subject of discourses at the First Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning will be: "Christian, Retain your Liberty" Galatians 3, 1. Evening, "The Irresistibility of God's Word," Jeremiah 24, 29.

Mr. Fred Warnock, editor of the Silverton Appeal, and Miss Ida May Sanders were bound together in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's parents at Tallman last Wednesday morning. Rev. Estes officiating. The Express extends its best wishes.

Memorial services will be held in the Christian church next Sunday morning. The fraternalities of which the subject, the late Fred W. Clevinger, was a member, are respectfully invited to be present.

F. DILLARD HOLMAN,
Pastor.

Five dollar Kangaroo shoe for $3.50. Callon, 16, 18 and 20 yards for $1. First grade House lining 34 cents. Umbrellas, Flannels, Gateous, Dress flannel, Ladies' wool vests, etc., at bed rock prices. Don't fail to call at the Racket store and get prices before buying elsewhere.

Ed Kellenberger's new butcher wagon, which was built by Mr. Bode, and ironed by Mayer Bros, is completed and ready for the paint. It is a fine piece of work and reflects much credit on Lebanon workmanship. It will cost Mr. Kellenberger about $250, which is said to be much cheaper than to buy at the factory.

There will be services in the C. P. church, beginning Thursday evening of this week, and continuing over Sunday. On Sunday at 11 o'clock, A. M., A. Jack Adams will be ordained to the full work of the ministry, and installed pastor of the C. P. church in Lebanon. The ordination and installation services will be conducted by Rev. E. T. Engle, of Vancouver, W. H. Jones, of Woodbury, and S. F. Longbottom, of Albany.

Married, Sunday eve October 21, 1894, at 7:30 p. m., at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. T. Hazen and Miss Mary Attridge, Rev. Vanderpool officiating. After the ceremony was performed they repaired to the dining room where a bountiful repast awaited all present. The evening was spent in a very pleasant manner. The bride and groom received many handsome wedding presents after which the guests departed. Mr. and Mrs. T. Hazen are well and favorably known and their many friends join in wishing them a happy voyage through life. X. Y.

Death of Arthur Porter.

Mr. Arthur Porter, deputy postmaster, died last Friday, October 26th, at the home of his mother, in the Third ward, at the age of twenty-three years, after a short illness of ulceration of the vermiform appendix. An operation was performed on Thursday, when the condition of the disease was found to be such that his recovery was practically impossible. The deceased was born in Harrisburg, in this county, and had been a resident of Albany for about fifteen years. He was a popular young man, and besides a mother, father, brothers and sisters, leaves many who will mourn his death. The deceased was a member of the A.O.U.W. his benevolence being in favor of his mother.—Albany Democrat.

Hiram Baker has received his fall stock of ladies' cloaks, and invites the ladies to call and examine them.

Mackintoshes for women and misses. New goods, new styles and popular prices. S. E. YOUNG, Albany, Or.

To The Public.

Those that never have tried a good house or a cheap house, can learn where to buy a good article cheap. The celebrated W. L. Douglass shoe, and the Barton Bros' boots and shoes are known by our Eastern friends to be the very best. We have a line of the Brown shoe company, of St. Louis, as well as many other lines, which are sold down to the hardest time prices. Our expenses are light and we are prepared to sell cheap. We carry nearly every thing from a toothpick to a locomotive. HIRAM BAKER.

Big Shooting.

Frank Dempsey, of Harrisburg, made a big haul while out hunting last week. He shot both loads in a double-barreled shotgun, and with the two charges killed 12 geese and two ducks. The band from which they came was a large one and the fowls were swimming on the river and afterwards on the new canal. Mr. Dempsey recovered all he killed and the result of the two shots netted him $3.25. Who has or can beat this record during the present season.—Guard.

The Halloween Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the L.O.G.T. in this city last Wednesday evening was a success in every way. Mr. Aldrich's building, on Main street, which had been chosen for the entertainment, proved entirely too small to accommodate the crowd. The programme was well rendered and equally as well received.

An Albany Boy Missing.

