THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in A1 condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder, but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

STATE AND COAST.

Clipped from our Exchanges Throughout the West.

Rossia, Wash., is without a barber shop.

Malheur has a school district named "Fighting Seven."

Sheepmen of Grant county are taking their sheep to the hills.

There are now five cases of diphtheria in and about Coburg, says the Eugene Guard.

A. M. Keisay, of The Dalles, will commence work on an artesian well on his place, near The Dalles.

Grant county stockmen have a number of fine, large haystacks untouched, and spring is bound to come soon.

Superintendent Gilbert, of the penitentiary, says "Bunco" Kelly eats his regular rations and is in good health.

Nine men and two women have been busy at the Eugene cannery packing prunes for shipment to the east.

The store of E. Baum, a clothier of Eugene, was closed last Friday under attachments made by Portland parties.

D. Ott, a saloon keeper of Port Townsend, Wash., was arrested last week, charged with selling liquor to small boys.

Some California parties are casting glasses in the direction of Lakeview as a suitable location for an electric light plant.

The young men of Pilot Rock have organized a minstrel troupe. Over $100 has been invested by them in musical instruments.

Fishermen predict there will be no hien water in the Columbia this year, and anticipate a poor fishing season in consequence.

It is stated that the Oregon Pacific will build a branch line one and one-half miles long, from Kingston to Stayton, in the spring.

So far the work of expediting the taxrolls of Lane county, that were returned to the county clerk to be corrected, has not disclosed many serious errors.

The Eugene Guard says that the members of God's Regular Army in that city after the free fight among themselves, have disappeared, leaving their creditors in the lurch.

A petition was circulated and signed in St. Helens last week, and forwarded to Senator McBride to be presented to congress, asking for an appropriation for the improvement of Seapooce bay.

The fire which recently destroyed the Hoxie sawmill, on Williams creek, in Josephine county, recalls the fact that this was the fourth time this sawmill has been destroyed within 16 years.

A. J. Shelton, of Elgin, was surprised the other day by receiving a letter containing $1.50, which sum the writer said was payment for a ball ticket that Mr. Shelton had sold him on credit 15 years before.

People of Crook and Klamath counties are working for a mail route to run between Prineville and Klamath Falls, six times weekly. It is hoped by the projectors that they will have the matter accomplished by July 1.

Charley Fix lost a horse in a rather novel manner a short time ago. Miss Ella Clark was riding the pony, and while traveling along the road near Condon the horse suddenly dropped dead, leaving Ella out of about a year's growth, the Globe says.

After another year's cruise in the South Sea islands, John Chilton is at home on his annual visit to his parents at Chitwood, Benton county. The ship on which Mr. Chilton sails is a gospel ship, and does not carry whisky, tobacco or quinquina, so the Corvallis Times says.

The Seattle Times is authority for the statement that one-half of the hop acreage of Yakima will be plowed up this spring. A Puyallup paper contains a list of several yards, amounting to 50 or 60 acres, near that place that will also be plowed up. Many Roseburg farmers have had enough and are going to quit.

Spokane's offered bounty for squirrel tails is not exactly munificent. During the month of March a bounty of one cent will be given, and in April and May 15 cents. This bounty is for tails only, the former system of paying upon the presentation of scalps having proven an incentive to fraud rather than encouragement to exterminate the destructive vermin.

All city officials of Tacoma were, last Friday, advised by City Attorney Wickersham to issue no more warrants, and Treasurer Gids was instructed ed to pay no more warrants for current expenses, excepting a few now outstanding, pending a decision by the supreme court, which shall show where the city is now "at" and which way it shall proceed to get any farther.

A singular accident happened to P. D. Hinrichs, at Hood River, the other day. One of his horses died, and he dug a pit in which to bury the carcass. While engaged in digging, the horse rolled in the pit on top of Mr. Hinrichs, and he was struck on top of the head by one of the horse's hoofs, which cut a gash six inches in length. Mr. Hinrichs is now getting along all right, but it will be some time before he fully recovers from the kick of the dead horse.

Alex. Ireland killed a bear on the Applegate last week, says the Medford Mail, that last week Mr. Ireland killed three of them, and it wasn't an unusually brisk day about the bruin household, either—and during the same length of time he killed seven wildcats. Since the 7th of last April Mr. Ireland has killed 41 bears and 17 panthers, and besides this the number of smaller animals is enormous—so much so that he could not think of keeping tally.

Harrison on Civil Service Reform.

In none of his papers upon "This Country of Ours" has ex-President Harrison delivered himself with such vehemence as he has in the one in the March number of the Ladies' Home Journal, "The President's Duties." Besides commending one of Mr. Cleveland's acts, and censuring ambassadors for making political speeches, he talks of presidential appointments in a most feeling and almost pathetic way. Upon the latter theme, in giving endorsement to Civil Service Reform, he says: "In spite of all the difficulties that beset the question of removals and appointments it must be conceded that much progress in the direction of a betterment of the service has been made. The Civil Service Rules have removed a large number of minor offices in the departments at Washington, and in the postal and other services, from the scramble of politics, and have given the president, the cabinet officers and the members of congress great relief; but it still remains true that in the power of appointment to office the president finds the most exacting, unrelenting and distracting of his duties. In the nature of things he begins to make enemies from the start, and has no way of escape—it is fate; and to a sensitive man involves much distress of mind. His only support is in the good opinion of those who chiefly care that the public business shall be well done, and are not disturbed by the consideration whether this man or that man is doing it; but he hears very little directly from this class. No president can conduct a successful administration without the support of congress, and this matter of appointments, do what he will, often weakens that support. It is for him always a sort of compromise between his ideal and the best attainable thing."

Corbett Still Claims the Championship.

James J. Corbett has sent Fitzsimmons the following challenge:

"To Robert Fitzsimmons: When I retired from the ring it was with the distinct understanding that if the championship was won by a foreigner I should reclaim it. I hereby claim the title, and, as you also claim it, wish to direct your attention to the fact that I have deposited $1000 with Will J. Davis, of Chicago, for a match with you. Please cover it at once, and by so doing show that you are not again avoiding a fight with me as you did at Hot Springs. I will gladly meet you before any reputable club in this country or any other that can guarantee a fistie meeting between us for as much money as you can raise or for a purse alone, immediately or in any reasonable time, but in any event you must deposit a sufficient monetary guarantee to insure your appearance in the ring at the time agreed upon, I do beg likewise. Now let us have a meeting, and no more recriminations or newspaper talk. You are the one man in the world I especially desire to fight, and I will meet you at any place you may name to arrange for a match. If you really believe you are my fistie equal, prove it by your fists and not by bombastic newspaper talk."
(Signed) JAMES J. CORBETT,
Champion of the World."

Snow-Storm at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—There was a fall of snow in this city this morning for the first time in 10 years. The fall was quite heavy while it continued, but it melted as fast as it fell, and at the end of 10 minutes turned to cold rain. The last snow-storm here occurred during the winter of '86-'87, when the ground was covered to the depth of several inches.

With the exception of a narrow strip of the coast of Southern California and southern portions of California and Arizona, the entire country is at freezing temperature or below.

There was a heavy fall of snow in Sacramento this morning, lasting for a couple of hours.

A dispatch from Chico, Calif., the same day, says: "It has been snowing heavily here for the past three hours, and the ground is white. The storm still continues, and seems general throughout the northern part of the state. Unless a freeze follows no damage to fruit will be done. It is very beneficial to grain."
