THE NIGHTINGALE.

in singer in the world of dreams. Whose votes, entringing clear and far to the supply darkness, seems an echo from a distant star.

hon comest, as God's angels will. When day and all its noisier mirth, one past us like a wind, are still; The stars in Heaven and thou on earth Cheir shining makes some pathway bright; One hears there as he toils along, and passes on word through the night. Glad in their spicasion and thy song. —A. St. J. Adcock, in Chambers Journal.

STORY OF SHELL ANNIE

An Incident of Sherman's March to the Sen.

Nobody expected Gen. Sherman to come into Atlanta from the south.

Oh, no, in the natural course of eventa he must have certainly shouldered his way right straight on from the north, and accordingly the grim and grimy, frayed out fragments of liouda confederate army wallowed in the stilling trunches all along the the stifling trenches all along the vast semi-circular line of outworks that faced the valley of the Chattachee and commanded the ap-sches from the Allatoona hills be-

But he of the eagle eve was a strate t. He wanted to cut off and coop the gray jackets in the city, and for at reason he quietly marched the er part of his army up the west-bank of the river eight or ten ern bank of the river eight or ten miles, flung them across the river, and with a mighty swing of that ponder-ous trip-hummer of war he struck them from the south, thus cutting off their lines of supplies by the Georgia rail-road. Then followed those terrible days which wound up with the fierce on slaught of July 25, when the hope-less, half clarved southern men, the gallant mon of the west, met in a mighty gladiatorial comest which rerighty gladiatorial contest which resisted in the fall of Atlanta.

miled in the fall of Atlanta.

These are mattern for the historian, but what I am going to recount is one of those wild, wellel romances with which this terrible conflict was so fraught, and here is the strange story:

"On to the sea," was the watchword of Sherman's armies, and the sailen and dogged retreat of the confederates to Juneaboro was the first measurement.

to Junesboro was the first movemen of the defeated and despairing confed

Josephoro was a little iniand town, nestled amid field and forest, inter-spersed with beautiful undulating hills and grassy valleys green with the hope of the harvest, but little suited as a defenaive point for the bruised and huttered by one the world.

and buttered legious who were recoil-ing slowly toward the southern sea. Breastworks had been hastily thrown up fasting the line of the Central railroad, and in the citches behind them the straggling remnants of obsti-nate confederates were entrenched.

It was a gloriously beautiful summer day when the skirmish line of the northern houts debauched from the works and took up position in front of these breastwork.

Taken by surprise after relying in rain, on the acility of the southern stoops to check the onflow of the legions of the conquering hosts, the women and children, led by the lame and the halt and the southern of the and the halt and the aged men of the country, were fleeing for life, panie-stricken and utterly demoralized.

As the sun rose over the swelling ridges the eyes of the soldiers of either army caught the gleam of a little wilds tent, half hidden in a wood just a little to the left of the line of attack, and above it fluttered a tiny white ling. no bigger than a man's land.

t was a woman's handkerchief, and the chivalrous feelings of the American soldier were aroused as the prim veterans caught agot of that in-the appealing bit of cambrie floating there through the uprising mists of war. The order was passed to r epect that flag, and when the great guns began their work and shot and shot were hurled biazing and crashing across field and wood from either direction, never a gunner trained his plece toward a point near that little white house.

The battle was fiercely fought, but e combat was of short duration, and the shadows lengthened eastward the southern troops were seen in fall retreat, leaving the field to the tri-tumpliant victors.

As they swept forward a drummer or. Otto Barden, of a Pennsylvania egiment, passed by the little white.

Guards in blue uniform surrounded it, and while the amoke of battle swirled above and around there was a plaintive cry from the tent, and the stalwart surgeous lifted the slap of the little tent and emerged followed by an old negress, bearing in her arms a ting, white bundle.

"Please God marsa is your markets."

"Please God, marsa, is you gwinter take us off ter de norf?" wailed she, with the big team coursing down her withered face. "It is she kill Miss Annie ef yo' does."
"Not a bit of it, old lady, not a bit of it," replied the good-natured surgeon, with a smile.
"Hello Otto, tow're the good-heart here."

