SEIZURE OF OPIUM

EIGHTY POUNDS CAPTURED

The Marriage of Ethel Pitts, a White Girl, With a Negro, Annulled by the Court.

TACOMA, Wn., Oct. 12.—Customs Inspector B. F. Jossay, this afternoon captured eighty pounds of opium of the best Victoria make, and valued at $1040. While standing on a corner, he saw two men go by bearing a heavy package, wrapped in blankets. He started to follow them, and his suspicions were aroused, when they turned into a side street, just after a shrill whistle, apparently coming from a look-out. When stopped, the men refused to open the package, telling Jossay he could open it himself. As he reached for his gun, the men fled. He fired, and thinks he hit one of them, but could not follow for fear their fall would cause the "dope." A moment later they were lost in the crowd. This is the first seizure made here for some time. Customs officers have been of the opinion that smuggling was dying out on account of the reduction in the duty on opium from $12 to $6 per pound.

The marriage of Ethel Pitts and Henry Pitts was today annulled by Judge Parker. Mrs. Pitts is a young American girl about seventeen years old, and her husband is a negro, aged forty. Pitts was cooking in a restaurant at Astoria during the summer of 1894, and was a frequent visitor and friend of Mrs. Pitts' father. Mrs. Pitts alleges that one evening, about a year ago, Pitts met her, and, with threats, forced her to go aboard the steamer with him and journey to Louisiana, where he frightened her into marrying him before a justice of the peace. He then brought her to Tacoma, and kept her confined in a room on D street, bringing her meals to her. During his absence, a short time afterward, she escaped. Pitts went to British Columbia.

A Hurricane's Work

GUAYMAS, Mex., Oct. 11.—Advices slowly reaching this port from the Pacific ports of Mexico and ports on the west side of the Gulf of California confirm the intelligence that the hurricane which swept northward during the four days—September 30, and October 1, 2, and 3—caused great damage to property and shipping, and that a number of lives were lost. Telegraph wires were prostrated and information comes in by degrees from below.

The hurricane crossed the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and swept up the coast and into the Gulf of California, doing great damage. The hurricane was accompanied by deluges of water that completed the ruin the wind had wrought. At Topolobampo all the houses of the American colony were greatly damaged and the custom house was wrecked. The Ahomay river north of Topolobampo overflowed its banks and destroyed sugar plantations and sugar mills 30 miles away from the channel of the stream.
The entire cane crop of the state of Sinaloa as far as reported is completely ruined, and the sugar lands and refineries at Ahone, the property of Mark Serwood, of Chicago, and his associates, were annihilated. The sugar crop on the Youyi river, in the state of Sonora, is also destroyed. The damage to the sugar interests of Sonora and Sinaloa is estimated at several millions of dollars.
Several coasting steamers are overdue at Guaymas, and great apprehension is felt for their safety. The Willamette Valley found safety in Magdalena bay. Topolobampo is the farthest point south from which advices are at hand, and the damage beyond that point is unknown, but believed to be great.

Durrant's Trial the Cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Sofia Rogers, wife of Philip Rogers, has disappeared. Her husband has been searching for her for three weeks and now believes he has located his missing wife in Waussau, Wis.

Mr. Rogers is a well-to-do citizen who has many friends in Oakland. He is convinced that the Durrant case had something to do with the wreck of his home. Mrs. Rogers was much interested in the case, and could not let a day pass without hearing the testimony. She compelled her husband to sit down every morning and read to her the full report of the trial. Rogers waded through the testimony for days just to please his wife. Sometimes it would take him nearly half a day to complete his task. But with undaunted heroism he struggled on, determined to please his wife even at the expense of his business.

At last his endurance was no longer equal to the task and Rogers deliberately went on a strike and declared that he would not read the stenographic reports any more. He was willing to compromise on an amicable basis and read the introductions to the trial each day, but this did not satisfy Mrs. Rogers. She wanted to hear the whole case or nothing. The husband was firm, however, and would not yield, so there was a disagreement. Then Mrs. Rogers went away.

Portland Selected.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Today's sessions of the national council of the Congregational churches of the United States have been given over to the six missionary societies under the supervision of that body.

A dispatch from the pastor and congregation of the First Congregational church, of Portland, Oregon, inviting the council to meet there in 1898, was read.

During the evening session, Portland was selected as the place of meeting for the triennial conference in 1898.

