Strawberries are eight boxes for a quarter. Rev. J. H. Beattie preached at Corvallis last Sunday. Mr. L. A. Bennett and family have moved to a ranch near Harisburg. Mr. Albert Crandall is the possessor of a fine new Monarch wheel of latest design. Charlie Amos came out with a new delivery wagon Thursday. Its a beauty. Miss Anna Dumond spent last Saturday and Sunday in Albany, visiting with her sister. Dr. J. S. Courtney and family of McCoy, are in the city visiting relatives and old friends. The Walton property was purchased at the sheriff sale last Saturday by Mr. John Brewston. Mr. Dalgleish fitted up the Munsey property for a home, where he moved last Tuesday. Mrs. Osburn of Happy Home, was prostrated a few days ago with a stroke paralysis, and is very low. An itinerant preacher held open air services here last Sunday afternoon on the vacant lot opposite the bank building. There were several cases before the recorder this week. Parties paid their fines and will be more careful in the future. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Parrish, who have been visiting in Coos county returned to their home in Sodusville the first of the week. Fred Wheeler had the misfortune to get one of his fingers badly mashed while at work in the paper mill last Saturday night. Mrs. Dr. Lee and two little sons, Wright and Clare, of Junction City, are visiting relatives and friends in the city this week. Rev. A. Melvin Williams will hereafter occupy the pulpit at the Cumberland church every Sunday, both morning and evening. The Supreme court of Oregon has set Tuesday, June 18, 1895, as the time for hearing the case involving the sale of the Oregon Pacific railroad. Ralph Summerville who has been attending school at the Portland University, returned home last Wednesday, the school year having closed. The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a ten cent social and sale of work, next Monday evening, at Carman's old stand. Everybody is invited. The authorities are determined to put a stop to reckless riding and driving through the streets, as the lives of pedestrians are endangered. The various churches held union services last Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian church, at which all the ministers of the city were present and participated. Prof. J. W. Grimes, who has been teaching in the Anny public school the past year, was in the city this week. He rides a new Rambler bicycle now. Mr. David Fry expects to leave tomorrow for Medford. David is a first-class all round printer and the Express force is always glad to see him back at Lebanon. Mr. Henry Boyle and Bessie Irvine, two of Sodusville's most popular young people were married at the home of Rev. Brow, last Sunday evening. They have the best wishes of a host of friends. E. W. Anderson & Co., of Albany have received an order for the erection of a $2500 monument over the grave of R. M. Scroggin, the late banker of Sheridan. It will be a fine piece of work. Mr. Frank Skipworth, an ex-typo of this office, but now a law student at Eugene, came from his home in the later city, last Tuesday to visit his parents here. Frank made the trip in about seven hours on a wheel. He said the road was very rough in some places. He returned yesterday. Mr. Ernest Thurston, who is teaching at the Crabtree school, came into Lebanon on his bicycle last Sunday morning and attended service at the M. E. church. He left his wheel in the parsonage yard, and on coming out from church found it gone. The city star had taken it up because Mr. Thurston, being ignorant of the law, had run on the sidewalk. He got his wheel however, and went home with his knowledge of affairs somewhat increased. Honor Lodge of A. O. U. W., of Lebanon last Tuesday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing term: G. W. Cranson, M. W.; Edward Palmer, Foreman; J. B. Thompson, Overseer; A. W. Marks, Recorder; J. F. Hyde, Financier and Receiver; Phil Ritter Guide; A. Umphrey, I. W.; and W. H. Wallace, O. W.; Dr. H. L. Parrish was elected as medical examiner and Rev. J. H. Beattie was elected as delegate to the grand lodge.