"Hello, Otto, you're the very boy I and. This it your prize as you are larest her age, and we are going to tall you to like charge of this wee choner and see that the little reb

The rough somers came around for a peep at the prisoner, and many eyes filled with tears of tenderness as they graved on the back that first seen the light is such grew-

"And it a woulder that she and the other were not blown to pieces?"

phaned days, "because she was seved from that shell."
"Good!" cried the surgeon.
"Shell Annie," chorused the sergeant and the corporal in a breath.
"Here, give me your canteen, Otto," said the surgeon. "Hold her bead up, auntie," and, sprinkling a few drups on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, Son and the Holy Ghost and may They ever protect thee as hathe God of battle to-day. Now, Otto the sergreant will remain with a file o men until morning, and you may remain with them, for you look tired anni worn out, my boy."
At the word of command the other soldiers took up the line of march, and faint and fainter grew the roar and rumble of departing legions, reling on irresistibly to match their blue billows with the blue waves of the distant sea.

Twenty years after the furling of the tunt sea.

Twenty years after the furling of the flags the battlefield of Jonesbore was a corn field, and the rustling rows of the created corn hid from view the almost obliterated traces of strife. Peace and plenty reigned, and the one-armed reteran of the north was hobmobbing with the precisional automatic the most coliterated traces of strife. Page and plenty reigned, and the one-arned veteran of the morth was hobnobbing with the peg-legged veteran of the south as they laughingly recumbed the experiences of the war.

Asheville has become a great recert for summer visitors from all sections on account of its quietude, its healthful air and water and its splendid scenic surroundings.

As the train slowed up at the little station a man, apparently blessed with all the activity of youth, but bearing shout him that unmistaknish air of maturity that indicates intimate knowledge of and rough experience with life, stepped on the platform and strolled up the hill toward the hotel.

The dusky twilight of the dying summer day softened the rugged outlines of the glouny mountains, and the tinkie of a crystal stream made music in the thickets below.

Suddenly the stranger was startled by a wild cry, and around a turn of the road came a horse at full speed, and in the bugg, swaying to and fro at his heels, there was a futter of white.

Springing forward and dronning his white.

Springing forward and dropping his billongings, the stranger clutched the reins of the frightened animal and arrested his mad career, but the shock was so sudden that the occupant of the buggy was tossed into the bushes by the roadside.

Releasing the horse, which stood trembling with fear and excitement, the stranger lifted the prestrate form, and as the crowd from the hotel camerusant to the spot ane opened her eyes in a dazed and startled way.

"Are you hurt much?" saked the stranger.

stranger.

"No, thank you: I was only frightened. I had just gotten into the buggy and was going for a ride when he became frightened and ran away. Oh, how can I over thank you?"

"Best by not mentioning it again," said the stranger, brusquely, handing her his card as he resigned her to her friends and walked away.

On the following morning the stranger arose late after his fatiguin; journer, and when he went down to breakfast beside his plate was a littl perfumed note, and he opened it anread it, half amused and half in wonder.

der.

"Orro Banden: Permit me to thank you and to convey to you the grateful feelings of my friends for your brave action in rescuing me from my perilous position y seaterday. As a partial resignition of your kindness, I wish to extend to you an invitation to enjoy a picnic excursion with us to-day. It is my birthday. Please do not fall to come. Gratefully,

"Axens Forname."

On a blank less from his notebook Barden wrote a line accepting the invitation, and then leisurely flaished his breakfast.

The day was perfect, and, as the apecial guest of the heroine of the day, he thought he had never felt quite so near at peace with himself and all mankind as he did white loung ing on the green grass beneath the shadow of the tall hemlocks at the foot of the mountain with pretty Annie Chatting in a desultory way, Barden suddenly recalled the day and the drama of twenty years ago.

"Do you know," said he, "that I waone of those Yanks that marched with Sherman to the sea?"

"Indeed? Why, you must have been a very youthful soldier."
"I was a drummer boy, and this day twenty years ago I was in the battle of Jonesboro."

"And so was I," said she with a nust be-"

"Shell Annie," she replied.

There are some stories that ought to be concluded before they are begun, but this, which is as true—yes, truer wast history—reached its natthan most history—reached its nat-ural conclusion then and there, and the Pennaylranis drummer boy now owns one of the finest fruit farms around Jonesboro, and the mistress of that southern home is "Sbell Annie." —Atlanta Journal.

fihe Was a Ridiculous Old G

A Cure for Diphtherin

"It is indeed," replied the corporal, "for look there where a stray shall gut its way through the bushes as clean as a knife."

"Well buys, she is our prize. Let us christen her, for time is up, and the Johnnies are waiting for us behind some bush heap down the road. Come. Otto, speak up. You shall have the honor of naming the little miss," sait the surgeon.

