

Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1896.

Expressions.

Hop-picking.
It rained Sunday.
Thunder storm last Friday.
Mac Willy was over from Brownsville Sunday.
Wheat 37 1/2; oats 12 1/2. Lebanon warehouse, yesterday.
Attorney Garland was doing business in Albany Tuesday.
Mr. L. Banta was in Lebanon this week visiting old friends.
The city star had another drunk in jail this week—sobering up.
Grange McCune left yesterday for Portland to visit his brother.
Public school will begin on the fourth Monday of this month.
Miss Fannie Griggs left Tuesday for Monmouth, on a visit to friends.
Mr. C. B. Montague returned from Vancouver, Washington, Tuesday.
Rev. E. R. Ross is again in the city preaching the M. E. Church South.
Mrs. S. M. W. Hindman returned from eastern Oregon, last Saturday.
Mrs. W. E. Chandler visited her parents at the county capitol Wednesday.
Moss Walker can now be found at his former position in the Hotel St. Charles.
A court of the Independent Order of Foresters was organized in Albany last week.
Mr. S. Atwood, of Shaw, Wisconsin, was in the city this week, with a view of locating.
Born to the wife of Jasper Bollinger, August 31, a son. Mother and baby doing well.
A special session of circuit court will be held next Monday by Judge Burnett, in Albany.
Mrs. J. G. Boyles and children, and Mrs. B. F. Kirk, returned from Lower Soda last Sunday.
Frank Settle and Frank Moist with their families, left Tuesday for Nestucca, for an outing.
The receipts of the county clerk of Linn county for August were $231.25, of the recorder, $107.85.
Mr. E. Muselman is building his new residence across the road opposite where the old one stood.
Farmers say the trespass law will be observed this year and that pleasant hunters will need to look out.
Miss Ada Wallace and Miss Mamie Gentry came up from Portland Tuesday, for a visit to their parents.
Master Walter Fisher, of Roseburg, is visiting his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Summerville, in this city.
The Express is in need of money, and would appreciate it if those owing us on subscription would pay up.
Charles Amos informs us that last Saturday was the busiest day he had in the delivery business this year.
We return many thanks to Mr. D. P. Petree for a very fine watermelon, presented to the Express this week.
Fred Hickok and Miss Ola Smith spent Sunday in Brownsville, visiting with Mr. F. X. Dolan, agent at that place.
E. G. Carr now runs the City Hotel. Mr. Lindsay has moved to Waterloo and taken charge of the hotel at that place.
Mr. J. M. Marks has leased a farm near Dallas which he will put out to fruit. He will move his family over this fall.
Messrs. O'Neil, Dell and Rilea returned from the mountains the latter part of last week. J. F. Dell says they killed one deer.
Mrs. Godly, who has been here visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. Nixon and Mrs. Romine, returned to her home in Portland, yesterday.
Two bloomer-clad young ladies on horseback, riding on the streets of Eugene, after man's fashion, have caused considerable comment.
Sheriff McFeron sold at sheriff's sale Saturday five pieces of land for claims aggregating $18,584.42. The plaintiff was purchaser in each case.
The contract for ten miles of the Astoria and Goble road has been let to Corey Bros., and bids are now asked for ten miles east of Tongue Point.
The races at the Albany fair ground tracks, on September 12, 13, and 14, promises to be a great success and will be attended by many fast horses.
The city is partially depopulated. The hop yards are drawing heavily on the male and female inhabitants. Many dollars are thus earned in healthful work.
Dr. Booth was called over across the river yesterday forenoon to set the right arm of Eli Amsbaugh, a 7-year-old boy, who fell from the loft of a barn. He is doing nicely.
W. E. Chandler, Lebanon's popular plumber and tinner, finished work on all the hop houses he had last Monday. He is now busying the plumbing on Joseph Stewart's large fruit house.

Go to Hiram Baker for your wall paper.
For pure linseed oil, call on M. A. Miller.
Mayer & Kimbrough wants you produce.
Have your hop work done by Chandler.
Old papers for sale here at five cents per dozen.
Mr. Ansozle's new house is nearly completed.
Just received at M. A. Miller's a new line of tablets.
Miss Diamond is selling millinery at hard time prices.
Pure paints and oils of all kind at Smith's Pharmacy.
Remember Chandler is the practical tinner and plumber.
Smith has just added fifty new books to his circulating library.
If you want to sell property list it with Peterson & Andrews.
You can get 9 loaves of bread at Mayer & Kimbrough for 25 cts.
If you want to buy property call on or write Peterson & Andrews.
George Rice represents some of the best insurance companies in the world.
Anyone wishing well seasoned rustic and flooring, should call on M. A. Miller.
George Rice writes all kinds of insurance, and solicits a share of your patronage.
State Normal School, Drain, Oregon. Write for catalogue. Free. Louis Barzee, president.
When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Bach & Buhl.
Farmers, grease your machinery with Eldorado Castor machine oil. For sale by N. W. Smith.
All knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle at once. M. A. MILLER.
After June 1, Miss Diamond will sell all millinery goods at cost. Stock perfectly new and the latest, call and be convinced.
Carpets, carpets, carpets. Matting matting, matting. Buy of the Albany Furniture Co. Baltimore Block. Albany, Oregon.
Money to loan. A limited amount of money to loan on good farm security. Call upon or write to S. N. Steele & Co., Albany, Oregon.
Ladies if you are thinking of getting a pair of shoes or a new dress next week, you will want to know where to get the best for the least money. Mr. Baker always carries the best.
Insure your property with Peterson & Andrews. They are agents for the Old Reliable, Home Mutual, New Zealand, Springfield of Massachusetts, Continental, and other good, reliable companies.
Mr. A. M. Wilson, of Tallman, drove to McMinnville, Wednesday of last week, returning Saturday. His daughter, Miss Mary, who has been visiting relatives at that place for the past month, returned home with him.
Mrs. Ida Bennett has brought suit against her husband, I. A. Bennett, by B. S. Martin and Whitney & Newport, attorneys. Besides the divorce the plaintiff asks for a restraining order preventing the defendant from taking the children.
The city council has cancelled all outstanding warrants for arrests, so now those Canada fellows who have been afraid to come to the city on account of past offenses, can come without being molested. We hope they will act like gentlemen when they do come.
Mr. I. F. Conn, of Albany, who has the contract of putting in the bridge over the canal, for the railroad switch from the paper mill to the main line, came out yesterday and commenced work on the same. H. C. Harkness came out also; and will work with Mr. Conn.
No man in Lebanon, able to work, needs now be idle, nor to have been idle for the last two months. Work is plentiful and has been all summer. Harvesting, threshing and hop-picking has furnished the opportunity for laying the winter's supply of food and raiment. Only the idler and the lazy need now be idle.
Lamberson & Myer received a letter from hop merchants at San Francisco, yesterday in which they say contracts in California are obtainable at five and six cents; and what they hear of Oregon, the same can be expected here. New England states are contracting at six and a half to seven cents. The California crop will be nearly picked this week.
Rev. J. E. Beattie has accepted a call from the Presbyterian church of Wilbur, Washington, and will move to his new field of labor in about two weeks. Wilbur is a place about the size of Lebanon, in Lincoln county, eighty miles west of Spokane. Rev. Beattie and his estimable wife have made many warm friends during their stay of a few years here, who regret to see them leave our city, but extend the best wishes to them in the new field. Mr. and Mrs. Beattie have done well.