The picnic was a success. Hiram Baker buys all kinds of furs. Go to Hiram Baker for your wall paper. Mayer & Kimbrough wants you produce. Old papers for sale here at five cents per dozen. In the Eastern States the weather is extremely hot. Miss Dumond is selling millinery at hard time prices. Smith has just added fifty new books to his circulating library. The steam wood saw is heard humming on the streets these days. If you want to sell property list it with Peterson & Andrews. You can get 8 loaves of bread at Mayer & Kimbrough for 25 cts. Mrs. B. Burtenshaw, who has been quite sick, is reported much better. Buy your tickets East over the N. P. R. K. of W. C. Peterson, Local agent. Pugh & Munsey want your produce and will pay you the highest price paid. Rev. Jack Adams was assisting Uncle Sam at the postoffice this week. Pugh & Munsey are always ahead on fresh groceries at prices as low as the lowest. When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Bach's. Deputy Sheriff Quincy Propst and family of Albany, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Goon. Pugh & Munsey have just received their spring stock of hats which they are selling cheaper than ever. Spring has come and now is a good time to have some photos taken. Drop in at the Lebanon Art Gallery and get prices. Tuesday was one of the days that makes the shady side of the streets as popular as the demand for better times. Pugh & Munsey have just received a large invoice of ladies' children's and men's shoes. See them and you will buy them. After June 1, Miss Dumond will sell all millinery goods at cost. Stock perfectly new and the latest, call and be convinced. Joseph Stewart has bought the lumber for his new dryer and is now devising plans for the construction of the same. Carpets, carpets, carpets. Matting matting, matting. Buy of the Albany Furniture Co. Baltimore Block, Albany, Oregon. Mr. Melvin Stewart took the bicycle fever a few days ago, and nothing less than a $50 wheel would serve to prolong his days. Don't wait till the days get hot, but come now while the air is fresh and cool, and have your photos taken at Boyd's Gallery. These hard times we want to save all we can, but of course we have to eat, still you will save some by getting your groceries at S. P. Bach's. Harley Crandall returned home last Sunday morning from the Mountain House, where he spent the week in an outing. He reported a good time. Hiram Baker received another large invoice of spring goods this week direct from the east. He invites the public to call and inspect these goods and get prices. Mr. J. Keebler and son Thomas started for southern Oregon Saturday, accompanied by Mr. Joseph Melvin of Oakland, California. Mr. Melvin is a brother of Mrs. Keebler. Ladies if you are thinking of getting a pair of shoes or a new dress next week, you will want to know where to get the best for the least money. Mr. Baker always carries the best. Ed Guy found a boy's coat last Friday between Lebanon and Sodusville. The coat will fit a boy about eight years old. The owner can have the same by calling at this office, paying for this notice and describing the property. Goods renewed every two weeks, therefore always fresh and new. The finest lot of laces in town at prices away below competition. Our challis cannot be matched in price, half wool 15c., cotton twenty-five yards for $1. Good heavy overalls 50c. Men's under shirts and drawers 50c a suit. The best grain plow shoe in the market $1.30. Ladies fine Oxford ties $1.15. We are now having men's shirts made here at Lebanon in first-class shape. Much better than the factory made article. At the Racket store. The business committee of arrangements for the hose team for this Lebanon picnic met last night and selected the following team: James Shields, foreman and coupling breaker; Charlie Medin, coupler; Louis Dyer, assistant, A. L. Lamb, nozzle man; William Aubbell, Toy Bentley, Thomas Riley, Gilbert McCully, Robert Chambers, Fred Bloom, Charles Miller, A. Stell-maker, ropemen; E. Snow, Willis Dorris, John Talt, George Dodge, subs. This is a very fast team, and they ought to win a Diggins.

Albany has decided to celebrate this year, and as she never does anything by halves, we predict a big time there this year. Mrs. Cora Galloway, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barker of Albany, died at the home of her parents yesterday. There is an effort being made to get permission to turn the water off in the Lebanon canal to give the boys a chance to capture some fish. Mrs. G. Huston died very suddenly last Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Winfield Churchill, between here and Brownsville. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burkhardt drove to Albany Thursday, where Mrs. Burkhardt remained with friends until Saturday and returned via train. On last Saturday, at sheriff's sale, Mr. Ed O'Neill bought the Lebanon and Santiam canal. This is valuable property and will pay good interest in time. R. M. Caldwell went to Albany for the purpose of completing the sale of 320 acres of timber land owned by him in Washington, to Mr. B. O. Skelton of Denver, Colorado, last Wednesday. Mrs. H. J. Boyd returned home Tuesday from a visit to her sister in Portland. She was met at Albany by her brother, Willie Whipple of Eugene, who accompanied her home and is stopping here for a while. There will be Children's Day service at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. The service will consist of recitations, dialogues, responsive readings and songs. It will be an interesting occasion and all are cordially invited. Mr. Claypool, who has the contract for carrying mail from Prineville to Foster, made the first trip this year, last week. He arrives at Foster Sunday, and returns back Monday. He goes in a hack to accommodate passengers who want to get over the mountains. The railroad commissioners have made a finding in the case of the freight train on the O. C. & E. After close examination of the piles and stringers, the board is of the opinion that it fell because its strength has never been renewed, and that it was one of those structures whose decay has kept pace with the decline in financial affairs of the road. Mr. A. E. Williams and Mrs. A. Dodge, two well known and highly respected pioneers of this place, were married last Monday at the Cumberland Presbyterian parsonage in Albany. Rev. W. V. McGee officiating. Both of the contracting parties have a host of friends at this place who extend best wishes for their future happiness. The Farmers and Merchants Insurance Company has brought suit against Henry and Leo Gerhard, of Corvallis, on two notes, which they made as stockholders, upon two 5 per cent assessments. The case is the first of a number which will probably be begun, as there are a good many of the stockholders who have not paid the notes given when the assessments were made. Quite a heated contention is now going on between various property owners, as to which street, Hiatt or Williams, the council will order opened. As a matter of fact, it would be well to open both streets, but the question of cost will have to be considered. There is very little difference in the two proposed streets, either would be a much desired improvement. The hard times makes it incumbent upon the Council to see that the city is put to the least costs, when the expenses are equal, the wishes of the majority of the parties directly interested should prevail. Some unnecessary bad feeling has been made by the advocates of either street. There will be a camp meeting at Sodusville, commencing June 29, under the auspices of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. They are making all necessary preparations to accommodate all who may go. A restaurant is located on the grounds where good meals can be had. Reduced fare has been secured from the S. P. railroad. A seating capacity for four or five hundred people has been fitted up. Rev. Shaw of Missouri, one of the ablest evangelists, with many other ministers will be present. The grounds are situated in a beautiful grove about 200 yards west of the spring, enclosed with a fence; both for meeting and comfort. The students of the Academy put the five act drama, "Under the Laurels," on the boards last Saturday night in the assembly hall of the academy, before a large audience. The play was good, and showed that those who took part had devoted a great deal of study and time to it. All did well and deserve much credit. Following is the cast of characters: Mrs. Milford.....Miss Iida Elkins. Rose Milford.....Miss Madge Marks. Polly Dowler.....Miss Pauline Adams. Sooky Button.....Miss Nellie Randle. Kyle Branford.....Herbert Simpson. Frank Colewood.....J. B. Marks. Ike Hopper.....E. L. Umphrey. Bob Button.....Henry Smith. George H. ...George H. ...

