Closing out sale at Read, Peacock & Co.'s. Hiram Baker was doing business in Albany yesterday. Dr. G. W. Chandle, dentist. Office over City Drug store. W. B. Dougan was in Albany last Saturday on business. H. E. Palmer will soon open up a drug store at Waterloo. If you want the news you should subscribe for the EXPRESS. Gentlemen, call and see the new fall and winter clothing at Bach & Buhl's. Ruff Hiatt and Ed Kellenberger were doing business in Albany Monday. A young child of John Dobkins died on Tuesday and was buried Wednesday. The finest line of dress patterns in the city is to be found at the Racket store. Pat Farrell, of Albany, was the guest of Jos. Elkus and family this week. Mrs. G. W. Cronon left yesterday for Scio, to organize a Rebekah lodge at that place. If you think we are joking, come and see. We mean business. Read, Peacock & Co. Get ready for the Leap Year social about the middle of March. Further notice next week. Editor Alexander was in Albany yesterday, attending the populist county convention. A. B. Loveall, of Benton county, was visiting his brother and friends in Lebanon this week. Hon. M. A. Miller was in Albany Tuesday, attending the democratic county central committee. Jas. Boyd has returned to Lebanon from Sodaville, where he has been running a photograph gallery. Get you a new pair of shoes quick, while they still have a good assortment left at Read, Peacock & Co.'s. Lebanon people are entitled to much credit for patronizing home talent as well as they did last Monday night. One-half wool dress goods reduced to 10 cts., and bleached, all linen table cloth for 25 cts. a yard, at the Racket store. Miss Lela Westfall returned from a visit to Albany Monday. Her cousin, Miss Leeva Scott, accompanied her home. The public schools are now busily engaged with their full number. We have a fine school which reflects credit on the city. If you want to laugh, come and see Capt. Montague and his new recruits at the opera house, Feb. 22, in honor of Washington's Birthday. Dr. S. Dudley has returned to Lebanon, after an absence of a few months. The doctor's friends in this city are always glad to see him return. Mrs. W. W. Hale who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, for several weeks, left Tuesday for her home in Southern Oregon. A Sunday paper says there is a lawyer in Albany about whom it has something that will make people's hair stand on end when published. Atty Garland and Prof. White each received a full set of Encyclopaedia Britannica this week. This is a fine work to add to any person's library. Cabot W muslin, 18 yards, $1. Cabot A muslin, 17 yards, $1. Hope muslin, bleached, 12 yards, $1. Other goods in proportion, at Read, Peacock & Co.'s. Mrs. Nettie E. Heard is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Harden, of this city. Mrs. Heard is on her way to her home in San Francisco from a visit in Sioux City, Iowa. Jacob Miller and family, of Aurora, arrived in Lebanon Monday. Mr. Miller has purchased T. C. Peeler's little ranch just across the river, and has moved there. S. H. Myers, of this city, has in his possession a copy of a paper printed in Boston in 1770. It is needless to say that it does not look very much like a Boston paper of to-day. Lewis Crandall and A. H. Cronson returned Tuesday from the Walton ranch, where they have been trapping for several weeks. They reported a fine time, but poor luck. C. O. Peterson is doing business in Oregon City and Portland this week. Mr. Peterson is also taking advantage of this opportunity to visit friends and relatives in Oregon City. Parties desiring to send money to any place in Europe can do so safely by applying to the reliable banking firm of J. W. Cusick & Co., of Albany. See his advertisement in this paper. We have been asked several times why the new marshal did not ring the hoodlum bell and keep the boys off the streets, as the ordinance requires. We will give it up, though we don't know but it should be done just the same.