"Call her Shell Annie," said the boy, as his mind reverted to his own or phaned days, "because she was saved from that shell."

"Good" cried the surgeon.

"Shell Ranne" chorused the sergeans and the corporal in a breath.

"Here, give me your canteen, Otto, said the surgeon. "Hold her bedd up, auntie," and, sprinkling a few drops on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon on the tiny bead, he continued: "Shell Annie," buy the surgeon. The celebrated W. L. Douglass shoe, and the Boron previously vaccinated against diphtheris is an effective remedy for diphtheris in humanity. Although there has been no trial of this new remedy on the Pacific coast, a supply of the serum has been received in Sau Francisco, and will be at prices. Our expenses are light and we are propared to sell cheap. We carry nearly every thing from a toothpick to a locomotive. Himan Baker.

A great many of our readers Linu county like to take the weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reductive strain the first opportunity. In the larger than the first opportunity is the first opportunity in the for opportunity is the first opportunity in the first opportunity is the first opportunity in the first oppor serum, but were entirely free from the disease, although confined in the room with diphtheria patients, failed to contract the disease. It is stated upon reliable authority that serum is now a this special price. standard remedy, and may be prescribed by any physician with as much certainty and safety as a dose of calomel or any other ordinary re nedy The new remedy is imported in little vials, containing about seventy-five drops, a sufficient quantity for five hypodermic injections.

Lost $10,000

We understand that a Lane county capitalist, who has a large sum of money loaned in the Palouse, Wash, county, estimates his loss by depression in property during the past few sumption. It is the best Cough Cure months at $30,000. This money was Only one cent a dose 25cts., 50cts. Lane county on firstclass securities, but the indusemet of from 15 to 18 per cent., paid in Washington, not only lead this gentleman up to the slaughter, but also the farmers who foolishly borrowed it. It served both of them right.—Eugene Guard.

All who have taken subscriptions on wood or farm produce are requested to haul it in as soon as possible, for the rada will soon be in bad condition it the rains continue. Tell your neighbors that they can have the Expression to them for wood, fruit or potators. Eample copies will be sent free or application.

Ladies' Coats and Jackets

I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies, misses and children's garments. These goods were bought for cash and include novulties and staples of the latest patterns. Call and see them.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG,
Albany, Oregon,

KARL'S CLOVER ROOT, the great Blood purifier gives freshness and clearness to the Complection and cures Constipation, 25 cts., 50 cts., $1. Sold by N. W. Smith.

Only an editor can comprehend the of a pencilpusher. How to sale by N. W. Smith, druggist. make every man the most distinguished, every girl the prettiest, every "colonel." all red-headed out manus "golden-headed," not to mention the blessings received for failing to puff a fellow who passed through town and did not even call around for fear he did not even call around for fear he used other remedies without the constitution of the constitution On a blank leaf from his notebook larden wrote a line accepting the introduction, and then leisurely finished its breakfast.

The day was perfect, and, as the little combined with the almest from the combined with the almest combined with the almest combined to try the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the almest combined with the almest combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the almest combined with the almest combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the almest combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the almest combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the almest combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and to his delight its combined with the children's medicine and the ch the editor's wife for praising some other man's wife, makes an editor's life anything but a paradise.-Ex,

Two fellows, who found them-Two fellows, who found them-selves going in the same direction, agr & Co., doing business in the city of in the same manner and for the Toledo, County and State aforesand, and in the same manner and for the that said firm will pay the sum of ONE same purpose, have been pacing HUNDRED DOLLARS for such and every the inconveniently regulated ties case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the for a week, in Umatilla county, eleeping together in apparent harmony and sharing each other's sorrows. This was very good until a night or so ago, when one of the tramps stole $15 from his companand any amile. "for that was my birthday and the place of my nativity."

"What" he cried, springing to his feet excitedly. "Then you are, you

Pendleton to tell his tale of woe isia, free. to the sheriff, who has been on the watch for the scoundrel.

> Fine deer are very plentiful in Jackson county this season. William Gee, of Sams valley, was in Ashland Wednesday, selling 18 fine bucks. He and his men have marketed 100 deer so far this season, and Mr. Gee's hunters-Cal and Mark Winningham, Dave Pense and Sam Geary-leave sgain at once for the head of Elk creek to kill from 85 to 40 more, which Mr. Ger will have in Ashland in

To The Public

hypodermic injections, and who were the general news of the country once a afflicted with a most malignant type week, and the Expusss gives all the of diphteria recovered entirely white local news once a week, which will others who were injected with the make a most excellent news service

Hiram Baker sells 16 yards of calle

Hiram Baker is receiving a big in-

Hiram Baker has received his fall stock of ladies' cloaks, and invites the ladies to call and examine them.