LEBANON'S GRAND DAY

OVER SIX THOUSAND People Present at the Fraternal Picnic. Lebanon's Brave Fire Boys Won the Hose Race in 40 Seconds. Lebanon has again proved her ability to draw a crowd and to make all her guests have a glorious time. Yesterday was the day of our fraternal picnic, gotten up under the auspices of the various fraternal societies of this place. All honor is due to the management of the affair. The committees worked wisely and persistently so that there was nothing wanting to make the occasion a great success. Early in the day the crowds began to pour in from the country, many coming a long distance. All neighboring towns were represented. Four bands of music were on hand; Sodusville, Halsey, Tangent and our home band enlivened the immense crowd with stirring music, and were stationed at advantageous points in the long procession, as it was formed on the bicycle track, with Marshal Montague and his efficient aids in command. It presented an imposing sight, with many societies in line with regalia, flags and emblems. A commodious stand, with seats for thousands was erected on the campus of the Academy. Mayor Miller presided and made a neat speech of welcome, introducing the Hon. G. M. Irwin, superintendent of public instruction, after prayer by Rev. A. J. Adams and a rich feast of vocal and instrumental music by the choirs and bands. Mr. Irwin was at his best, entertaining and instructing his audience in an eloquent address of about an hour. When a recess was announced, the crowd dispersed to enjoy the beautif trees. In the afternoon, addresses were made by Mr. G. W. Tweedale, Rev. Beattie, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. F. M. Miller, Dr. Lamberson, Dr. Hill and Hon. C. B. Montague, respectively on behalf of L. O. O. F., A. O. U. W., W. R. C., L. O. T. M., K. O. T. M., K. of P. and G. A. R. organizations. The latter part of the afternoon was devoted to the races. Albany, Corvallis and Lebanon competing in the hose race, with Lebanon winner in forty seconds. E. Keebler Jr., of Lebanon won, the fat man's race. Warren Cyrus of Scio, won both the foot race and the half hammer race. Miss Eve Scanland of Lebanon, won the ladies' foot race. Mr. F. Biddell, of Albany, won the bicycle race. Miss Ollie Morris of Scio, won the ladies' bicycle race. Uncle Jack Settle of carried off the prize offered for the oldest member present of any secret society. Mrs. B. Hull carried off the honors as the oldest lady member present. The crowd was large, but very orderly and the day will long be remembered for its innocent pleasures. In Memory. Mrs. Allie N. Calavan was born near Fairbush, Pulaski county, Kentucky, on the 3d. day of January, 1876, and was united in marriage to G. L. Calavan of Linn county, Oregon, on the 17th. day of July 1892. With a true and loving spirit, she was always found a faithful help-met to her companion. Her earnest desire was to make her husband happy, and all with whom she came in contact. She united with the Christian church in October 1894, and has since been a zealous advocate of the cause she had espoused, and full of the spirit that whispers of a better land. Conscious that the time of her departure was at hand, she was resigned. Being afflicted with consumption for many months, and in her extreme suffering, she looked with true christian fortitude to Him who has promised to be with the faithful unto the end; in a hope of blessed immortality, quietly passed away on the evening of May 24, 1895, age nineteen years, four months and twenty one days. She leaves behind a husband, father, two brothers and many friends to mourn her loss. We laid her to rest 'neath the dark brown sod. The casket that held the jewel rare. But the beautiful gem returned to God, To shine forever in glory there. We'll hear her no more on nights of prayer, When together we meet our God to praise. But forever and ever free from sorrow and care. In loud hallelujahs her voice she'll raise. I am very grateful to the kind people of Lebanon and Spicer for the thoughtful, tender care and assistance rendered by them to my wife during her recent fatal illness. L. E. Blain.