Miss Mattie Nixon returned home last Friday from a visit of about three months with her brothers in Washington. She reports a fine time while gone, and looks as if she has been well fed, having gained ten pounds avoirdupois while away. The question, "Are theatricals merely an innocent amusement or do they weaken the influence of christianity and sound morality?" will be discussed in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at the morning service. Come and hear the discussion. W. O. Southwick and family of Friends, Neb., visited a few days recently with G. W. Simonds and family, near this city. Mr. Southwick and family have been spending the winter in California and stopped off for a short visit on their way home. The Weber Dramatic company played in Medford and Jacksonville last week. The Medford Mail says the people of that city thoroughly appreciated the plays of this superior company. It is to be hoped the Weber company will return to Lebanon soon. Dr. R. H. Curl, dentist, of Browns ville, will be in Lebanon on Feb. 23, and remain five days. Dr. Curl makes a specialty of painless extracting; gold crowns and bridge work, rubber plates, porcelain crowns; gold, silver, amalgam and cement fillings. Give him a call. G. M. Westfall and George Dodge returned Saturday from Peoria. Mr. Westfall found everything all right about the farm, and he and Dodge exchanged the necessary legal papers, and now Mr. Westfall has the farm while Mr. Dodge has the livery stable and stock. At the meeting of the democratic county central committee held in Albany last Tuesday, Friday, April 3, at 10 o'clock A. M. was selected as the date for the county convention, and Saturday, March 28, for the primaries, except in Albany, which will be held on Monday, March 30. Following were the delegates to the populist county convention from this city. South Lebanon—C. B. Montague, C. D. Steen, A. T. McCulloch, J. W. Chesler, A. Umphrey, John Nichols. North Lebanon—D. W. Hardin, W. C. Frank, Frank Irvine, Brown Hunsard, Phil Ritter. The Scio Press publishes the following as possible candidates on the populist ticket: Legislature, Dr. Hendrex, C. B. Montague, Johnson Smith, W. M. Roberts and C. D. Steen; county judge, Geo. D. Barton; commissioner, Mr. Case, of Tangent; assessor, H. B. Springer; sheriff, C. D. Steen. Rev. A. W. Snyder, who has been assisting Rev. Lamar in a series of meetings in Scio, has closed them, and will commence a series of meetings at the Baptist church in this city tomorrow evening and continue every evening for some time. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. Claus Vehr's has moved his creamery from Sodaville to a point near Halsey. Mr. Vehr is a first class creamery man. He understands all the departments of the business thoroughly and always turns out first class butter. We are sorry to see him leave this part of the county but wish him success in his new field. The ordinance requiring cows to be kept up nights, passed the city council last Tuesday night. The ordinance requires that cows be kept up from 10 P. M. to 5 A. M. during the months of April, May, June, July, August and September and to be kept up from 8 P. M. to 6 A. M. the rest of the time. This ordinance will be enforced after April 1st. The Prineville Review says that on Thursday last James R. Wagner was shot and killed by Isaac Mills near that place. The men were neighbors and quarreled over a dividing fence. Wagner was armed with a shotgun and Mills with a six-shooter. The latter was shot in the hands, and Wagner was instantly killed. Mills gave himself up. Last Friday as Atty. Garland was returning from Albany, he attempted to alight from the train at the Dodge property while the train was in motion. He made a mis-step and went rolling on the ground and rooting in the mud. As a result he has been wearing considerable court plaster on his upper lip this week and carrying a rather stiff arm. Some of Mr. Garland's friends thought he had got in a spat in Albany, but such was not the case. Ed. Huston, who has been the accommodating and efficient conductor on the Lebanon branch for the past ten years, has been promoted to the position of conductor on the overland, his run being between Portland and Roseburg. Mr. Huston will move to Portland in the near future. Ed. has many warm friends in Lebanon who regret to see him leave this run, but are glad to see his promotion. The two Lebanon and Oregonian trains will hereafter be in charge of conductors Sperger and Cummings. Goods away down, at Read, Peacock & Co.'s—for cash or produce. Dress Goods, fine quality for a little money, at Read, Peacock & Co.'s.

