Reader, did you ever take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "KING OF LIVER MEDICINES?" Everybody needs take a liver remedy. It is a sluggish or diseased liver that impairs digestion and causes constipation, when the waste that should be carried off remains in the body and poisons the whole system. That dull, heavy feeling is due to a torpid liver. Biliousness, Headache, Malaria and Indigestion are all liver diseases. Keep the liver active by an occasional dose of Simmons Liver Regulator and you'll get rid of those troubles, and give tone to the whole system. For a laxative SIMMONS Liver Regulator is BETTER THAN PILLS. It does not gripe, nor weaken, but greatly refreshes and strengthens.

Every package has the Red Z stamp on the wrapper. J. H. Zella & Co., Philadelphia.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers Linn county like to take the weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the EXPRESS $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2 per year in advance a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the EXPRESS gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2 per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the EXPRESS must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

A HEAVY SENTENCE.

SMUGGLERS DEALT WITH

James Lotan and Seid Back. The First Pays $8000 and the Last $5000. Lotan Pays and Goes Free.

Judge Bellinger passed sentence last Friday upon James Lotan and Seid Back for their complicity in the smuggling conspiracy. Lotan was sentenced to pay a fine of $8000 and Seid Back a fine of $5000. There was no imprisonment imposed in either case.

A week ago when the case was called, sentence was postponed in order to allow Judge Durand to examine the bill of exceptions, on which the proposed appeal to the supreme court was grounded. A copy of the bill of exceptions was forwarded to Judge Durand, at Flint, Michigan, but no word has been received from him. It was thought therefore that there would be another postponement. However, Judge Bellinger had made up his mind to pass sentence, and let the appeal be perfected afterward.

Mr. Lotan proceeded directly to the office of the clerk of the court, and handed Mr. Ed D. McKee, clerk of the United States district court, a check for $8000. As that canceled the fine and appeased the vengeance of the law, Mr. Lotan walked forth a free man.

As there was no imprisonment included in the sentence, there will be no appeal taken to the supreme court, and further litigation in the noted case ends.

Seid Back did not have such an easy time in extricating himself from the clutches of the law. He was not able to liquidate his fine, and was accordingly placed in the custody of the court. He was allowed to go out in charge of a deputy United States marshal, and is endeavoring to raise the amount of his fine. Seid Back has considerable property, but it is claimed that owing to the depression in the real estate market, that some difficulty may be experienced in realizing the amount of the fine, either by sale or mortgage. In case of failure to realize the amount of the fine, there is no alternative but to go to jail.

After Eighteen Years.

A curious case was commenced in the last term of the circuit at Tillamook, says the Advocate. John Malaney, an old and highly respected citizen of Ocean Park, near Woods, in this county, is the plaintiff. Eighteen years ago the two were living together as man and wife, which they were at that time on a piece of government land, then supposed to be worthless, but now known as Ocean Park. They had trouble on various occasions, and in 1877 Mrs. Malaney took most of the children, and Mr. Malaney says all of his money, and part of his household goods, and skipped. Four years later, Mr. Malaney applied for a divorce, and the usual advertisement was put in the Salem Statesman, the nearest paper at the time, and old Judge R. P. Boise granted a decree of divorce. In all this time, Mr. Malaney had not heard from his former spouse, and a few years ago he married again, and now has a child by his last marriage. Imagine his surprise to find his first wife filing a suit against him to have the divorce set aside, after eighteen years of separation, and demanding a share of his property, and $300 a year to support her during her life. If the divorce is set aside it will also have the effect annulling the last marriage of Mr. Malaney, and will brand his last child as illegitimate.

Along the River.

Gypsy, the O. R. & N. Co.'s new boat which arrived at Salem Wednesday morning, says the Statesman, and proceeded on up the river, did not go any farther than the mouth of the Santiam, where a bar that is very near the surface of the river made the trip farther impossible. Captain Gordon said the boat could have passed over the shoal by using lines, but this was not considered necessary so he headed the steamer for Salem, reaching here at 11 o'clock. After a tie-up of an hour or longer, the craft started on her return to Portland. T. W. Lee, superintendent of the company's water lines, thinks the river at the Santiam bar could be made navigable at an expense not exceeding $200, and such being the case, Major Post, the government engineer, should send the snag boat Corvallis there immediately to prosecute the work of dredging the bar, and making a permanent channel for summer navigation. A few weeks of such work at different points on the Willamette above the falls would effect favorable changes and create a renewal of activity among the boats of the different companies. Until the winter rise in the river the Gypsy will make regular trips between Salem and Mission landing connecting with the Elmore and Modoc on alternate days from Portland. The company will not attempt to make the runs on regular schedule time, consequently will not bid for much of the passenger traffic at present.

Linn County Exhibit.

