Mr. Robins' mother, who has been visiting him and his family for the past month, left for her home in California, last Saturday.

People that can not go to church and behave themselves ought to stay at home, and we hope to see some of them caught this lesson.

Hon. M. A. Miller is in Salem this week. He is there working against the county division. J. L. Gilbert is attending the store in his absence.

Rev. W. L. Molloy returned home Wednesday from Sweet Home where he has just closed a successful meeting. He informs us that there was eight professions and five additions to his church as a result of the meetings.

Prof. C. H. Alexander, of San Francisco, who has music class in Albany, was in the city Wednesday organizing a class. He will be here one or two days each week. He teaches pupils on the violin, guitar and banjo.

The city council will be doing the best thing that they have ever done, if they will pass an ordinance prohibiting the young boys from going to the depot at train time, and especially jumping on the cars and trying to act as trainmen.

It was decided that Blind Johnny would give another concert at Miller's Hall on Monday eve, January 27. Very few, if any of the same selections will be rendered as a new programme will be arranged. The programme will begin at 7:30 p. m. sharp. Admission 10 cents.

Mr. Josh Lindsay's little two-year-old boy fell down the back stairs of the second floor of the restaurant a distance of about ten or fifteen feet last Wednesday. It knocked the little fellow senseless for several hours. Dr. Booth was called but found no bones broken and the little fellow is all right at this writing.

On account of getting the appointment of postmaster at Albany, Mr. T. J. Stites has sold his interest in the Albany Democrat to his partner Mr. E. E. Nutting. Mr. Nutting is a newspaperman with much experience and we have no doubt but that he will keep the Democrat up to the high standard that it has already attained.

The great absorbing question of the state is who will be elected for the next United States Senator. At first it looked as if Dolph would have an easy walk over, but the question looks more undecided now. Below we give the vote of each house that was taken Tuesday, in the Senate.—For Dolph 19. For Bennett, 8. For Hare, 3. In the house.—For Dolph, 29. For Judge Moore, 22. For Hare, 7.

We are pleased to learn that there is another new industry started in Lebanon, namely the Anchor S Chemical company. This company is manufacturers of Liverine, a medicine prepared from our native roots, herbs and barks. This is commendable as Lebanon has been an extensive shipper of these articles, in fact hundreds of tons of cascara bark alone has been shipped from this point in the last seven years, made up into different preparations and shipped back here, the consumer paying the immense profits to the eastern manufacturers. This medicine put up by this concern is used extensively by the people of Lebanon and the members of the company are well pleased with the patronage of the people of this city. Dr. Lamberson, the general manager, deserves credit for his skill in compounding as pleasant and effective medicine as he has in this case, as many hundreds of persons that have tested the remedy, are loud in its praise.

The important question of more room in our public schools will confront our people in the not far distant future. The present regular average attendance is 215. Every seat and desk is occupied, together with some chairs and tables.

The concert given by Little Blind Johnny last Tuesday even was a fair entertainment, and enjoyed by those present. The songs were a few selections of the day. They were sacred, sentimental, comic and negro melodies. The proceeds were $9.35. This is a small sum, but speaks well, considering the times. Mrs. Holman intends to have him give a concert at Salem, and with a pass to Portland and reduced medical rates while there, which she has secured him hopes to have the needed operations performed.

All Lebanon is surprised at the unusual amount of business done at the Racket store and at the large and steady increase of their stock, enabling them to double the shelving capacity on one side. Still it is not surprising when we take into account the fact that they sell the best quality of goods for twenty-five to 700 per cent. less than they can be bought at any other place in town. The eloquent cash down all around is what talks. You don't have to pay for other folks goods. When in need of anything in their line, don't fail to call and get prices, they will save you money.

The Express would like to see some of our ministers or elders in some of the churches have courage enough to have some of the fast young boys and men of Lebanon prosecuted for misbehavior in church. It is a shame on a civilized community the way some people act while in church in this city, especially at the Cumberland Presbyterian. We know that these individuals have been asked several times to be have and it is now time to use other persuasion. It would not only be a benefit to the church that would push the matter but all would feel the benefit of it, and it would be a blessing to the community.

Last Saturday evening the boys of this place had a great deal of sport out of two drunken men who came out of the foot-hills. It seems that these two individuals had not been to town for a long time and after attending to their business, proceeded to gin-up, which they did in good shape and made two firstclass fools out of themselves. They started out of the city on a dead run, but one of them fell off his horse into the mud before he got off of Main street, but the boys helped him on again and they went on their way. The marshal happened not to be around while this was going on or the city would probably have been about $20 richer.

A young lady about twenty-one arrived in Albany last Tuesday noon, and had a sad story to tell. He husband had deserted her. At Medford she was provided with a ticket for Roseburg. She secured another ticket at Roseburg as she supposed for Portland, intending to enter a hospital, but it was only made out to Albany, and she was forced to get off there. She went to the court house; but court had adjourned, and Judge Duncan had left the city. The case was an affecting one, and Commissioner Waters hunted up Commissioner Pugh and made provision for her reaching Portland. She probably deserved the help, but so many cases occur where such people do not, that one is up on the list.

