

STATE AND COAST.

Taken From Our Exchanges Through-out the Northwest.

Mr. A. Fetsah, a Medford tailor drew $250 in a lottery last week.

A colony of Nebraska people has arrived at Independence, to settle on Polk county farms.

John Craig, the Eugene forger, was held in $500 bonds to the grand jury. He gave bonds.

There are about one hundred boys in the reform school, $61,300 is wanted for the school for the coming two years.

An exchange says the name of Rev. I. D. Driver may be presented for United States Senator. It will be a waste of time.

The Virtue mine's December output has arrived in Baker City. It is a big ball of gold and weighed out about $17,000.

Jim Averill, the Pistol-river duelist, has been put under $1500 bonds to answer to the Curry county grand jury.

"Uncle Billy" Gillam is circulating an initiative and referendum petition in Morrow county; also one for a new state constitution.

Dr. W. A. Cusick, George S. Downing, Dr. A. B. Gillis and G. Putnam, of Salem, are fitting out a carload of wheat for the Nebraska sufferers.

A young blood of Condon tore up sixty dollars in bills and threw them in the stove the other day, just to show he didn't care for money.

Baker City is to vote January 16 upon the question of levying a tax to keep school up the rest of the year. It will cost $4,000 and unless the tax is voted, school must close.

Secretary of State Kincaid will refuse to grant the use of the state house for an inaugural ball, he having written to twenty-eight members of the legislature, who object to its being used for that purpose.

As usual there were more weddings in October 1894, than in any other month. During the last fourteen years this has never failed to be the case. October is the great wedding month in Linn county.

The Oregon Construction company, Edwin Stone, J. L. Smith and F. R. Strong incorporators, yesterday filed articles. Stock $3,000,000. This is the Astoria organization that it to push the construction of a railroad to Portland.

It cost $29,829.23 to run Yamhill county during 1894, as indicated by the record of bills audited, which was $996.65 less than for the year previous. The expenditures of the last half of 1894 were $2,619.12 in excess of the corresponding months of 1893.

O. N. Denny, receiver of the defunct Portland Saving bank, today filed in the state circuit court a report of the condition of the bank. According to his report the assets are $1,985,192; liabilities $1,343,369. Assets in excess of liabilities, $521,796.

The Grant's Pass Courier learns that Fred Carter, half brother of Millard Hull, was drowned in the Hull & Beak reservoir last Thursday morning. It seems he was manipulating the headgate and was struck on the head by it and thrown into the water.

The latest sensation at Astoria is a sliding mountain, which appears to be traveling towards the bay. Four or five houses have been moved a distance of from two to five feet, and in one instance a dwelling was toppled over so that lightest jar will send it tumbling down.

John Sexton was arrested at Eugene Wednesday, charged with adultery committed with Eliza J. Smith, wife of C. C. Smith, prosecuting attorney. The woman is about fifty years old and is expected to be arrested also. The Smiths have a family grown and have been married about thirty years. Sexton is single and about thirty-five years old. The case has created considerable excitement in Spencer precinct, Lane county, where they reside.

The Heppner Record has retired from business, printing its last paper last week. It makes no complaint, but turns up its little toes cheerfully, and manfully. It says that "Onward and Upward" was the motto, and that it has gone onward ever since it started, and it now goes "upward."

Ten years ago the thermometer at Baker City fell to forty degrees below zero, and sixty degrees below at North Powder. Weather prophets predict a regular Dakota winter during the next few weeks. A visitor at Pendleton, from Haines, reports nine degrees below zero at that place a day or two ago.

The Lakview Examiner gives an account of rabbit drivers in that section, which resulted in the slaughter of 3,500 jack rabbits. The rodents had become so troublesome in destroying crops and gardens, that they formed a combination to surround a large extent of the country and drive them into a corral, where they were killed.

George Harris, a ditch tender on the Eonis-Cameron mine, met a big five-point buck near the head of the ditch in the snow one day last week and slew him in a hand-to-hand combat. It seemed he "corralled" his deer in the ditch and the animal in attempting to get by ran into George's arms, thus making the venison killing a clear case of self defense.—Courier.