The county court has started the work of securing an exhibit for the state fair and the industrial exposition at Portland, in the best shape possible to make a genuine exhibit untrammeled by any side issue scheme, and a success. The following leading citizens from different sections of the county have been selected to take charge of gathering the articles and shaping the character of the exhibit: Sam May, Harrisburg; George A. Dyson, Brownsville; Frank Frisbie, Halsey; W. Powers, Shedd; Dr. W. H. Booth, Lebanon; W. R. Glass, Crawfordville; J. S. Morris, Seio; J. R. Douglas, Santiam; George Barton, Oakville; Judge L. Plinn and Dr. J. L. Hill, Albany. The selection has been carefully and wisely made and will call out a united effort all around to give a full, fair and complete collection of the magnificent products of Linn county.

The committeemen will receive notice of their appointment, and also a request to meet in Albany on the 14th inst. to arrange and complete the work.—Ex.

Fruit Jars.

What becomes of all the fruit jars sold is as great a conundrum as what becomes of the pins. Every season carloads of fruit jars are received here, and there is a never ending demand for them. One firm alone has this season disposed of 6000 gross—that is 72,000 dozen, or 864,000 jars. Several other firms have disposed of probably nearly as many, which means several jars for every man, woman and child in this region. "It is a wonder to me," said a dealer yesterday, "what become of them. Of course, quite a percentage get broken, but many last years, and it might be supposed that in a few years everybody would have a supply; but the demand seems to increase every year, and it seems as if people would never get enough." It is likely that the number of people who put up fruit grows larger every year, and also that the quantity put up by each is increased every year, as fruit becomes better, more plentiful and cheaper.—Oregonian.

County Court.

Petition of J. R. Wyatt, J. O. Writman, L. Flinn, E. W. Langdon, L. E. Blain and about one hundred others asking for an appropriation of $250 to be expended for an exhibit of the products of Linn county at the state fair and at the Portland exposition. The costs were estimated at $100 for preparing such exhibits especially the various grains, fruits and grasses in a suitable manner. One hundred dollars for a suitable person to care for such exhibits and properly represent Linn county at the state fair and exposition, and $50 for suitable literature descriptive of the products and resources of the county. The petition was granted, so much of the money as necessary to be expended under the supervision and control of County Judge Duncan, in conjunction with a committee of seven citizens to be appointed by the county court. A warrant for $50, principally for fruit, was ordered drawn at once.

Charged With Crime.

PENDLETON, Sept. 7.—A thorough investigation of the Weston postoffice robbery resulted in the arrest of George M. Reynolds, who was in charge of the postoffice at the time Postmaster Van Winkle was taking an outing in the mountains. Deputy Sheriff Kimber went to Weston last night, swore out a complaint and placed Reynolds under custody. The examination was set for today at one.

Reynolds refused to attempt to find bondsmen and went to jail over night. The robbery occurred two weeks ago, when between $300 and $400 were taken from the postoffice safe between 6:30 and 6:50 p. m.

Deputy Reynolds claimed he went to supper and came back to find the safe rifled and the money gone. Men were in the vicinity of the postoffice at the time, and two sat on the steps ten feet from the rear door through which Reynolds claimed the robbers entered. A peculiar circumstance is that the lock of the rear door was found removed by taking out the screws from the inside as though to make it appear some one came in the building that way.

A Successful Hunt.

Captain Charles Lutjens, of the seal-schooner, Kate and Anna, arrived from Grays Harbor, Monday evening, where he has been after hunting for the past six weeks. The catch so far amounted to sixteen skins, six of which netted the neat sum of $1700, the other ten hides the captain shipped to London, and expects to realize on them $3000. Captain Lutjens is on his way to San Francisco. He left the Kate and Anna at Grays Harbor in charge of the first mate, who will shortly leave that port and hunt down the coast to San Francisco, where Captain Lutjens will refit the schooner and hunt up the coast again. He considers this much more profitable than going to the Japan sea, as he did seasons ago.—Yaquina News.

Independence Moter Line.

INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 6.—There is a rumor here that the Southern Pacific is about to purchase or lease the moter line from Independence to Mouth and run an express train that will leave here in the morning and arrive in Portland at 10:00 a. m., and will leave Portland at 4:00 p. m., and arrive here about 7:30 p. m. The proprietors of the moter line decline all knowledge of any such negotiations. It would be a great convenience to this town. We could then go to the county seat at Dallas in the morning, attend to business and return in the evening.

An Alleged Counterfeiter.

PENDLETON, Sept. 6.—W. H. Lane has been arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Bentley at the head of Butler creek, charged with counterfeiting. He is thought to have accomplished far back in the Blue mountains. A gang has been operating many months, and the officers have been working for evidence several weeks. Lane took bogus half dollars from his pals, paying $20 for 100 of spurious coin. These he circulated in this county to a large extent. Lane may confess, implicating others and lead to several arrests.

Usual After Challenge.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 6.—The Oregon City fire department has issued a challenge to the Vancouver team to run any race of the recent tournament at Vancouver at any place or time named by the Vancouver boys, other than the home of either company, for $200. The conditions are to be the same as those prescribed at the tournament.