Langley's Jewels.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Some of the sapphires and rubies, which formed part of the jewelry belonging to Mrs. Langley and which were obtained by means of a forged order from the Loan Street branch of the Union bank of London, August 25 last, have been discovered in the possession of a firm of merchants in business in Hatton Gardens, this city, to whom they had been sold. The value of the stolen jewels has been estimated at from $500,000 to $600,000.

Fell Under Cars.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 11.—A young man giving his name as Alva Mosier fell under the wheels while attempting to mount a brakebeam of the Southern Pacific overland as it was leaving the station this morning. His right arm was crushed as he attempted to get up, and he was taken to the hospital on account of catarrh. The situation was appreciated and some fun had out of the young man before he was informed as to the true situation.

Taken Seriously.

This military list business seems to be proving a very serious thing with many people. It is just the same as for years past, with the exception that now the assessor has to notify every person or the list of this fact by postal. Therein lies the fun. A day or two ago a young man who received one of the postal cards, came to Albany with his father. The young man didn't like going to war so he called at an Albany doctor to get a certificate disabling him on account of catarrh. The situation was appreciated and some fun had out of the young man before he was informed as to the true situation.

Three men from Brownsville sent in certificates asking for exemption from military duty, two on account of lumbago and one on account of an accident. About ten a day call at the clerk's office for particulars.—Albany Democrat.

Making Room.

Two Albany men recently ran across an individual on the Willamette Island who was making looms. The Albany Democrat says the boom-maker acted as if he were confined; but nothing else is known of him.

Push & shove will get you money on boots and shoes. See them and be convinced.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

A Sage Wedding.

During the latter part of last month requisition papers were issued by the governor of Minnesota for the turning over to the officer sent from this state, Lieutenant Henry Luersson, (N. G.), who was wanted at Roseburg for the crime of seduction. The papers were properly served and Luersson was brought back to Oregon. He was put on the train and started for Roseburg, the scene of his crime, and where resided the victim of his wife. When arrested Luersson signified his willingness to return and marry the girl, as he knew that was his only way out of the difficulty. The train was boarded at Drains, a station this side of Roseburg, by the young lady and her father, Rev. Buckner, and, while en route to the latter city the couple were married, the father performing the ceremony. The affair cost the state of Oregon $200.—Ex.

Knight Templar in Albany.

The grand commandery of Oregon Knight Templar met in this city today. The city was profusely decorated with flags, streamers and emblems of the air knights. An imposing parade took place at 1:30 p. m., and the visitors were shown about the city, and tendered a banquet, musical concert and ball in the evening.

At the business meeting, the address of welcome was delivered by D. P. Mason, on behalf of the Albany commandery. Grand Commander, P. T. Malcom, of Portland responded, and delivered the annual address.

The next meeting will be held in Portland the second Thursday in October, 1895. The report of the grand record shows that the finances of the Knights Templar in this state are in a healthy condition, and that the membership is increasing.

Curfew Rings.

The curfew bell now rings at 8:30 p. m. in Albany. Hereafter all boys under 18 years of age, without permission, will be promptly arrested, according to ordinance. Marshal Lee has had cards printed for parents to sign, if they want their boys to occupy the streets at night. Following is a copy: "Parents' Permit Card.—To any police officer: The bearer is my son, ——. He has our permission to remain away from home after the hour of 8:30 p. m. At any time he is found upon the streets of Albany without this card, you will please take charge of him and lock him up." Considerable complaint has been made about the doings of boys, such as pick-pocketing, stealing fruit, etc., and it is proposed to stop it.

Racing Excites Them.

A number of our sport-loving citizens have been availing themselves of the opportunity to make a fortune, afforded them by the race between Harry Metcalf and Riley Cook. More than $100 aside has already been wagered on the result, and it is more than probable that this amount will be doubled. The race is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, October 19. We have been informed that Cook has been sent to Corvallis to be trained, and that efforts are being made to have Trine come here and do the training act for Metcalf.—Brownsville Times.

$1000 Damages.

A compromise has been effected between the administrator, E. U. Will, of the estate of John Cambell, deceased, and the O. C. & E. railroad company, and nineteen hundred dollars has been turned over to the estate in settlement of the damages. The information is gleaned from a supplemental inventory filed by the administrator Tuesday afternoon, which states that said sum was paid by the company under the provision of section 271, Hill's Code, as damages for the killing of said John Campbell by accident April 29, 1895.—Gazette.
