THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in A1 condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder; but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

STATE AND COAST.

Clipped from our Exchanges Throughout the West.

A motherly sow is suckling a puppy dog with her pig at Moro.

A plan is on foot for the reorganization of the carriage factory at Corvallis.

Archbishop Gros lectured in Eugene last Thursday night upon the subject of "American Citizenship."

C. K. Huff brought several young coyotes into Moro alive recently. They were officially executed in the presence of the county clerk.

The Talmadge roller mill at Enterprise, in Polk county, has been sold by the sheriff. Lewis Helmick and other creditors bid it in for $5,000.

Plans and specifications are being drawn up for a new opera house in Eugene. It intended to erect a two-story brick building 80x130 feet.

J. C. Smith, of Umatilla county, had a fleece weighing 16 pounds. It was taken from a 250-pound Cotswold.

Tillamook is soon to have a telephone system. Ten telephones will be put in at the start, and the line will be extended to Bay City and Hobsonville.

The Scio Press says that the people of that city want the telephone line extended to that city, and as an inducement to secure it, will furnish an agent free of cost for one year.

Among other improvements in Wallowa this year, a union church will be built, the schoolhouse will be put in better condition, probably a new addition built, and a number of dwelling houses will be erected.

George F. Davis, a woolbuyer well known in Idaho, Oregon, Washington and California, died recently in Bakersfield, Cal. Mr. Davis had personally attended to the business of Koshland & Co. at Pendleton during wool seasons.

The residence of Mrs. Annie Uggart, in the pines near The Dalles, burned to the ground last week, and nothing was saved except an organ and a sewing machine. There was $1000 insurance on the house and contents.

About 100 head of cattle and 1,000 hogs are being fed at the Grant distillery. There are 500 hogs in the fattening pens, and a like number in the outside lots. The company turns out about 500 head of fat hogs every 60 days.

Three carloads of balm lumber and two of hardwood, destined for the San Francisco market, were shipped by the Corvallis Lumber Company, over the Oregon Central & Eastern, Friday.

Four carloads of ash and maple will follow the shipment soon.

Carl Albrecht, who murdered his wife in a cold-blooded manner in Marshfield about two months ago, escaped from the jail at Empire City last Sunday, but was intercepted in the woods by John Lennon and brought back. Albrecht had his pockets full of food when caught.

J. H. Law, a detective, has gone to Heppner to look for Wolf, who is alleged to have killed his sweetheart three years ago, while she was going to church at Mount Tabor. The shot was instantly fatal. Wolf escaped and there is a reward of $1,000 for his capture.

Not many days ago, while M. Grant Silas Hart and D. Grant were out hunting for grouse, near Dallas, in Polk county, their dogs made a big bear run up a tree. It took six rifle shots to destroy him. He would not give up the ghost until after he had crippled one of Mr. Hart's fine bear dogs.

Martin Ferguson, said to have been the oldest man in Umatilla county, died recently at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Erb, on Wild Horse mountain. Mr. Ferguson would have been 94 years old the last of this month, had he lived. For the past six years he has been helpless from disease, and never left his mountain home. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Erb, and two sons, residing at Adams.

William Barr and Dunn Bros have bought the entire Seekamp estate, in Gilliam county, from Fred Seekamp, for $8250, paying $250 down and getting six months' time on the balance. They are to pay all debts against the estate and collect all that is due it. This is considered a good bargain, as the estate was appraised at $22,777 1/2, consisting of 9,000 sheep, 100 acres of land and notes and accounts.

Last Tuesday afternoon Martin Simons and a companion were felling trees at the Marshland logging camp, in Columbia county, under charge of R. D. Kent. One tree, in falling, crushed a limb upon the man's head.

Leather of All Kinds. Consisting of harness and line leather, top and belting leather, sole, kip and lace leather. One mile east of Waterloo, and one-half mile west of Shamrock sawmill.

DAVID AYERS, Will sell cheap for cash or approved notes.

which came down upon Simon, hitting him on the back of the neck and killing him instantly. Deceased was a son-in-law of J. D. Nelson, of Clatskanie. He left a wife, but no children.

