THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in A1 condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder; but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

Goods roads on St. Patrick's day is rather unusual for Oregon; yet such was the case this year.

A report is current that a new morning paper will be started in The Dalles April 1. If the enterprise is a go, it will be republican in politics.

The battle between the fruit growers and the fruit pests is now on in dead earnest in Jackson county, and "hot stuff" is being pumped into the enemy all along the line.

While filing the teeth of a horse, George Metter lost his hold of the file and it went down the animal's throat. The horse is getting along nicely, and the file is out of sight.

George Kylastra recently brought into Dallas 114 pounds of mohair, sheared from 40 goats, and sold it at 30 cents a pound. The coating of each animal brought him $3 cents.

Circuit court has been in session at Roseburg. The judge instructed the grand jury to fully investigate the escape of murderer Sam Brown from the county jail, and to place the responsibility where it belongs.

Lieutenant McDaniel, the last of the McDaniel brothers, died rather suddenly at his home in Jackson county recently. He was sick only a few hours, and some seem to think that poison figured in his death.

The silver-tipped gray squirrels are occasionally seen once more on the oak trees in Hood River. If these beautiful animals could be protected from vandal hunters, they would soon become numerous again on the handsome shade trees of that town, says the Glacier.

Mr. Gilman met with quite an accident recently while out hunting on Elk river, in Coos county. He fell and his gun was discharged. The bullet struck a rock immediately in front of him and rebounded, striking him in the shoulder and inflicting a painful but not serious wound.

The fact that the present jury in Douglas county is made up mostly of young men who have had but little or no experience as jurors, is a matter of comment. Such a combination of "boy jurors" may never occur again in the next half-century, if ever; but then it may occur again next time.

The firm of Weeks & Orr, of Medford, has been packing 600 boxes of fine Newtown pippin apples for the London market. These are all four-tier apples—which indicates that they lack nothing in size. These gentlemen have 10 men busily employed spraying their orchards. They report the pests not near so plentiful as last year.

In the bottom of the deep shaft at the Virtue mine, in Baker county, the water is hot. Too hot for a man to take a bath. This Ed Borman, the night foreman of the mine, can testify to. Mr. Borman had occasion to go down the shaft into the cage, and, through carelessness or otherwise, the cage was lowered into the sump. Before Mr. Borman could signal for a hoist his legs were burned by the hot water quite severely.

Rev. Mr. Mills, of Tillamook, who has recently closed a two weeks' series of meetings at Thurston, in Lane county, has shown a very generous spirit to the people of that place. Mr. Mills came to that section by Jersey cattle for a creamery, and while at Thurston learned that the people at that place were without a regularly appointed pastor. He immediately tendered his services for a short time, but was told that the people could not afford to hire him. Not daunted by this, he procured the use of the church building, hired a janitor at his own expense, to care for it, and held a two weeks' service, with good results, and when he had finished, gave the congregation $200 in cash to "boost them along." Mr. Mills is said to be quite well.

Attempted Suicide.

The following is taken from the Solo Press:

Tuesday afternoon John Patterson came to this city in post haste after a doctor, stating that Elijah Willifong had attempted to hang himself, at the barn of his son-in-law, Alex McDonald. The facts, as near as we could get them, were as follows:

Mr. Willifong is about 82 years old, is quite deaf and has nearly lost his mind. He has been afflicted lately with erysipelas about the face and eyes, and has been frequently heard to say that he did not want to live. In consequence of these threats he has been watched to some extent. Shortly after he ate his dinner Tuesday he went to the barn and taking a rope fastened one end to the joist overhead. He then, by standing on a scantling, one end of which was placed upon a box or something of that nature, brought his head near the joist. He then tied the rope around his neck, but not in a slip knot, and stepped off the scantling. This gave him a drop of but four or five inches, but he would have strangled to death in a few minutes. Some children happening on the scene about this time, hurried to the house and reported the matter to their father. Mr. McDonald went to the barn as quickly as possible and, cutting the rope, laid the old man down. He had choked himself till he had quit breathing, but in a few minutes respiration was restored. When Dr. Cole, of this city, arrived not much could be done, as he was by this time breathing regularly with the heart beating at about normal rate. The doctor prepared a lotion for the eyes and face, which, upon being applied, soon soothed the old man to sleep.

Suicide at Corvallis.

M. T. Lindsey committed suicide last Saturday, at the courthouse in Corvallis, by shooting himself. Apparently Lindsey had seated himself against a pile of wood, and deliberately placed a revolver against his right temple, shot himself. The weapon used was a 44-caliber Colt's revolver, which the dead man still grasped when found.

His wife said he left home that morning, apparently feeling in good spirits. During the forenoon he spent a few hours at the store of Dunn & Campbell, leaving there about noon. As he went out he asked for his revolver, which he had left there for sale. It was given him, and he casually remarked that he would take it along home. He carried out his purpose shortly after noon.

Mr. Lindsey had been for years of a rather despondent disposition. His health was not very good and he was unable to work. The largest part of his income was his pension, which was insufficient for the maintenance of his family, and it is supposed financial troubles added to his despondency.

Mr. Lindsey leaves a wife and three children.

He was a member of the G. A. R. and A. O. U. W.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the EXPRESS $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2 per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the EXPRESS gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2 per year. School is now progressing nicely under the management of Miss Annie Blacklaw. Thirty-one scholars are now enrolled.

Ray Swink and family, of Minto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Swink last week. Saturday night a party was given them.

The people of this vicinity were frightened last Saturday evening, thinking that Perrine's comet had struck, but they were wonderfully mistaken. On investigation, it was nothing more nor less than Sam Gentry and Ed. Allen, at Swink's party, trying to dance to the tune "Molly Brooks," sung by Charles Swink.
