Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

Expressions.

Subscribe for the Expanse. P. M. Smith is attending court. Go to Baker for your school shoes John Mayer is in Portland this week New fur capes at Read, Pencock & Co The Expasss four month for 25cts Go to Baker for your hats and caps H Baker carries a full line of groce

Frank Howell went to Salem this Raft Hintt is buying up sheep at

Mack Wiley made Lebanon a visit

Old papers for sale here at five cents

Lebauon will soon have a second

Charlie Amos was in Brownsville

The grand jury is at work on the

Just received at M. A. Miller's a new line of tablets, Prof. A Stark of Albany was in the city yesterday Tableta, pencils, slates, books, etc., etc., at Smith's.

Born to the wife of Fred Doud

R M. Donnes is moving into the d Carman stand.

C. M. Vaughn is laid up with a

J. W. Mensies and family are down from the shingle mill.

Miss Anna Dumond was doing businem in Albany yesterday.

The citizens of Scio are proud of their new school building.

J. E. Adcox, Lebanou's former jew eler, in now located in Salam

You can save money by buing school supplies at Smith's drug store.

Smith has the largest line of scho socks and supplies in the city.

A special list of jurors have b ed for the Isom case

Willie Booth returned to Portland yesterday to have his eyes treated,

Madame Rumor says there is to b another wedding in Lebanon soon

Johnnie Dodge was driving Charlie Amos' delivery wagon Wednesday.

G. W. Simpson has moved his au-tion store from this place to Halsey.

Mr. I. W. Dickinson has opened a butcher shop in Drestope's building. Buy you tickets East over the N. P. R. R. of W. C. Peterson, Local agent.

Gentlemen, call and see the new fall and winter clothing at Bach & Buhl's. George Rice represents some of the best insurance companies in the world. Mrs. Dr. L. Foley and daughter returned Saturday from the meropolis. Another eargo of Barton Bro's shoes will arrive this week at Hiram Baker's.

Mrs. Dr. Lee, of Junction City, vidted relatives here the first of the

Frank Moist is on the grand jury and is a safe man for the respon

Anyone wishing well sessoned rustic and flooring, should call on M. A.

H. W. Goff, a former brick mason of Albany, is now mining in south

For infants' and childrens' cloaks and headwear, go to the Ladies Bazar, Attorney H. M. Garland, attended circuit court at Albany Monday and Tuesday.

their new residence on Bridge avenue,

Mrs. Howell and family have moved ito the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Moss

Matt Scott bought four pigs of a farmer near Pininview, which weighed 1896 pounds.

A couple of Lebanon boys indulged in a fist fight in the saloon Weduesday afternoon.

Call and see styles and get prices of illinary at Mrs. Rice's old stand.

Hon. M. A. Miller, wife and daugh ter, are visiting friends and the expoeition this week. Floyd Rowell and George Rolfe of Ladies should inspect Read, Pas- in carle ock & Co.'s new stock of jackets and points. cloaks before purchasing.

A number of persons from the vici-nity of Sweet Home were attending court at Albany this week.

Pugh & Muncy will sell you Macin-bes and subbers, ladler pants and littles to the public Aug.

Mr. L. Eldredge, of Eugene has pened a bakery in the building formrly occupied by Steave Coyle,

Mr. B. F. Bodwell left Tuesday for Montesano, Washington, on business. He will be gone a week or two.

Mr. H. B. Lewis and family left Tuesday for Ft. Benton, Mont., where they will make their future home.

Mr. S. J. Paul, a former resident of this county passed through the city yesterday on his way to Sodaville.

After November 15, all our accounts will be placed in the hands of an at-torney for collection. Guy & Mayer.

Wheat has relised to forty cents here and the outlook is good for a continued rise to fifty cents, but it may be slow. Josh Reilly, formerly of the Albany base ball club has been engaged to play third base for Chi cago next year.

Mr. James Vinson, an old and highly respected citizen of Hamilton Creek dangerously ill and not expected to

Arraignments are being made to have a program rendered on Thanks-giving by the Sunday school at Sweet

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the services at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday at

A protracted meeting was commen-ced at the Independent Evangelical church last Monday evening above Waterloo.

