A Home Forum lodge was organized in Harrisburg Wednesday evening with a membership of about fifty. T. A. Cox, who had charge of the depot in the absence of Agent Hickok, returned to his home in Grants Pass Tuesday.

Mrs. A. M. Stewart died at the home of Mrs. Riley in this city last Monday at the age of seventy-four years. Rev. Harmon conducted the funeral service on Tuesday, after which she was buried in the Masonic cemetery.

The marshal, in his recent investigation of the recent firing of guns, late at night, in the northeastern end of the city, discovered that some malicious persons have been annoying families in that neighborhood by scratching the doors and windows and throwing stones against the houses.

The statement has been printed that Mrs. Hannah, now confined in the penitentiary, is the first Oregon woman ever confined there for murder. The statement has caused the Salem Post to say that old timers, however, will remember the case of Mrs. Charity Lamb, of Clackamas county.