Lissie J. Anderson arrived at Lakeview with her witnesses from Bowden, Or., last Saturday, to prove up on her land in that section. Bowden is about two hundred miles east of Lakeview, in the extreme southeast corner of the state, and as she had to travel in a roundabout way, they traveled over four hundred miles and were more than a week on the road.

The special committee appointed by the state board of agriculture to examine the miscellaneous exhibits at the state fair have reported that the most attractive and interesting display which came under their notice was the mining exhibit from Jackson county, which was in charge of Hon. Theodore Cameron, and have recommended that a cash premium of $20 be awarded it.

G. N. Frazer now has his new boat completed and a few days ago steamed up and tried the machinery, which was found to work satisfactorily. He has written to the government inspectors of hulls and boilers to come up and inspect the craft and as soon as this is done he will probably be ready for business. The boat will draw twelve inches of water when loaded.—Eugene Register.

General E. L. Applegate, who resides at Merlin, Jackson county, and is known by nearly every old pioneer in Oregon, is suffering from a cancer in the right hand, which has become a serious affliction. It is now considered probable that the arm, or at least the hand must be amputated to save the general's life. His many friends all over the state will earnestly sympathize with him.

It is learned that the school house in school district No. 65 near Monroe, Benton county, was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. It is not known how the fire originated. The entire building and all the contents were consumed, and now there is not a school book in the district, all of them having been burned with the building. The building was a good one and there was $300 insurance on it.

Grandma Townsend died in Dallas December 30, at the residence of Hon. W. C. Brown, her son-in-law, with whom she had made her home for the past thirty-two years. Harriett Townsend was born near Nashville, Tenn., October 23, 1809, and was, therefore, 85 years, 9 months and 8 days old. In 1821 she departed with her parents to Missouri, and in 1826, was married to James Townsend, who died in that state in 1838. She came to Oregon in 1847.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Eugene Loan & Savings bank, the paid-up capital was increased from forty thousand to fifty thousand, and the following named directors elected to serve the ensuing year: J. C. Church, J. B. Harris, W. E. Brown, B. D. Pains and F. W. Osburn. At the directors' meeting, which immediately followed, J. C. Church was re-elected president and F. W. Osburn cashier.

Jack, the 14-year-old son of H. D. Smith, of the Whiteaker neighborhood, near Stayton, was severely kicked in the face by a colt the first of last week, endangering the boy's eyesight, if not his life. The boy was urging the colt into the barn, when the animal kicked him in the face, cutting a circular gash from the left eye down to the mouth and across the cheek. He may get well, but his face will be frightfully scarred.

One of Medford's new butchers became involved in an altercation with a person whose name is unknown and drew a gun on him. He was arrested and brought before Justice Walton, and during the examination became involved in a row with the attorney on the other side, who drew the gun, which was lying on the table in evidence, and compelled him to subside. The attorney is now under arrest for the same offense.

Adam Mistler of Oak Hill, seizes Lane county from going another week without a gunning accident. He was climbing up a small tree and pulling a gun after him as usual muzzle forward and the hammer caught in a bush and discharged the gun, the lead passing through the knee of his trousers and close to the side of his head. Had he not thought of his danger and moved his head to one side, he would undoubtedly have met a terrible death.

Sisalaw Harbor.
 Late advices from Florence show that important changes in the channel of the Sisalaw harbor are being made by the winter storms.

T. M. Martin, who has just examined the jetty with government employees says: "We could see that the jetty has not been damaged this winter so far, but I am sorry to see that the channel is shifting rapidly to the north, and that it will require more jetty work." Ships have been entering by the South channel for two years, North channel having been filled up with sand at that time. During late years the government has started to build a jetty across North channel to permanently confine all the water in South channel, but the jetty was only started when the appropriation gave out and the work was stopped. During the last twenty years the channel of Sisalaw harbor has shifted a number of times. Four years ago ships entered by North channel, but last summer this channel was a dry sandbar at low tide, and a good, deep channel was a mile and a half or two miles to the south. The Sisalaw harbor bar has a good deep channel if the same could only be prevented from shifting back and forth from the north to the south side of the harbor.—Eugene Register.