Our reporter sends word that the se dal at Rev. E. E. McVickers, of Sweet Home, was well attended, and all had

Mr. Claud Lee, of Junction City, who has been visiting friends in this vicinity for a few days, returned to his home Monday.

The appointment of Captaia N. B. Humphrey as deputy district attorney for Linn county has been filed with the county clerk.

Hugh Nixon is industriously circu lating a remonstrance to the proposed new road that cuts off a good slice of his mother's land We have been reliably informed that

Messrs. Finch and Strong have given up the idea of starting a bank in this city for the present. W. H. Donaca, Ed Simons and

George Salvins came back from the mountains last week; where they have been with the surveyors S. P. Bach and family returned on Tuesday ovening's train. They spent several days in Portland and also with friends in Salem. Ed Kellenberger has built a large barn tear his slaughter house. He ha bought considerable hay and will feed a number of cattle this winter. Mr. Will Lyon, of Pullman and Miss Nina Galbraith, of Albany were married at the home of the bride's father, in Albany last Wednesday. Dr. Auspund, who had a shooting scrape with Dr. Holmes in Portland last July about a woman, has been found guilty of assault with a gun.

The eyangelists, Holdredge and Dixon are still here and will continue to hold their evening meetings at the M. E. church till after Sunday next.

Rev. Ross, who has been holding a eries of meetings at Peoris, will deliver his famous lecture. Theocracy, at the South M. E. church Monday evening.

Dr. Booth was called out near Spicer inst Friday afternoon to see John Bub-ley, who fell from a pear tree and injured his spine. He is doing misely.

The court house is crowed, as not often before, with witnesses in the various case, and the indications point to a long and expensive term of court.

Measure your rooms accurately and have your carpets sewed without extra charge by the Albany Furniture Company. Baltimore Block, Albany, Or.

institute will be held at Lacomb. will assist Prof. Wiley in his school. These institutes are very profitable to This will be a great help; both to Mr. teachers, and are usually well stten-ded. Wiley and the pupils, as there has been much need of an assistant for ded

Several gentlemen of this city, who have recently visited Portland, say dead.

Many Chinese pheasants have been shipped to various states this season, where they will be used for breeding They usually bring $10 purposes.

When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Bach & Buhl.

Ye editor and family returned Money is a suit of clothing the sui

F. M. French, jeweler Albany, has dent for the police to stop a fight of that kind in private, and off-way down this fall. A good 8 day clock, with alarm, for $4. Call and see them.

If you want to sell property list it For pure linseed oil, call on M. A.

The Express acknowledges a very pleasant call from J. V. Keebler, who this week.

Prominent politicians from all over the county are in attendance at court, feeling each other's pulse and trying to obtain the data to base their calcu-

Mr. Daniel H. Sherwood, aged sixty seven years, highly respected, and at one time a resident of Linn county, died very suddenly at his home in Sa lem last week.

L. W. Pomeroy's hophouse and this year's crop of hops, which had been baled, were burned last week near Scio. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin.

O. E. Charlton, of Lakeview, arrived sere last week on a visit to his grandfather. He is thinking of spending the winter in Lebanon and going to school at the academy.

Pugh & Muncy are treadquarters for boots, shoes, rubbers, Macintoshes, furnishing goods, hats, caps and groseries. It will pay you to see them pefore buying elsewhere.

The ladies of the Baptist church are arranging for a Thanksgiving dinner, at which time a beautiful quit will be be on exibition with other articles for sale. Further notice later.

Mrs. A. J. Adams and Miss Paulinleft yesterday to join Rev. Adams at Cleavland, Washington, where they will make their future home. To jeave a host of friends in this city.

October has broken the record this year, the entire month having passed without rain. Some years the highest water comes in October, but this year the month has been noted for the low-

In order to put the Express in every home in this part of the county for the winter, we have decided to make a special offer of 25 cents for four month. This offer will appear for a short time only.

Mrs, C. E. Pogh and children returned from Springfield Tuesday, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts and family. Mr, Pugh is waiting for the rain to bring the deer in range.

