Terrible Heat. CHICAGO, Sept. 20 .- Including to day the weather record for the month of September in and around Chicago has been broken all to pieces, and suffering humanity is hoping it will never enter another contest. The mer-cury climbed steadily yesterday until it reached the 91 mark on the official thermometer in the Auditorium tower and this was certainly from 6 to 8 deg. cooler than it was on the streets. The bumidity was something terrible, and was more deadly than any September that the "oldest inhabitant" could remember. There were three deaths and two prostrations. The dead are Charles Styles, Frank Wilson and William Cushmau. Those prostrated were Terrence Cox and an unknown man, who is at the county hospital, and who, it is believed will die.

Two Highwaymen.

W. A. Bohart left Glide, Douglas county, Wednesday morning with a wagon load of furniture and house-held goods. On reaching the summit of Robert's Hill, about 7:00 a. m., Mr. Bohart was approached by two armed unmasked men, who promptly ordered "hands up," and at once proceeded to go through his pockets, securing all the money he had on his person, amounting to $19.20, and a watch. They also relieved him of his matches, remarking that they "were out and would need them." After searching the wagen and finding nothing of value to them, they ordered Mr. Be-bart to proceed on his way, and not to look back or they would "treat him to a dose of cold lead." Mr. Bohart obeyed orders until he was safely out of their reach, and then, on looking back, saw his men slowly moving away in a northeasterly direction from the summit of the hill. Mr. Bohart describes them as follows: Ages, twenty-eight and thirty-four years respectively. The younger man was of medium height; weight about 150 pounds; dark hair and dark scattering beard of about two weeks' growth. The older man had blue eyes, sandy complexion, beavy moustche and beavy build. Both men wore brown coats, black hats, cassimer pants, with pants legs tucked in boots. Mr. Bo-hart also noted that the older man had a very harsh, gruff voice, and did the talking while the orther secured the booty.

Astoria's Railroad,

The contractors who have been at work on the railroad at Flavel and near Tongue Point for some little time past report considerable progress at both places. At Flavel about a mile has been graded and other work done, while at Tongue Point a good deal of rock work has been done. Work is being pushed on both contracts.

Mr. Hammond has so far spent some $75,000 in cash, paid for every-thing he has used. Bids have been received for the next ten miles of road and contracts will be let, no doubt, when he gets everything in rendiness. It is quite evident from the busi-neas-like manner in which work is being conducted at the general offices that Mr. Hammond will run his own business in his own way, and so long as he pays as he goes, it is certainly a most satisfactory state of affairs. The different departments are run smoothly and with out friction. The engineers are pushing the profiles and estimates, bids are being figured and classfied, and the land department, under the able management of Mr. W. G. Gosslin, is daily solving a multitude of intricate questions and getting the thousands of paper in order.

There can be no question but that when the time comes around Astoria will find that she has the best railroad on the coast and that it will have the best traffic connections with one or more trans-continental lines.

The Shedd Warehouse

Shedd has a case that is exciting general interest there and causing a general feeling of indignation. A. Blaker proprietor of the warehouse, is short about 8000 bushels of wheat in his accounts with the storers in the warehouse. There are thirteen storers or wheat, all of the old product, amounting to approximately 9000 bushels, receipts calling for that amount. Of it there is only a little over 800 bushels to divide smong thirteen men. Most of the wheat is owned by three men, Hon. Flem Smith having about 3200 bushels, Frank Porter 2300 and James A. Smith a little less than 2006 bushels. The men are in the city today investigating the matter. It is possible Mr. Blaker will be prosecuted criminally. As the case is similar to the Red Crown in some respects the status of that may determine proceeding. An assignment by Mr. Blaker is also reported to be contemplated. Men who will deliberately use other men's property in this manner cannot be dealt with too stringently. Mr. John Ellison was clerk at the war-house, but is not responsible for the shoringe.-Albany Fair Attractions.

The management of the Oregon state fair to be held at Salem for ten days, commencing September 25, has concluded arrangements with Congressman Bryan, who will speak at the fair. Congressman Bryan will not be at Portland, September 27 and 28, but will speak at Salem at the state fair on these dates on "Colunge" and "Taxation." He will speak nowhere but at Salem in Oregon. Senator Mitchell will also be in Salem the last four days, and will probably speak on the Nicaragua canal question, which soon promises to be the all-absorbing topic of the Pacific coast. The Rev. Edwards Davis, of San Francisco, will deliver a sermon oration Sunday. The subject is "Ultimate Utopia." Parsons' orchestra will follow the sermon with a grand sacred concert. The management has set as de Thursday, October 3, for the Order of Woodmen, and there promises to be a very large attendance on that day. The program for each day is filled out with interesting features and events, including horse races each afternoon, and bievele races are down for every one of the ten days. Congressman Bryan's dates are for Friday and Saturday. The feir closes October 4.

Last Monday morning at three o'clock G. W. White and son went to Halsey to meet the former's brother, and on their return trip came in couthat with a stranger in a manner that is not calculated to cause frendship, capecially on so short acquainfance. They had reached rather a lonely spot in the road near Joe Weber's farm," when a man grabbed the horse by the bits, at the same time yelling "Throw up your hand!" Mr. White obeyed the injunction, but almost at the same time brought his revolver into requisisition. After the first shot the wouldbe robber made a grand rush for lib-erty, which was only gained by the refusal of the revolver to respond to Mr. White's efforts to discharge the same.
