Once more Astoria is sure of a railroad. The subsidy has been raised and operations are to begin at once.
There is no right without a parallel duty, no liberty without the supremacy of the law, no high destiny without earnest perseverance, no greatness without self-denial.—Lieber.

The secretary of the treasury has formerly decided that the money paid into the treasury on account of the income tax will be refunded to the persons and corporations respectively entitled thereto upon the filing of refunding claim.

Three cents a mile is the permanently reduced rate on the Southern Pacific between Salem and Portland. Salem papers may say what they will, but Salem people will journey to Portland and trade.—Ex.

Judge Bellinger has decided that the Oregon fish laws cannot be applied to the Washington side of the Columbia river. Fish and Game Warden McGuire will have to confine his operations to this side of the river in the future.

The great car works of George M. Pcllman have been enclosed with an eight foot brick wall surmounted with tiling. There are only a few entrances left and some of the employes now have to walk half or three quarters of an hour longer each day in order to get to their work. The managers of the company deny that they are fortifying the works, but say they desire to shut out trespassers.

Nothing so stirs up the indignation of the average adult as to see a little child abused by a grown person, yet when Fireman Nelson kicked a 2-year-old boy in Elkton, Md., a day or two ago, so hard that the mark was left on the child's forehead for hours, he was praised by all who saw it and warmly thanked by the little one's parents. Nelson was standing on the pilot of a swiftly moving locomotive when he kicked the boy, and his kick knocked the child off the track and saved his life.—Ex.

Senator John H. Mitchell is making a desperate effort to "stand in" with the Dolph men now, having been instrumental in causing his defeat. In a recent interview in the Astorian he said: "Up to the time of Mr. Dolph's defeat it was a matter of common knowledge at the capitol that the two senators from Oregon between them held far more and higher committee positions per man than any other senators. It was the result of years of untiring work toward that end, work which now has been very greatly impaired because we are returning a new man. Mr. Dolph's retirement was a very great surprise to the republican senators, and his reputation among them as a powerful and vigilant defender of Oregon's interests stood very high. His successor's name has been the cause of a great deal of speculation and inquiry, and I am pleased to say that Mr. McBride is already looked on in Washington as a brilliant and able man. But, as I say, the ironclad though unwritten law of the senate that governs the choice of members for committees will act against his progress in this direction for a long time. I am particularly anxious about the place on the committee on commerce left vacant by Mr. Dolph's retirement. This is one of the most important committees in the senate, and it is a matter of vital interest to Oregon that she is given a place on it. I intend, of course, to work night and day for McBride, but the claims of old members are hard things to get around and the senate usages that have become rules by years of constant practice.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness, caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh. Send for circulars, free.