A Debt Paid After Thirty Years.
 About thirty years ago, says the Corvallis Times, a man named Houghton, recently arrived from Massachusetts, conducted a tannery on the ground now occupied by the Corvallis Water company's pumps and engines. For some time Mr. Houghton was in poor health, and before his death Horace N. Hastings, a brother-in-law, came out from Massachusetts, and after his death was appointed administrator of the estate, which was insolvent. N. P. Briggs had a claim against the estate for $118, and Mr. Hastings stated that he would probably forward the amount of the bill at some future time, as the deceased's father had considerable means.

Mr. Briggs had almost forgotten his claim, after a lapse of twenty-nine and a half years and was most agreeably surprised on last Wednesday to receive a check for $230 on the First National bank of Boston, from Mr. Hastings. Mr. Hastings stated he was not legally bound to pay the debt, but sent the principal with interest computed at 6 per cent, the legal rate in Massachusetts, and trusted the settlement would be satisfactory.

In these days of panic-stricken, burst corporations and unsatisfied creditors, it is refreshing to hear of men of Mr. Hastings' caliber, and color is lent to the statement that the world is growing better. Mr. Hastings has been engaged in the newspaper business for many years, and, with his sons, publishes the Daily and Weekly Items, at Lynn, Massachusetts.

Mr. Hastings, during his stay in Oregon, was, for a short time, foreman in the Oregonian's composing room. This was about twenty-eight years ago.

The O. P.

The matter of the confirmation of the O. P. sale was continued until Jan. 19 after a long siege of arguments. Mr. Wallis Nash appeared as indicated by the Democrat several days ago and proposed to put up a forfeit of $50,000 by the date named on an agreement to bid $200,000 for the road. In consideration of this the judge properly continued the case until the date named. If the $50,000 deposit is made another sale will be ordered, if not the sale to Bonner & Hammond will unquestionably be confirmed as indicated by the remarks of Judge Fullerton. Arguments for the confirmation were made by Judge E. C. Bronaugh, Judge Whalley, George Bingham, H. E. Mitchell, J. K. Weatherford, Percy Kelley and Wallis Nash, while Judge Burnett made the plea for confirmation. The Times says: Judge Fullerton briefly reviewed the history of O. P. sale, and stated that the road had first been sold for $1,000,000, next $200,000, and now it only brings $100,000; each time there was only one bidder and on several occasions no one appeared to buy the road. One year ago he had, against his better judgment, refused to confirm the sale on account of the earnest solicitation of employees, and it was not justice to Mr. Bonner to delay matters now, but he would take the matter under advisement for six days. Mr. Nash strenuously insisted that it would take longer time to get returns from the English capitalists, and finally Judge Fullerton agreed to put off considering the matter until January 19.

About Teachers' Certificates.

At the recent meeting of the school superintendents meeting of the state at Portland the matter of teachers' certificates was brought up, and it was decided that several changes should be made in the present laws. A committee was appointed to draft such a law as was proposed. The bill proposed to be introduced in the legislature provides for four grades of certificates, instead of the many kinds now in use. Under the present laws there are three grades of certificates issued by the county board, then there is a state certificate, a state diploma and a state life diploma. In addition to these, certificates can be issued by the state school board and by any chartered institution of learning. The new law places the entire matter in the hands of the county board, there being provisions for two county certificates by the county board, and to state certificates by the state board. The power of issuing certificates will be taken from chartered institutions of learning. The standard of the second grade of county certificate will also be raised, and the third grade will require examination in fifteen studies instead of ten as at present.

To The Public.

Those that never have tried a good house or a cheap house, can learn where to buy a good article cheap. The celebrated W. L. Douglas shoe, and the Barton Bros' boots and shoes are known by our Eastern friends to be the very best. We have a line of the Brown shoe company, of St. Louis, as well as many other lines, which are sold down to the hardest time prices. Our expenses are light and we are prepared to sell cheap. We carry nearly every thing from a toothpick to a locomotive. HIRSH BLANK.
