Unfortunately the scientists have as yet devised no way in which the Roentgen rays can be utilized in politics during the campaign.

The Oregonian says that trout are taking the fly in the north fork of the lower Coos river. It is evident the fishermen in that vicinity cannot wait until the trout season opens.

The Ohio republican platform, after the manner of such braying documents, very severely condemns the present administration in general, and then declares in favor of most things the administration has done.—Sunday Welcome.

The Salem Statesman (rep.) was always opposed to Hermann, before his nomination, and is now alluding to him as "Binger on the Whine." It is supposed the Statesman's grievance is that Hermann hasn't moved the capitol of the United States to Salem.—Sunday Welcome.

The Lyons correspondent of the Albany Herald, in a recent communication to that paper, objected to the school teacher at Fox Valley sending Adventist tracts to the homes of the scholars. Probably the worthy (we presume he is worthy) writer had forgotten that the United States is supposed to be a land of religious liberty.

That New York preacher who declared that the coal combine that forced the price of coal up 40 cents a ton in the dead of winter was morally guilty of murder, was right. It would do the world's heart good to see those unconscionable millionaire scoundrels shivering in fireless rooms in their shirt tails for the rest of the winter.—Sunday Welcome.

That Mount Tabor speech of Mr. J. N. Dolph was a corker, without any mistakes at that. But how on earth did the old man get it off in the time it is said he did? An extraordinarily fast reader would fall dead long before he could get half through with it and yet Dolph got it off and lived. No one will hereafter doubt that for long winded talks Dolph takes the cake and bakery too.—Portland Tomahawk.

There will be three parties in the field in this county, at the June election, each with a strong vote. The ballots have not yet been counted; and no man can, with certainty, predict the result. Years ago, barring accidents, the democrats could be counted upon to carry the county. The republicans were successful last election, with the aid of democratic votes on the one hand, and defection to the populists on the other. The people's party is vigorous and will draw from the republicans two votes to one drawn last time. It is needless to suggest that the disgraceful acts of the last legislature are the cause. Those democrats who went with the republicans will return, disgusted for the same reasons. Thus the three parties will have a pretty fight, with the result in doubt. The growing tendency to vote for the best man, regardless of politics, will further complicate matters. Voters this time will pick their men. They will assert an independence in voting not heretofore shown. "Scratching" will be numerous. Already this disposition is manifesting itself, and who can say that the county will not be benefitted in the end?

The Milton Eagle relates the following story: "A certain married lady of this city sat up till 12 o'clock the other night waiting for her husband to come home. At last, weary and worn out with waiting, she went to her bedroom to retire and found the missing husband there fast asleep. Instead of going down town, he had gone to his own room. She was so mad that she would not speak to him for a week."