The Barnhart sheep, between 7,000 and 8,000, are being sheared on the Baker ranch below Pendleton, on the Umatilla. Some very good wool is being handled to Pendleton from the shearing pens. Some of the J. E. Smith sheep are also being sheared at the same place. Shearers are receiving 5 cents per fleece this year, the same price paid a year ago. At this rate, the men are compelled to board themselves.

Henry Thompson and his brother, Clarence Thompson, from the Willamette valley, have been up to the headwaters of the Umatilla river hunting beaver. Last week they brought into camp two fine specimens. They came into Pendleton and Tuesday made preparations for another excursion, which will last till June 1. The snow lies on the mountains in that locality at a depth of about five feet, with a heavy crust, over which the hunters can travel with ease.

The Work of Inhuman Wretches. A man giving the name of Jerry C. Emmett was found in a shack in the end of Spokane Friday in a pitiful condition. He had lain in the shack three days without food or water, unable to move and too weak to call for help. He was found by a Mr. Johnson, who informed the police, and Coroner Newman and Lieutenant Lavery went out and brought him to the hospital. Emmett said he was brought down from the Couer d'Alene a few days ago through the kindness of the railroad boys. He had recently received an injury to his spine by a load of lumber falling on him, and when he got off the train at the crossing of the tracks east of town he was unable to walk. He managed to crawl to the shack, where he was found by Johnson, who happened to pass near the shack and heard him groaning. Emmett says that Thursday two men found him there and said they would bring him assistance. After dark they returned and robbed him of all the money he had, $28, with which he had expected to secure medical treatment. He begged the men to bring him a drink of water, but they told him they would see him in 4-1 first. Emmett is in a critical condition.

Billed Privately. The Prineville Review writes up a young man well known in Albany, in the following live manner: "Kid" Moore who has been 'visiting' here for the past two or three months, suddenly jumped the town on last Sunday morning's stage. If ever a brute needed a coat of tar and feathers it was this excuse for a human being. The evening previous to his departure he succeeded in getting $30 from an old gray headed woman of this place by working upon her feelings, stating that he was in destitute circumstances and a whole lot of other trash, even weeping like a babe to accomplish his end. This good old lady could not withstand his entreaties, little dreamed he was the rascal that he is, so she let him have $30 for a short time. His next act was to quit the town, and none too soon to please the citizens of this place. Such men as "Kid" Moore are a disgrace to the human race and the sooner people are acquainted with this morphia fiend the better off they will be. We warn all people to shun this sleek gentleman(?) as you would a viper.

A Clubbing Offer. A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the Express and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the Express $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2. per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the Express gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2. per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the Express must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

THE ALBERTA COUNTRY. A Letter From W. F. Deakins, Who Advises People to Stay at Home.

ALBANY, Or., April 24, 1896. EDITOR LEBANON EXPRESS: I have some brothers who live at Hallbroke, Alberta, Canada, and in a letter to me they say that several people from Linn county have written to them asking about the Alberta country. My brothers write me that there is no finer grass found anywhere and that the land is of the very best and millions of acres vacant and the laws are good, but they advise all who have money to stay away from there, for a moneyed man can find a more congenial climate to live in, and all who have no money, or but little, are advised to shun the Alberta as they would the Sahara desert, for they will surely stare to death if they don't.

Hundreds of people are going to leave the country when spring opens up. There is no work there, or but little, and the wages paid when there is work is from $5 to $8 and $10 per month. On the 14th of this April, winter was still on, cold, snowy and freezing weather. They say it will be a fine stock country for years to come, but as they are so far inland grain will not pay at present prices.

Respectfully Yours, W. F. DEAKINS. Change in Channel. The recent high waters have caused the Willamette river to cut a new channel nearly a mile long in the vicinity of the mouth of the McKenzie, says the Eugene Guard. This new channel is yet full of snags and has never been navigated. By reason of the change in the river the channel has been rendered unnavigable and the steamer Gypsy has not been here since last Saturday. At that time the water was high enough so the boat could make the run through Meek's slough. The river is now at a good stage, but owing to the lack of a snagboat to clean out the newly formed channel, boats are unable to get here.