If you have anything to sell or trade, call on Peterson, Ross & Co.

SHILOH'S CURE is sold on a guarantee. It cures Incipient Con-sumption. It is the best Cough Cure formerly loaned at ten per cent. in and $1.00. Sold by N. W. Smith.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain fully Mailed on Application. Balm bound on over the sent of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often a sure core for lame back. For sale by N. W. Smith, druggist.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tena. says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer SAVED MY LIFE." I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 75cts. Sold by N. W. Smith.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster a Weishton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhosa or long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholers and diarrhos remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to th rer. Such cures are not unusu with this remedy. In many instances only one or two does are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the swell the most popular, every business man the most successful, every cardi-date the most desirable, besides always for children troubled with colds or remembering to call every old uester
"colonel," all red-headed old maids
He has used it in his family for several from druggist.

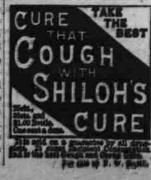

FRANK J. CHRICKY makes outh that he i

Bagers to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1880. A. W. OLEASON.

Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Core is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucuous surfaces of the system. Send for testimon

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

SAVE MONEY!

By Buying Your Groceries, Crockery, Feed and Flour at PEEBLER'S CASH GROCERY AND BAKERY.

> Cash Paid For Produce. TO STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PA

New York, of which number 41 resultNew York, of which number 41 resultset fally. Reports from Berlin, where the serum is being used, are to the subscriper. The Oregonian synapses proper year, and or the subscriper and or the subscriper. The Oregonian synapses with 1854. Santiam Academy 1894.

+

Fall Term Commences September 24th.

voice of calleges and shirting and so Normal, College, Preparatory, forth direct from the East. Business, Primary and Music Courses.

> Circular Containing Full Information regarding Tuition, Courses of Study, Text-Books, Etc., Cheer-

S. A. RANDLE, Principal, prevent a cold from resulting in LEBANON, - - - - OREGON.

A. H. CRUSON

PAPER HANGING AND GRAINING.

To Advertisers.

If you wish to obtain the best

use. returns from your advertisements

Don't Forget

the important fact that

The Lebanon Express

will give the desired results, as it Is The Best

Advertising Medium

in Linn County.

If you want photos made and havn't the money Boyd will take your pro-

East and South --YIA--

THE SHASTA ROUTE

Southern Pacific Co.

Express trains leave Portland daily: 6:15°F. M. Lw., Portland., Ar., 8:20 A. M. 10:25 r. S. Lw., Albany., Ar., 4:23 A. M. 10:25 a. M., Ar.Son Francisco Lv., 7:00 r. M.

The above trains stop at all stations from Figure 1 to Albary inclusive, also Tangents should, Halsey, Harrisburg, Junction City, frying, Engene and all stations from Ross-lung to Apland includes

Roseburg mail-daily:

Local passenger trains-daily (except 1:00 r. M. Lv. Albuny... Ar. 10:21 a.M. 2:26 r. M. Av. Lebanop... Lv. 9:30 a.M. 8:10 a.M. Lv. Albany... Ar. 3:25 r.M. 9:30 a.M. Av. Lebanon... Lv. 2:39 r.M.

Dining Carson Ogden Route.

PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS -AND-

Second-Class Sleeping Cars Attached to all Through Trains.

West side Division. BETWEEN PORTLAND AND CORVALISE.

Mail train-daily (except Sunday): 7:30 a. M. Lv., Portland ... Ar. | 6:35 a. M. 12:15 r. M. Ar., Corvallis ... Lv. | 1:50 r. M. At Albany and Corvallis connect with zins of Oregon Pacific railroad.

Express train-daily (except Sunday) 4:40 g. M. Lv., Portland Ar. 8:25 a. M. 7:20 r. M. Ar. McMinnville Ly | 5:50 a. M.

THROUGH TICKETS To all points in the Eastern States, Gan-ada and Europe can be obtained at lowest raies from I. A. Bennett, agent, Lebanon. R. KOEHLER, Manager. E. P. ROGERS, Asst. G. F. & Pass. Agt