Mr. Jack Raiston left on Tuesday norning's train for his home in Portland, after spending several months Read, Pencock & Co.'s store.

The Linn county exhibit at the exceition will be shown in Albany on the termination of the fair; a store room in the Pfeiffer block being used for the purpose. This will be appre clated by our county citizens.

Miss Jennie Saltmarsh, who has been connected with the St. Charles botel in Albany, came out to Lebahou Monday on a visit to friends and relatives. One night last week a party tendered a reception at the botel in her honor. Detective Harris, who was here last spring after counterfieters, has a little be reduced.—Herald. suit of his own to defend. A man who thought himself mistreated by Harris in California, has sued him for libel and slauder. The prosecutor is pow prosecuted.

J. R. Stockman, who was recently sentenced to one year in the penitenti-ary on account of the Red Crown wheat shortage, is in Albany, and will appear as a witness in the Isom case. Mr. Stockman secured the required $1500 bail without delay.

The Isom trial was begun Wednesday afternoon. The securing of a jury was slow work. Prosecuting Attorney McCain and J. M. Somers appeared for the state and Hon. W. R. Bilyeu, Weatherford & Wyatt and Whitney & Newport for the defendant.

Miss Annie Morgan left Sunday Today and iomorrow a local teachers evening for Sweet Home where she happy couple have the best wishes some time. We wish her success.

Mr. W. W. Scully has delivered to that James Muncy is well and doing Mr. C. G. Burkhart, at Albany, a box business in that city. Jim was reported of pears raised upon the farm of Hon. S. A. Dawson; several of the largest Oscar Black's face shows but slight ones weighed nearly four pound each marks from his severe cutting. He can thank the skill of his physician for his speedy recovery and slight and shipped them to Portland, to be added to Linn county's exhibit.

Last Friday the Women's Relief Corps of this city, made a frate visit to that order in Albany, They drove down in private carriages. An

Ye editor and family returned Monday from a visit to San Francisco, and other California points.

Ladies should inspect Read, Pascock & Co,'s new stock of jackets and

The Linn county exhibit at the expleasant call from J. V. Keebler, who position is one of the most attractive recently moved back to Lebanon from in the building. Mr. C. W. Watte, near Oakland, and Mr. D. J. Hildreth, who has had the exhibit in charge, has returned to his home in Albany, and Mr. S. N. Steele has taken his place for the remainder of the fair.

The application of the Willamette Yalley & Cascade Mountain Wagon Boad Company for an extension of one year in which to complete the surveys and telections of lands in that part of its grant intersecting the Cascade reserve, has been granted by the scoretary of the interior.

Reports having been put in circulstion derogatory to the character and reputation of Mrs. Lottle J. Hiatt, who was recently murdered at her home in Jordan valley, a paper signed by about 100 of her former neighbors, has been published, stating that they be-lieve she was a virtuous and up-right oman in every respect.

D. Gardwell, of Roseburg, has a facsimile copy of the first paper published in America, the Boston News-Letter, dated 1704, also an original copy of the Ulster Gazetteer containing the announcement of Washington's death, printed ninety-five years ago. It is probably the best preserved of any of the original copies now extant, and has been in the possession of the Card-well family since published.

As heretofore announced the marriage of Mr. Collins Elkins and Miss Mamie Johnson took place in Ashland yesterday (Wednesday) at 11 a.m., Rev. Meminger performing the ceremony, and they are expected to arrive in Albany by this morning's overland train. Their hosts of friends will extend hest wishes and greetings to them, for they are of our best and highly esteemed young people.-Herald.

Oscar Williams was released from jail on Tuesday and returned h happy, the grand jury failing to indict him. They thought that this was a case wherein all parties were more or less guilty, and that William's punishment by several weeks confinement in the county |sil about evened up matters; so the matter was dropped. We have a kindly feeling for the young men at Humphrey's mill, but would warn them to cease their fights or some one will likely go to the pen.