SWEET HOME.

Mrs. C. C. Copper had a stroke of paralysis recently.

John Greer went to Lebanon last Thursday to meet his wife who had been visiting in Oregon City.

Mark Chapman and wife came up from Oregon City to visit relatives in this place.

Considerable interest was manifested in the revival services which were held here by Rev. W. W. Malloy of Lebanon.

Some one dug their way under Mr. Amos smokehouse in which was stored quite a lot of meat, the other night but failed to get any meat. When they came upon the inside they struck some boards and supposing the house was floored gave up the attempt.

Mr. Rowel tapped an insurance agent on the head with a poker one day last week. Dr. Gibson was summoned who dressed the wounds after which the agent left for a milder climate.

William McKinnon and wife of Cannon Creek spent Sunday in this place.

Jud Menley passed through town with quite a band of sheep last week.

OBSERVER.

Another Tallman Social.

The friends of Miss Ida Smith who enjoyed the pleasure of attending the social gathering, given last Friday evening at the residence of Mr. David Smith, will long remember it as one of the pleasurable events of their lives. No pains were spared by their hosts to make it a success. Among the entertaining features of the evening were gaves of various kinds, music and a bounteous supper, which was by no means the least. Those present did not expect to attend a feast but had that been their expectation, they would, by no means have been disappointed. After supper the games were resumed, and the party ended at one wee hours, with a lively game of "Old Dan Tucker." The guests departed on their homeward way too lighthearted to sink very deep into the mud which is sure to be encountered on a country road of Oregon.

Those present were: Misses Eva Wallace, Hazel Smith, Ida Smith, Effie Denney, Mae Terhune, Viva Baltimore, Mary Wilson, Kate Barrett, Emma Skelly, Adilia Hardy and Hettie Hendrickson.

Messrs. John Barrett, William Barrett, John Swan, Oscar Moore, Mack Wiley, Charles Wallace Fred Sanders, Berley Davis, Albert Wilson, Andy Peebler, William Terhune, Bill Walker, George Keech, Eugene Smith, Harold Smith and Tom Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ensley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dowd, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith.

HAPPY HOME.

Miss Elvia Prior is still in Lebanon, visiting, we expect her to return this week.

W. H. Cummings has been in Oakland two weeks at the bedside of his little grandson, Willie, who has since passed to the higher life. He is expected home this week, and will bring with him, Mrs. Charles Cummings, for a change and much needed rest.

Mr. Kether went to Lebanon Tuesday, says he appreciates the walk, lately built from the city limits to the bridge. So do others.

Mr. Brown of Sodaville closed a very successful term of school here this winter, and many are wishing his services could be secured for the coming spring and summer.

J. S. Caldwell was with us again Wednesday. Come again Johnny, and welcome. We are always glad to see your genial pleasant face.

S. B. Western of Spring Farm, is suffering from a protracted spell of rheumatism.

Cornelius Kinder and wife were in Lebanon one day last week and says the roads are awful muddy.

BEDROCK.

Should be Stopped.

Some parents of this city surely don't know that their boys congregate round the depot in the evening when the train comes in, and some go so far as to try and jump on the cars when in motion, again they climb up on top of the freight boxes and act as brakemen when the trainmen are doing the switching. And as it gets dark about the time the train gets in, they can not always be seen. We have seen boys running across the track in front of the train, when, if they had fallen would surely have been killed. Parents should always know where their boys are, especially at train time. If there is not a stop put to them congregating at the depot and jumping on the trains, either by parents or the city council, we predict that we will have an obituary in a while up some of those boys.

The reason that J. E. Adeox, the watchmaker can change a key-wind watch to stem-wind at a less price than others is because he does his own work while others have to send the work to Frisco or Chicago and pay $7 to $8 for having it done.

Deputy Sheriff Moore, of Sweet Home, passed through Lebanon last Friday afternoon enroute to Albany with Miss India Howes, daughter of George W. Howes, ordered produced on a writ of habeas corpus. This is the case where Mr. Howes refused to allow his daughter to marry Mr. E. C. Russell and had locked her up. Mr. Howes has made arrangements to move to Missouri to locate. The matter was settled by Miss Howes agreeing to go to Missouri with her parents for one year, and then if she desires she may return to Oregon and marry the man of her choice. The marriage license will remain of no use for at least one year.

Mr DENNY's bill to amend the railroad commission law by making the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, railroad commissioners, to serve without salary, is an improvement upon the present law in that it extinguishes the three commissionerships and their salaries; but it would be better to repeal the law altogether. These state officials have enough other duties to perform, and if they really receive no salaries they could not be expected to perform any useful service. Repeal of the law, not amendment, is what is needed.—Sun.

As usual the legislature voted 90 copies of the code, one to each member, at $10 a copy, $900 thrown away. This is economy with a vengeance. Only two members in the house voted against it, Hofer and Smith. They deserve long marks.
