Parties desiring to send money to any place in Europe can do so safely by applying to the reliable banking firm of J. W. Cusick & Co., of Albany. See his advertisement in this paper.

Died, on February 21, 1896, in Oakville, after a week's illness, of pneumonia, Robert Farrar, at the age of 32 years. The deceased was a man highly respected. He leaves three children.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Githens, on February 19, Mr. C. S. Smith and Miss Nellie Githens, both of Linn county, Rev. H. L. Hood officiating.

Edgar William Nye, the great American humorist, died at his home near Asheville, N. C., last Saturday. He was so well known that we do not need to mention his abilities and good qualities. Suffice it to say, he will be greatly missed by the American people.

At the meeting of the Lebanon republican club, held Friday evening, the by-laws were revised and the following officers were elected: D. Andrews, president; A. J. Crandall, secretary; Hiram Baker, treasurer. The meeting was quite enthusiastic and several earnest speeches were made.

The entertainment at the opera house last Saturday evening, given by the W. R. C. of this city, was a success in every respect. All who attended enjoyed a delightful evening. It is said that the new recruits' drill, under the command of Capt. Montague, was the best feature of the evening. The proceeds were something over $30.00.

Mrs. J. H. Conrad, a sister of Mrs. R. Hull, has located in Sodaville to do dress-making. Mrs. Conrad is a first-class dressmaker in every respect, having worked at the business for over 20 years. Mrs. Conrad teaches cutting and fitting and has dress systems for sale, and makes dressmakers of those who purchase a chart from her.

It is said the republicans of Harrisburg are talking of presenting the name of H. R. Sherril, of Harrisburg, to the republican convention for re-election, H. L. Laselle, of that city, is spoken of for representative and E. E. Upmeyer for county commissioner.

Perry Carter, of Halsey, it is said will be added to the list of candidates for clerk, and B. M. Stafford, of Halsey, for assessor.

C. I. Hood & Co., the great sarsaparilla manufacturers, have published a handsomely lithographed advertising map of "our country," each state containing the portrait of a man or woman cured of some affliction by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Among the ladies' pictures is that of Mrs. E. B. Crouch, of Lebanon, Oregon, and she is the prettiest woman in the batch. There is not a product of nature in which Oregon does not excel.—Welcome.

The teachers' examination held in Albany last week resulted in one, Miss Amy Collins, of Albany, securing a first grade, one, Mrs. Jackson, of Brownsville, a second grade, and six third grades, 29 either failing to advance or to pass. State certificates will be granted the following if the report is confirmed by the state board as customary is done: Misses Mary Williams, Olive Baltimore and Nellie Colby, of Albany; Miss Carrie Royal, of Halsey, and Mr. George Hows, of Brownsville.—Democrat.

Nothing new has developed in the Mills Wagner tragedy. The coroner held an inquest over the body of Wagner and the jury brought in a very queer verdict, so we understand, which read about as follows: "We, the jury summoned to enquire into the death of James R. Wagner, find that he came to his death from a pistol shot fired by Isaac W. Mills and we find Mills guilty of murder in the first degree." The evidence and verdict would be published but the officers refuse to let us have it. Mills is not able to leave his bed but as soon as the doctors think he can, his preliminary trial will take place.—Prineville News.

An exchange tells the following good story: "Two tramps beat a saloon keeper in a western town out of several drinks of fine whiskey by a queer trick recently. They passed a gallon jug over the bar and asked to have it filled with whiskey. After it had been filled they tendered a dollar in payment. The bartender said the whiskey was of $4 kind and refused to take the dollar. The tramps declined to pay more, and the bartender emptied the liquor back into the barrel and handed back the jug. After going some distance the tramps smashed the jug and squeezed several good drinks of whiskey out of two big spoons in the jug."

WATERLOO TRUTH.

A fight is now in progression for the post office, but it will terminate like the war between England and the U. S.

Waterloo has a flourishing C. E. society, Home Forum and A. P. A. lodge, and will probably get up a petition to have the county-seat here in the future.

The town will be quieter this summer, under the management of Frank Gleason as marshal, Frank having made a record before.

We would like to see a band organized here, as there are plenty of people and money—this small town rivaling Albany in trade.

Boys that tear up song books, just for meanness, seem to be preparing fuel for themselves elsewhere in the by-and-by.

If the populists that were not nominated for office at the convention have changed their minds, like one we know, the democrats will poll a strong vote.

Being a new recruit, we will only ask for a small space in the EXPRESS now, and that in a corner, but about election time we will petition for a whole page to hold our cablegrams. We will not begin our weekly messages with "Rain," "Snow," "Fog" or "Frost," because we know that people in this part of Oregon see such things about the time we do, and of better than sunshine. We will not offer a tin medal to anyone for sorting out our grammatical errors. We do not write for educated people, but for fern diggers, hayseeds, etc. Having given our constitution, we will now proceed to find out all the happenings and record them in black and white, so beware of MCGINTY'S GHOST.

As predicted by the EXPRESS a few weeks ago, the Southern Pacific Co. has taken off the passenger coach on the Lebanon branch, and in its stead has put on a regular, old-fashioned yellow caboose with seats running along the sides. This throws the passengers and baggage almost together. In the first one put on there was no partition between whatever and as there is a great deal of poultry shipped from this place the passengers, baggage, poultry and all the express had to go in the same caboose. It is said it was a queer combination. The people are justly indignant at such treatment and if the company keeps this caboose on, a great many people will go to and from Albany by team when the roads get good, instead of riding in this car. This car is very little ahead of the old stage line.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SAM'L M. GARLAND, Atty. for Executor.

When you want to buy a suit of clothing you will save money by getting it of Bach & Buhl.

A Chiraman with a white woman for a wife passed through Lebanon yesterday, on his way to Foster.

County Commissioner John Pugh is in the city. Mr. Pugh is spoken of as a candidate for sheriff, on the republican ticket.

Revival meetings are still in progress at both the Methodist and Baptist churches, with good attendance and considerable interest at each place.

Rev. Walton Skipworth will not preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning as heretofore announced, but will preach to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

An emigrant by the name of M. L. Cox, and family, arrived in Lebanon this morning from Des Moines, Iowa, and will take the stage to-day for Foster. Mr. Cox says there are about thirty families in his neighborhood who intend coming to Oregon this year.

Mrs. Geo. C. Davis died at her home north of this city last Tuesday, after a short illness, and was buried in the Masonic cemetery yesterday. Mrs. Davis gave birth to twins last Friday, both of which died before her death. Mrs. Davis was a sister of Mrs. Harnett and the Ridgeway boys of this city. She leaves a husband, twelve children and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

Notice for Publication.

LAND OFFICE AT OREGON CITY, OR., February 4, 1896.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given that the Oregon and California R. R. Co. has filed in this office a list of lands situated in the townships described below, and had applied for a patent for said lands; that the list is open to the public for inspection, and a copy thereof, by descriptive subdivisions, has been posted in a convenient place in this office, for the inspection of all persons interested and the public generally.

Part of north half of Sec 1. All of Sec 3, 5, 7 and 9. Part of north half and part of south half of Sec 11. All of Sec 15, 17, 19 and 21. Part of north half of Sec 27. The east half and part of west half of Sec 29. Part of north half of Sec 31. Part of north half of Sec 33. All situate in township 12 south, range 3 east.

Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice, protests or contests against the claim of the company to any tract or subdivision within any section or part of section described in the list, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received and noted for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C.
