The district Epworth League recently in session at Salem elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, S. Margaret Geisendorfer; first vice president, the Rev. D. Hasler Glass; second vice president, Miss L. Culver; corresponding secretary, Lester Hulin; recording secretary, Aggie Ginn Gould; treasurer, Addie Simpson. The convention selected Lebanon as the next place of meeting.

There will be an entertainment at the Mineral college at Sedaville Saturday evening, April 18th, 1896, for the purpose of raising money to buy an organ for the school. A very interesting programme is being arranged and the patronage of the people in general is solicited. A small admission fee will be charged at the door. The entertainment will commence at 7:30 p. m.

The democratic state convention which met in Portland last Friday nominated Jefferson Myers, of Seie, for congressman in the first district, and A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, for congressman in the second district. Judge John Burnett, of Corvallis, was nominated for supreme judge. Sam Hayden, of Polk county, was nominated for district attorney in the third district.

Attorney Martin informs us that he will shortly make a trip through the eastern states. The main object of his visit, we believe, is to secure two children for a client. Some time ago he secured a divorce for a Mrs. Bennett, of Harrisburg, and also the custody of the two children, and it appears that in the meantime the husband and father took the children to his old home in Lebanon, Indiana, and now Mr. Martin intends to have them returned to their mother.

FOSTER AND QUARTZVILLE ROAD.

The county court has ordered the route to be surveyed to ascertain the advisability of opening this road from Foster to Quartzville, and have appointed as viewers P. M. Smith, W. B. Donaca and—who are to meet May 12 at Foster. We hope the viewers will report in favor of this road. It's a public necessity and will result in great good to the county at large. The road will open up to and induce settlements all along the route. Much of this land will make good farms and all of it would be excellent pasturage. The road will be without heavy grades and will be far better the year round than the road from here to Sweet Home. It would add many thousand dollars to the assessed valuation of the county, and would soon pay for itself a tax receipts. The trade to be directed to points along the line and to Lebanon and Albany will be enormous. There are rich crops of gold, coal and copper along the way, which will soon be located and finally developed. This is an opportunity for public and private enterprise not to be slightly passed over. If the matter is properly pushed, the road can be ready for travel before the fall. Let every man interested do his best to get this road. The county court will not go wrong when it orders this road opened.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERY

The Oregon Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church which met in this city last week, held a very interesting meeting. Rev. W. V. McGee, of Albany, was elected moderator. On Saturday evening the Christian Endeavor rally was held and was well attended. An interesting and instructive programme was rendered, but on account of the bad weather some who were on the programme could not be present. On Sunday Rev. Jones, of Woodburn, preached the memorial sermon of the late Rev. M. Hickman. Sunday evening Rev. N. B. Beck, of Seattle, preached the ordination sermon after which Rev. W. V. McGee in very solemn and impressive words conducted the ordination service in ordaining Rev. A. Melvin Williams into the ministry.

During presbytery Rev. Williams, on account of poor health and over work, tendered his resignation to the session of the Lebanon congregation. The session declined to accept the resignation and voted Rev. Williams a vacation to extend according to his option. Arrangements will be made to fill the pulpit occasionally.

The May Races.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Linn County Speed and Driving Association held last Monday evening arrangements were made for the races to be held in Albany on May 25, 29 and 30. $250 are to be hung up in purses, and the following will be the programme:

First day—2:40 trot for $100; 2:28 trot for $250; 2:22 pace for $100; 1/4 mile dash for $100; 1/4 mile dash for $125.

Second day—2-year-old trot, 1/4 mile and repeat for $100; 2:20 trot for $225; free for all pace for $250; 1/4 mile dash for $125; 1/4 mile dash for $100.

Third day—2:25 trot for $250; 2:25 pace for $200; free for all trot for $250; 1/4 mile dash for $150.