An instance of that peculiar pervasiveness sometimes afflicting boys of a certain age has occurred at Albany. Willie Emerick, the foster son of William Emerick, the well known butcher of that town, ran away from his home last Saturday and has not been heard from since. He is seventeen, but small for that age, not looking over thirteen. He had a most excellent home, and the only reason which can be imagined for his foolish step is that he had been gambling, and losing, feared to face his parents. The latter are almost frantic with grief and anxiety over his absence. It is thought that he came to Portland with a view of getting into the navy, knowing the warship Monterey was here.—Portland Daily Sun.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

We the grand jury of the county of Linn for the October term, 1894 of the circuit court, having disposed of all business presented to us, would most respectfully report that we have visited the various county officers of said county, and find the same in good condition and the respective officers courteous and obliging. We have also visited the county jail and find a prisoners therein apparently well attended.

We would therefore ask to be discharged from further attendance upon the court.

Albany, Oregon, October 27, 1894.

Signed, John Pearl, foreman, R D Calavan, C T Goin, E A Evans, T M Downitt, N M Follis, W S Churchill.

FAREWELL RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, It being the manifest will of God, in His wise disposition of His servants, to remove our beloved fellow worker, Rev. W. L. Molloy, from Oregon City to another field of labor.

Therefore be it resolved by the Ministerial Association of Oregon City.

1st. That in parting with our fellow servants, we do hereby express our full appreciation of his Christian character, his fidelity to his work, his fraternal love for his brethren in the ministry of Christ, his charitable spirit, and his integrity as a neighbor and citizen.

2nd. That we most heartily commend him to the people of Lebanon, whither he goes as a Christian brother, in whom they can safely repose confidence, and whose walk and life is worthy of their consideration and imitation.

3rd. That a copy of this preamble and these resolutions be furnished to the Oregon City Enterprise, Oregon Courier, Industrial Herald, and to the leading papers of Lebanon for publication, and that a copy be presented to Brother Molloy.

Done by order and in behalf of the Oregon City Ministerial Association at the regular meeting, Oct. 11th, 1894.

PRESIDENT J. W. COWAN, D. D.

CLERK HENRY WALL, B. A.

WEDDING BELLS.

At the early hour of eight o'clock last Sunday morning a few select friends met by invitation at the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stokes of this city, to witness an event about which "Madam Rumor" had furnished the public no tidings, but which was nevertheless agreeable to all concerned. Just as the company had assembled in the cheerful parlor, Mr. E. L. Matchette and Miss Leora M. Stokes, the daughter of the host and hostess, gracefully walked in from an adjoining room, and as they took their intended place the guests rose up and remained standing while Rev. D. T. Summerville, who stepped in front of the neatly attired and promising young couple, performed the services that made them husband and wife, after which Mr. and Mrs. Matchette were tendered congratulations and some beautiful presents.

The bride is well known in Lebanon as a quiet, unassuming, but very worthy young lady who merited and possessed the respect and confidence of a large circle of acquaintances.

Mr. Matchette, whose honored and enterprising parents live but a few miles southeast of Lebanon, is a young man well and favorably known in this community where he has been brought up. The happy couple left at once for their new home out on the farm of his parents.

They have the best wishes of all and we congratulate each on the choice made and the prize won, and believe that no young person in these parts will win a more worthy hand than either and they will do well enough to match it.

DEATH OF FRED CLEVINGER.

Died, at Lebanon, Linn county, Or., October 29, 1894, of consumption, Fred Wesley Clevinger, aged 19 years, 11 months and 16 days.

Deceased was born in Summerville, Union county, Or., Nov. 12, 1874, but for several years past has with his parents and two brothers resided at Lebanon. Fred was a youth of more than ordinary intelligence and possessed in a marked degree those virtues and traits which go to make a character at once commanding deepest respect and most tender affection. His exceeding patience and submissive gentleness during his long and trying illness attested the nobility of his nature. True, "The King of Shadows loves a shining mark." During his illness his thoughts and heart turned longingly to Him who holdeth the future as well as the present in his hand; and found that of a truth God is an "ever present help in time of need." His Christian experience was a very bright and happy one. He exhorted his parents and brothers to not grieve as without hope but to hold fast to the promises of God, that they might meet him again where pain or sorrow can never touch us more. He exhorted his boyish companions to accept the "free gift" of Christ and his religion, and begged his almost broken hearted mother not to weep for his death, saying, "Mother, it is only for a little while." At his request Rev. F. Dillard Holman conducted the funeral services, at the conclusion of which a large number of friends followed the remains to the grave, which was proudly and most beautifully decorated with floral pieces, where they left him "asleep in Jesus."