Populist County Ticket. The following ticket was elected at the populist county convention, held in Albany Wednesday: Representatives—T M Munkers, W M Roberts, J F Smith. County Judge—Geo D Barton. County Commissioner—W M Rainey. County Clerk—C B Montague. Recorder—A S McDonald. Sheriff—M C Galus. Treasurer—J W Wilson. Assessor—J R Bucknum. School Superintendent—Richmond Wheeler. Surveyor—Geo Whitcomb. Coroner—A G Prill. A county executive committee of five was selected as follows: C D Steen, Dr J F Hendrex, B F Ramp, Geo D Barton, Dr J L Hill. As we go to press, we obtain a list of the populist candidates. Want of space makes it impossible to take extended notice of candidates. We stop the press long enough to say that, while we do not agree with Mr. Montague, the candidate for clerk, in his politics, we agree with all who know him in the belief, that neither the republicans nor the democrats can put up a better man for clerk. He would make a thoroughly faithful and efficient officer, acceptable alike to the people and the bar. We predict his election. HAPPY HOME ITEMS. School term is closed. Meeting at the schoolhouse every Thursday evening and Sunday. James Fitzwater is in poor health—suffering from lung trouble. Little Allie Gleason is very low with typhoid pneumonia. She is under the care of Dr. Booth, of Lebanon, who thinks he can pull her through with good nursing. A new arrival from Montana—Mrs. French's son. He seems disgusted with Oregon too much, and prefers the cold blizzards of Montana to the mild climate of Oregon. Harvey Rollins is making rails and building fences on Mrs. Caldwell's ranch. Harvey is a rustler. A few days ago we had a little excitement, in the attempted elopement of a couple of our young people. The attempt was foiled by the irate father overhauling them within a mile of the young lady's home, and taking the young lady back home, she being under age. We sympathize with the young couple, and doubly so with the parents. BEDROCK. Notice of Dissolution. Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between G. M. Westfall and A. Umphrey, and known as Westfall & Umphrey, and engaged in a general livery and feed stable business in Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. All parties having claims against the partnership will present them at once to the undersigned, and all parties indebted to the partnership are earnestly requested to settle at once with the undersigned. G. M. WESTFALL, A. UMPHREY. Lebanon, Or., Feb. 13, 1896. Executor's Notice. Notice is hereby given, that, by an order of the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, the undersigned has been duly appointed, and now is, the duly qualified and acting Executor of the estate of John Settle, deceased. All parties having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same, properly verified, within six months from the 20th day of February, 1896, the date of the first publication hereof, to the undersigned at the office of Sam'l M. Garland, Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon. J. M. SETTLE, Executor. SAM'L M. GARLAND, Atty. for Executor. Wm. Robins, Thos. Reidy, W. A. Marks, Ed. Palmer, Phil Ritter and H. Y. Kirkpatrick, of the A. O. U. W. lodge of this city, went to Albany last Saturday, to hear the lecture of Grand Master Workman W. M. Colvig, of Jacksonville. Hon. Mr. Colvig delivered an excellent address in the interest of the A. O. U. W. lodges. After the lecture a reception and banquet was tendered Mr. Colvig, in the Albany lodge room. All present enjoyed a pleasant evening, and the Lebanon delegation returned home well paid for their trip. Hiram Baker informs us that he never sold a corset that gives as good satisfaction as the Featherbone corset does. Every one that has gone out has given good satisfaction. These corsets are warranted, and if one should prove not to be good, Mr. Baker will refund the money or give the customer another corset. Read the ad of Klein, Dubruille & Co. New subscriptions for the Weekly Oregonian taken at this office. Ladies cloth, all wool, 38 inches wide, 29 cts. per yard—cash, at Read, Peacock & Co.'s. During our closing out sale no goods will be sold except for spot cash. READ, PEACOCK & CO. Shoes away down—quality away up—at the closing out sale of Read, Peacock & Co. When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it at Read & Buhl's.

They Did Exceedingly Well. "The Mountain Wail" was played at Santiam Academy Monday evening, to a full house, notwithstanding the fact that a performance at the opera house was billed for the same evening. The characters were all well acted. Miss Addie Cook was a very pleasant "Mountain Wail." Miss Mabel Carson, as Dolly Wilbur, showed much ability. Miss Hattie Cox made a model person's wife, and was equal to the occasion. "Verily," George Randle was a very discreet old parson for the time being. Herbert Simpson transformed himself into a "heavy villain" of the most villainous character, but in the last act again became a worthy citizen. Charles Ross was a "weasly" nice little dude. Henry Smith impersonated a characteristic miner of the "wild west," and displayed much ability. John Kellenberger carried out his part as the German proprietor of the "Miner's Roost" hotel, and also sheriff, to perfection. George Ross was a typical Irishman from the "ould sod." Dol. Boslar, as a detective, did very well. Ed. Umphrey, impersonating "a plucky New-Yorker," was not behind the others in acting. John Barrett played the part of a "crook" in a very creditable manner. The make-ups were all right, and "didn't need any fixin'." We believe that when the club presents any play to the Lebanon people they will again be greeted by a large audience. Deafness Cannot be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cts. Come and see the Little Patriots drill, at the opera house, Feb. 22. Read, Peacock & Co. are closing out their stock of goods at both Albany and Lebanon. Men's first grade, oil grain, plow shoes reduced to $1.50 at the Racket store. Many other shoes are reduced in price. More new carpets and 6ft. and 12ft. wide Linoleum. Just received by the Albany Furniture Company. Baltimore Block, Albany, Or. Every body, attend the annual entertainment of the Relief Corps. Admission, 15 cts.; reserved seats, 25 cts.; children under ten years, 10 cts. Members of the Lebanon Republican Club will please take notice that there will be a meeting Friday evening, Feb. 21, in Union hall. Object, to re-organize under the league rules if deemed advisable.
