C. A. Plummer, of Portland, has bought the Jewett mine, on Old Baldy, five miles south of Grant's Pass. New machinery will be put in, and the mine will be worked night and day.

Plans have been drawn for rebuilding the hotel at Medford for Captain J. T. C. Nash. The front of the first and second stories will be brick, and the third of rolled steel. The hotel Nash will be a fine structure.

A Yamhill county farmer has killed thirty hogs, averaging 409 weight. Besides hams, bacon, etc., he secured 3,350 pounds of lard. He says the hogs have netted him more than if he had sold them on the hoof.

William Galloway, presidant of the state board of agriculture, has appointed the following three members of the board as a committee on program: Jeff Myers, Z. F. Moody and J. H. Albert; also D. H. Looney, to fill a vacancy on the speed programe.

The county court of Josephine has instructed the district attorney to bring a suit to enjoin the treasurer from paying $3,175, in warrants drawn to pay for the cribs and approaches to the Rogue river bridge. The complaint has been filed and service made.

For several weeks there has been reports of loss of horses by stockmen in Rogue river valley from mountain fever. Last week on the Sampson creek range, near Soda Springs, six dead horses were found in one day, four of them in a bunch. The animals were in good flesh and were undoubtedly victims of the disease.

In the revised Woodburn charter, ratified at a mass meeting, women are given the right of petition upon the saloon question, also the right of vote on all municipal law, provided that at a regular election the women received a majority of all the legal votes granting them the right of franchise. The question of constitutionality has been raised.

Boys pasturing cows on the old Watkins farm, near Eugene, have in the past few days found a great many Indian relics in the way of ornamental beads about the size of bird's eggs and flint arrowheads. They found over 100 arrowheads. They are dark flint and well made. The beads were evidently obtained by the Indians from the Hudson Bay company.

Scio's secret societies can now boast of having an elegant hall, the equal of which is seldom found in similar sized towns. The ceiling and wall have been decorated with paper and fresco, and the wood work with paint and varnish by Messrs. Hart & Daunels, Albany's leading decorators, which is a guarantee that the work is well and neatly done and of which they have no reason to feel ashamed.—Scio Press.

The Nehalem lumber mill has passed to new hands, and will start operations the last of this month. The parties who control it now expect to put in additional machinery and make the mill capable of cutting 60,000 feet per day. The parties who are locating a large mill below Tohl's, expect to have their mill ready for business by March 2. It is also understood that E. G. E. Wist will put in a large mill at Nehalem.

A dispatch from Boston states that the American board of foreign missions has decided to grant the request of one of their missionaries, who knows the language and the country about Deli Baba pass, to be permitted to assist in the search for the missing round-the-world bicyclist, Frank Lenn, supposed to have been lost or killed in Turkey. Every person along the route who met the daring young bicyclist will watch with interest the effort made to find him.

A petition is being circulated in Pendleton which asks for a special enactment by congress granting a pension to Mrs. McKay, widow of the late Dr. W. C. McKay, for his services to the government during the Indian war, at which time he officiated in the capacity of government scout, a class of service that has not yet been recognized in the bestowal of pentions. The paper has been generally signed, and among other signatures are found the names of every veteran who is a resident of this city.

A form of cruelty to animals very common in Oregon has met with deserved punishment in Yamhill county. Frank Stickler, of North Yamhill, was taken to McMinnville from Newburg, Tuesday, by Constable W. T. Macy, and placed in the hands of Sheriff Henderson to serve a sentance of twenty days in jail in line of a fine of $40 assessed by the justice court. Stickler went to Newberg two weeks ago, and fastening his horse in a shed, left it without food for several days, the animal dying soon after being found.

W. A. Silsby came into Grant's Pass Sunday from the pass over the Siskiyou mountains, where he has been for some time supervising the work of keeping the road open for conveying the mail through to Crescent City. He says there has been a fall of thirteen feet of snow during the past month, which has packed to about seven feet. During this time the mails have not missed a single day. A toboggan drawn by two mules has been in use for some time, and about a ton can be taken at each trip in this way without difficulty.

COUNTY COURT.

The county court has considerable work on hand this month. Besides drawing the jurors to serve during the year, the board will have to settle with the several road supervisors, appoint and re-appoint these custodians of the county's roads in various localities.
