He was a highly respected and revered citizen of Linn county, and was in his usual good health until the very moment of his death, having dropped dead from heart failure.

About fifty days ago M. D. Wheeler, of Lebanon, went to the bank of J. W. Cusick & Co., of this city, and cashed a draft on L. Berg & Co., of Portland, for $112.98. The draft was sent to Portland and dishonored. Mr. Wheeler refused to refund the money or give security, or do anything in the matter at all. After waiting in the hopes of having the matter settled, Monday J. W. Cusick & Co. had Mr. Wheeler arrested. He waived examination and was held for the grand jury. He is now hunting for bail.—Albany Democrat. Mr. Wheeler gave bonds and is now at home. His friends think he will be able to settle up all right and the matter will be dropped.

A NICE LITTLE GAME.

The Albany Democrat publishes the following, which has created much comment. Mr. Van Winkle, a candidate for the republican nomination for clerk, has disavowed any sympathy with the article:

"EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—

The Albany republican primaries were carried in this city on Saturday last 'by ways that are dark and tricks that are vain.' Hermann republicans were roughly handled, most of them who were on the ticket in the different wards were beaten, and others were notified that they could take no hand in the republican county convention or republican district convention.

A reign of corruption was inaugurated by the bosses, the anti-Hermann mar plots and the McFeron-Needham combination joining hands to carry the primaries, else the McFeron-Needham combination would have been beaten two to one!

Now this article serves notice on the anti-Hermann, McFeron-Needham combination that no man this year in Linn county can ride into the office on the backs of Hermann republicans! This nice little game has been sprung by men who do not hold a single winning card.

If Hermann republicans are procribed, refused their share of representation at the republican district convention that convenes in this city on April 7th, look out for snakes! After the June election there won't be enough left of the McFeron-Needham combination to make a decent fair-sized procession. Clubs are trumps this year and its a square dice or a free fight to a finish! Stand up and act like men or take your medicine!

MANY HERMANN REPUBLICANS.

WATERLOO TRUTH.

BY M'GINTY'S GHOST.

Mr. J. C. Booth, of Iowa, has been hired to teach the Waterloo school and commenced teaching Monday.

Mrs. Kay, of Salem, is visiting at Waterloo.

The chorus to the famous song "After the Ball" was well understood by some of our young people Saturday night if their locks were an index to feelings.

The umbrella fad we spoke about in a past article, has made trouble. Saturday the romantic episode came to a crisis when two ladies engaged in a Maber-Fitzsimmons fight in the woolen mill. We would advise the youth to buy a half-dozen umbrellas to settle the present trouble and provide for future accidents.

The populist delegate from this place was taking a prominent part in the republican primary last week. Also one who used to be a democrat, then a populist, and now is tracking the republicans. Such men are kept busy turning their coats so as to show the right uniform. Arnold left his friends for an office and money and got it and the contempt of everybody.

Delegates to the County Conventions.

The following delegates were elected from this place to the county conventions which meet in Albany today and tomorrow. The democratic delegates are: South Lebanon—M. A. Miller, S. O. Wallace, P. M. Smith, Col. W. Matthews, J. C. Bilyeu. North Lebanon—F. Kibbler, E. E. Hammack, Frank Skipworth, Fred Hickok, John Burkhardt. The republican delegates are: North Lebanon—A. A. Keen, A. I. Crandall, G. Lovelee, A. M. Wilson, A. Soelar, Geo. Ross, Sr., Luther Wiley, J. C. Hardiman, D. J. Ildredth, John Buckner. South Lebanon—W. H. Booth, F. A. Nickerson, John Denny, W. M. Brown, Z. T. Bryant, N. W. Smith, G. H. Bland, A. Tenny, R. Hlatt, Asa Baker.

Hiram Baker informs us that he has made a very large number of sales of the Featherbone corsets lately. Mr. Baker said that he was satisfied the cause of so many sales was the advertising of those corsets in this paper, thus letting so many people know the value of these popular corsets. The manufacturers guarantee the corsets, but out of all these sales only one has been returned, and the house refunded the money to Mr. Baker at once. This shows that the manufacturers are reliable.

Ladies, be prepared to invest in a brand new Easter bonnet. Miss Dumond has all the latest.