The water question has been settled at Roseburg. The city pays $1065 a year for ten years. Roseburg depends entirely upon the water works for water supply, the pressure being sufficient to the business, and hydrants are spread over the city for the purpose.—Ex.
Mr. Percy A. Young, of Albany, and Miss Florence Gibson, the accomplished daughter of Rev. M. M. Gibson, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, of San Francisco, were united in marriage last Wednesday, Rev. Gibson performing the ceremony in the church in the presence of a large number of invited guests.
Mr. John A. Beard arrived in Lebanon last Saturday from Portland. Mr. Beard is fat, handsome and well dressed, as the chief examiner in the appraiser's office for the government should be. Mr. Beard and family are visiting among their many friends in this county, and will return home next week to resume his duties in the custom house. His old friends are pleased at his success.
Frank Campbell, of Brownsville while crossing a small foot bridge the other night, was struck a severe blow upon the head by some one unknown and knocked into the water. He scrambled to the bank and reached home with only a few bruises. The incident leads the Times to inquire, "Who is this chap that is amusing himself by choking young ladies, knocking down young men, and stealing everything not under lock and key?"
Rev. W. L. Molloy returned Wednesday from the Columbia conference of the M. E. Church South, which was held at Ashland, Oregon. Rev. Molloy remains here the coming year, which gives general satisfaction to members of his church. He reported it the most spiritual conference he ever attended. The following appointments were made in this county: Rev. R. A. Bagin, presiding elder, Albany and Taigent; Rev. T. P. Haynes, Junction City; Rev. D. C. McFarland, Brownsville; Rev. C. N. Cross, Independence. The next conference will be held here.
The large barn of John Allison's on the Tom Richardson farm, on Crabtree creek, was entirely consumed by fire last Friday morning, about three o'clock. With it were burned three horses, hacks, harnesses, and all of Mr. Allison's wheat but ten sacks, and other farm products which had been stored there. The fire practically cleaned out the result of Mr. Allison's year's harvest. The fire was discovered too late to get anything out of the barn. How it was set on fire is not known; but it is thought that someone had probably slept in it over night. There was no insurance.
The operetta, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," was repeated last Friday evening at Hope's opera house to a fair sized and well pleased audience. The choruses, by fifty of Lebanon's beautiful little girls—future belles—dressed in white were nicely rendered. The solo parts sung by Miss Ilda Elkins, as Snow White; Miss Callie Warner, as Queen; Will Aylsworth, as Prince; and J. B. Marks as the Huntsman, were well sustained. The seven dwarfs were unique. Mr. Aylsworth is entitled to much credit in his management of the little people, as the training will certainly be of benefit to them.

Notice.
Water consumers must not sprinkle their lawns after 8:30 p. m., on account of fire protection. Patrons violating this notice, will be shut off.
N. H. ALLEN.

Council Proceedings.
The city council met last Tuesday in regular session with all present except councilman Long. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.
The committee on ordinances reported an ordinance relating to cattle and prohibiting them running at large within the city limits at night. The ordinance was read twice and by motion referred to the ordinance committee for amendment. All present voting in favor of it except Councilman Bilyeu.
The city recorder then reported that he had corresponded with Mr. Allen regarding the water tank being empty at times. Mr. Allen agreed to keep it full.
A communication from County Judge Duncan was read to the council relating to the taxes of 1896. By motion the communication was placed on file and a reply introduced in the form of a resolution by Councilman Rice, and on motion, was ordered sent to Judge Duncan.
A communication then read from W. C. Aylsworth requesting the council to refund his license of $6. Moved and carried that the same be refunded.
Councilman Bilyeu then asked if there was an ordinance requiring auctioneers to have a license. The recorder answered that there was a license required of $5 per quarter.
It was moved and carried that all outstanding warrants of arrest be cancelled and the city officers instructed not to prosecute said parties for said offense.
There were presented to the council twenty-six bills against the city—eight on the general fund and eighteen against the road and street fund, all amounting to $277.55. By a motion they were allowed and warrants ordered drawn on the treasurer for same.