Mr. T. W. Davenport, state land agent has been up the North Santiam visiting among his many friends at along the line of the O. C. & E. rail-this place. He was also clerking in road inspecting the lands included within the Cascade forest reserve. Petitions are being signed by thousands of settlers and others interested in the opening of the reserve along the railroad and Mr. Davenport says that he has the assurance of Oregon's entire delegation in congress that they will recommend the opening of at least a generous strip through that country. Mr. Davenport is working earnestly for this purpose. The forest reserve is all right and a good thing when contakes in an area as large as some whole states and thwarts the development of a rich country, it certainly ought to

Mr. C. D. McKnight and Miss Helen of matrimony Wednesday, October 16, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hamon, in the present of a few invited friends, Rev. C. R. Lamar officiating. Mr. McKnight is one of Tennessee's popular and best accomplished young men and Miss Hamon is of Knox Butte's gayest society leaders. The bride and groom re-ceived a number of handsome presents from those present. After the cere mony a fine dinner was served, of which all partook heartly. Those present were: Messrs, and Mesdames T. P. McKnight, C. N. McKnight, E. Hamon, Misses Gertie Hamon, Mary McKnight and Anna Cox. Thomas McKnight and Bert Blacklaw. The and beartfelt congratulations of a host of friends, for a long and happy journey through life.

A Bold Hold-up.

Just as we go to press this (Thurs day) evening, information comes that John Donaca was held up about dark beyond the covered bridge near town. John and his wife had been in the country and was returning, when they were haited by a masked robber John had only forty cents about him and got off easy. There is no clue.

Awarded Highest Honors-World's Pair. Gold Medal, Midwinter Pair. ·DR:

New Goods Our shelves are now filled with the choicest line of Dress Goods, fresh from the looms. Not an unstylish piece in the lot, and at prices to suit your pocket book.

OUR SHOE

department was never so full of stylish made shoes as at the present time.

We would be pleased to show you through our stock wether you are a purchaser

Read, Peacock& Co.

LEBANON, - - OREGON

DALGLEISH & EVERETT.

Headequarters for fined to proper limits, but when it hardware, Stoves, Tinware and Furniture.

+;==:0:==:+

Our aim in business is to sell CHEAP for cash. Our Hamon were united in the holy bonds motto is "To lead but never follow." Our stock is large and embraces everything needed to furnish a home. Call on us and examine our goods any get prices before purchasing anything in our line. Our stock is much targer this fall than ever before.

+==0==+ Below is a Partial List of What We Carry

Windows, doors, glass, builders hardware, carpenters tools, plain and barbed wire, horse shoes, nails, bolts etc.

Ranges, stoves, stove pipes, terracotta chimneys, granitware, tinware, pitcher and force pumps, pipes and plumbers Plows, harrows, wagons, washing machine, wringers, churns, brooms and brushes.

Tubs, pails, bird cages, moulding, picture frames curtain poles, window shades, wallpaper, carperts matting, linoleum, oil cloth rugs etc.

Bedroom sets, cheffaniers, easy chairs and furniture of all kinds, springs, woolteds, pillows etc.

Leather, Lasts, shoe nails, garden hoes and fixtures, ammunition etc. Montague's old stand.

LEBANON. OREGON.

Fur Capes,

Plush Capes,

Beaver Capes, Astrachan Capes.

nt S. E. YOUNG'S, Albany, Or.

H, Baker carries the largest line of boots and shoes in Lebanon,

Pugh & Muncy have just received the picest line of ladies' and gentlemen's Macintoshes ever brought to Lebanon. Call and see them.

All knowing themselves to be inbled to the old firm of Guy & Mayer, to education to eatl and settle at once.

The bringing of unwarranted criminal proceedings received a backset at Eagene one day last week, when a jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and added this: "We further find that action was brought without probable cause, and maliciously." Fred Tallafere, a 14-year-old boy, had seen arrested at the instance of J. 11. Smith, as the outgrowth of a family feud.

Go to Hiram Baker for your mackintosh.

Having opened a butcher shop in the old Eureka meat market, I solleft a share of your paironage. By honest upright dealing I hope to build up a business in your city. The me a trial.

Yours Respectfully,

I.W. Becausess,