Entries to trotting and pacing races will close on May 1, to running races at 4 p. m. preceding day of race. Entrance fee 10 per cent of purse; division of purses, 70, 20 and 10 per cent; 5 to enter 3 to start; but less number may start by action of board. Trotting and pacing races 2 out of 3, except 2-year-old trot. In case receipts are not sufficient to pay in full the right is reserved to pay pro rata, but best efforts will be made to pay in full.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

A. E. Davis has received a new drink called "oca cola." It is fine, try it.

The Ladies of the M. E. church will give a "Promiscuous Social" at Miller's hall, Tuesday evening, April 21; lunch 16c. Everybody come.

Dr. J. W. Cole, of Seie, the regular nominee of the Linn county republican convention for county judge, has tendered his resignation. The county central committee has been called to meet on April 21 to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy.

John B. Caves and son, John, and Pettijohn were arrested this week on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Caves, Phil Caves' divorced wife, on a charge of kidnapping a little girl. They were taken to Albany, tried and discharged at a heavy cost to the county.

A shooting affray occurred at Halsey yesterday in which an innocent man was probably fatally shot. It seems John Pearl and Owen Bond had a quarrel and afterward met in Jas. Pearl's livery stable. John Pearl, son Elmer and brother, Silas, all commenced on Bond who yelled for the marshal and at the same time pulled a revolver. The men grabbed it and it was discharged striking Ira Stroud, who is thought to be fatally shot.

Attention A. O. U. W.

All the wives of the A. O. U. W. that are interested in the Degree of Honor will please meet at Mrs. Hyde's Monday afternoon, April 20, 1896, at 8 o'clock.

TENNESSEE ENTERTAINMENT.

BY GEMAR.

Last Saturday rain commenced falling early in the morning and never ceased till Sunday afternoon. Nevertheless a very large crowd gathered at the school house in the evening, so large that there were many standing in the aisle. They were there for the purpose of having a good time and buying a supper basket. There were not more than two-thirds as many baskets as there would have been had it not rained. The baskets kept arriving till nineteen were present. They were concealed behind curtains and the boys did not have much of a chance to find them out. Pearl Wallace, of Albany, recited an excellent recitation. E. E. Munsey and Will Ross each had a select reading. Four songs were sung by the choir. The dialogue, "Trouble in a Mormon Home" was simply immense and was greeted by cheers and laughter. Many more songs, readings, etc., were given. The selling of the baskets consumed no little. They ranged from 20c to $1.20, J. D. Frank paying for the highest one and Obe Wallace for the lowest. Most of them sold in the neighborhood of 75 cts. The entire proceeds were $11.25, making an average of 58 1/2 cents apiece. The auctioneer, Ed Allen, proved to be fully competent to fill the office. The prize for the champion "pie-eater," was given to Clyde Ridgway. Layton Davis received the booby prize for being the slowest "pie-eater." Finn Hansard took the prize for being the most popular "ladies man." He bought two baskets. The proceeds will either go to the school or it will be part payment for an organ for the school house.

WATERLOO TRUTH.

BY M'GINTY'S GHOST.

A box social will be given Saturday night by the K. L. C. E.

The water was too high for the woolen mill to continue running and the bands had a holiday Monday.

A. Holman died at this place Sunday morning after a short illness. Congestion of the lungs was the cause. He was taken to Providence for burial.

Mr. Foley's daughter is very low with consumption. There are several cases of the fatal disease around Waterloo.

Four men engaged in a gloveless contest near the corporation line a few days ago. One was very agile, and tried to show the other three how easy it was to fall. He fell three times but we are sorry to say he was helped each time by Joe's fist. Joe may be deaf but he isn't paralyzed yet.

We were told privately by a fellow-citizen that he was badly frightened by a noise about a week ago. He thought Barnum's steam callope had come to town, or a Mexican burro. Rushing into the street with a pan of oats in one hand and a halter in the other, he was surprised to find it was only "Jim" training his voice for the populist wall after election.

Notice.

There will be an open meeting of the Lebanon Democratic Club on Thursday evening, April 23, 1896, at which time candidates and other speakers will be present and address the citizens of Lebanon. S. O. WALLACE, FRANK SKIPWORTH, President.