In Darkness. The Dalles Times-Mountaineer says: Owing to the failure of the city council and the electric light company to agree upon a price for furnishing street lights, The Dalles has been in darkness since the first of the month. This is a condition to be deplored. After having enjoyed the luxury of street lights for a number of years the residents of the city do not desire to regress, and go back to the "dark age," as it were. The city cannot afford to pay the prices demanded by the company and these prices are the best that are liable to be offered.

Stayton Starch Factory. The search for a site for the proposed starch factory is occupying the attention of Messrs. Lee Brown, E. Shepard and H. Borchert, acting as a committee for the branch exchange. Two or three properties suitable for the buildings of the plant, situated within easy access of an abundant water power, have been looked over and discussed, but no further action as yet has been taken. The committee has asked for further time to decide the matter. The starch factory is a settled thing. We are going to have it. One member made a test and got about 12 pounds of starch from a bushel of potatoes. In taste and appearance it is equal to the best. Stayton can compete with the world in growing potatoes. The trust cannot down us in the open market. There is a ready market for starch at 40 per pound wholesale. We can pay 25 cents for potatoes and still leave a good margin.

What a Wild Out Did. Dr. Clara M. Davidson had a peculiar surgical case on hand yesterday. Mrs. J. W. Carr, living on South Commercial street, in this city, while eating some canned wild berries, swallowed a wild oat which had been allowed to remain in the fruit while it was being canned. She did not know what the foreign substance was, but was conscious that it had lodged in her throat causing her great pain and annoyance. Her efforts to dislodge it seemed only to make the matter worse. When she called at the doctor's office, the latter made an examination, which resulted in the discovery of the wild oat sticking in the tonsil, being deeply imbedded in that organ through the efforts to swallow it. The beard of the oat projected from the tonsil. Dr. Davidson finally removed the obnoxious substance, using a pair of artery forceps in the operation.

TENNESSEE HAPPENINGS.

BY CESAR. April 25, 1896.

Rev. L. D. Beck, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, from Seattle, formerly of Nashville, Tennessee, held a revival meeting here last week. He came to this place to preach to Tennesseans, he being a native of the state of Tennessee. He is one of the best preachers that Tennessee has ever listened to. Everyone regretted his departure.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McKnight, of Knox Botte, were at this place last week.

Charles Swink has taken the "bicycle fever." A bicycle was the only relief.

A petition is being circulated through the country to form this place into a separate road district. This will be a very good plan as there has never been a supervisor appointed from this place and therefore, there has not been as much work done on our road as there should have been. Most of the work having been done on the prairie where the work is least needed.

There is some talk of organizing a ball team at this place, both a first and second nine.

Will Go to England. Mr. Samuel Nixon returned from Albany yesterday where he had been to pay his taxes, and also get a ticket to New York. Mr. Nixon is administrator of the Martin Costello estate, valued at $34,000, and leaves for Manchester, England, tomorrow to see if he can find heirs named in the will who were bequeathed $10,000, and was last heard of at that place. Mr. Nixon has had the estate's affairs settled up for some time, and is making a last effort to find the missing heirs before their portion will have reverted to the state.

Since the above was in type we learn that Messrs. May & Douglas were the administrators of the estate and that Mr. Nixon is executor of Mrs. Costello's will, and since, the entire business was turned over to him.—Harrisburg Review.

The New Steamer "Albany." In the desire to meet the demands of the travelling public the O. C. & E. have placed on the Portland and Corvallis route their new and fast steamer, "Albany," elegantly furnished, including a new piano. The "Albany" makes the trip from Corvallis to Portland in 11 hours without layover in Salem. Leaves Corvallis down river Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at 7 A. M., Albany 8 A. M., Salem 11 A. M. and arrives in Portland at 6 P. M. Up river leaves Portland Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from Taylor street dock at 6 A. M., Salem 3 P. M., Albany 8:30 P. M. and arrives in Corvallis at 10:30 P. M. Fare from Corvallis or Albany to Portland $1.25; round trip $2.
