THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE

Is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated. You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in A1 condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder; but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

STATE AND COAST.

Clipped from our Exchanges Throughout the West.

Eugene has been economising and three arc lights have been cut off.

Wasco county's treasurer has cash on hand sufficient to liquidate $10,000 of county warrant indebtedness.

The O. R. & N. piledriver and bridge outfit, employed at Union for some time, has been moved to La Grande.

"Grandma" King, of Scio, is seriously ill, and fears are entertained that, owing to her advanced age, her illness may prove fatal.

Up to Tuesday night Sheriff Johnson had received in payment of taxes for Lane county, $95,828.39. This leaves about $32,000 delinquent.

A train of 15 cars of Eastern Oregon cattle was shipped from Arlington Monday, and one of 22 cars Tuesday. They go over the Union Pacific to Montana.

The Eugene Guard says the monthly output of the Lane county soap factory is about 3,000 pounds of laundry soap, besides a large amount of different brands of toilet soap.

At the city election in Corvallis last Monday, councilmen were elected as follows: First ward, Dr. C. H. Lee; second ward, A. W. Rose; third ward, Grefox, Woodward and Reed.

The rattlesnake road is reported to be in fine condition for travel, and the Sherman county farmers are making good use of it, bringing wheat to The Dalles and buying supplies there.

At a meeting of the board of directors of school district No. 5, Linn county, Professor Tyree was re-elected principal of the Albany public schools, at the increased salary of $1200 a year.

A few days ago W. O. Heckart completed plans for a church that the South Methodists are going to build near Monroe, in Benton county. The building will cost $900 and will be very neat.

W. H. Lewton, of Dexter, will erect within the next few weeks a sawmill on his place in Lane county. His property embraces a fine body of timber and he expects to be in the market next month.

The first number of the first volume of the Evening Republican, Colonel B. F. Alley's new paper, has been issued from Baker City. A typesetting machine is used in doing the composition, and the paper is attractive in appearance.

An old time "shiplaster" was presented at R. C. Craven's store in Moro, Sherman county, for 10 cents worth of tobacco. A relic-hunter took it up afterwards for an advance of 150 per cent. This "money" was in vogue in this country at the breaking out of the war.

The dwelling house of Charles St. Louis, a jeweler, was destroyed by fire at his farm on Rogue river last week. The fire originated during a high wind from a defective stovepipe. Mrs. St. Louis was alone at the time and saved little or nothing. There was no insurance.

The heavy rains have caused considerable trouble to the owner of the ferry across the McKenzie, three miles above Leaburg. Last week the guyropes broke and the boat drifted down stream about two miles. It required three days, with the help of men, horses and rowboats to get the boat back in position.

Word has been received, says the Blue Mountain Eagle, from the Kelly & Allen mine, up in Greenhorn, that T. J. Condon and one of the miners employed by Kelly & Allen have discovered some rich placer ground in the Robinson neighborhood, near the Kelly & Allen mine.

At the Virtue mine in Baker county, Tuesday, Samuel Row, foreman, was injured by a falling piece of rock while inspecting the winze near the 350-foot level. He was struck between the shoulder and hip, but his wound is such only as will confine him to his room for a brief time.

A young child of C. C. Hull, who lives about four miles west of Corvallis, was badly burned last Monday. Its clothing caught fire, and it was quite severely burned on the legs. At the last account it was not known for a certainty whether any of the flames were inhaled or not.

Frank Lowery had an adventure with a panther the other day at his place in Curry county. He had secured two deer and was about to return home, when his dog treed a panther. He had only two cartridges left, with which the animal was knocked from the tree but not killed. The dog tackled the panther, and was getting the worst of it, when Lowery drew his knife and took a hand in the fight. The animal was finally killed, but not before Lowery was scratched up and his clothes badly torn. The beast measured over eight feet in length.

Mrs. James Jack died in Linn county Tuesday of la grippe and rheumatism. She has been a widow 21 years. During these years she brought up her five children, the youngest of whom came to his majority last January. She lived four miles southeast of Halsey in her farm home, which she ran and kept free from mortgage.

William Abraham, residing four miles west of Albany, in Benton county, was attacked Tuesday by a vicious 3-year-old Jersey bull and jammed up against a barn in a brutal manner. Three ribs were broken, and he was otherwise badly bruised and injured internally. The bull had been dehorned but seems to have lost none of its madness.

The Grants Pass Courier says that the crippled bad man who has been visiting the towns to the north, struck Grants Pass last week and begged enough money to buy a bottle of rum, and then painted the town red. He made things red hot in Riddles during his brief stay there, and the people feared he would set the town on fire. He came a portion of the way up Cow creek by blind baggage.

The lazy editor of one of our exchanges says: "The lark was up to meet the sun, and caroled his lay; the farmer's son took down his gun and at him blazed away. The busy bee arose at 5 and buzzed the meadow o'er; the farmer's wife went for his hive and robbed him of his store. The busy ant roose early too, his labors to begin; the roosey swallow that way flew and took his lordship in. Oh, bees, and birds, and ants be wise, in proverbs take no stock; like me you should refuse to rise till half past eight o'clock."

Big Enterprise on the Bretonbush.

A mammoth saw-mill plant is in course of construction on the Bretonbush river, one mile north of the railroad bridge near Detroit and Berry station. The foundation is already completed 20x54 and 12 foot basement. The capacity of the mill will be 125,000 feet per day of 10 hours with circular and band saws of modern style with all patent edges, resaws, and in fact, a modern mill in every respect. They have a battery of four boilers 48-inch shell 18 feet with large steam chests with two engines and all appliances to make a first-class mill. They propose to do the logging with an engine to the pond and will ship from 10 to 20 car load lots. They propose to ship and dispose of their lumber by the cargo in San Francisco and other points, and have rates of freight that will enable them to do so at a profit. They are in the heart of one of the finest timber regions in the state and have begun with fifteen hundred acres of timber and more offered them at reasonable figures. The parties comprising the Enterprise Mill Company are Roe, Dikeman and Lee, all practical mill and lumber men, and we predict for them a large and paying enterprise as their name so eminently implies. They will be ready to start the circular in the next few days.—Herald.

Letter From a Republican

BROWNSVILLE, Or., May 19, 1896.

Editor Democrat:

I have noticed certain slanderous articles in a newspaper at Albany against Henry Blakely, democratic nominee for sheriff. I desire to say that I was residing in Eastern Oregon over 20 years ago at the time that it is claimed that Mr. Blakely was indicted. The indictment was falsely procured and the result was that Mr. Blakely was discharged as an innocent man. I am, and always have been a republican, but when I see a good man and a true citizen like Henry Blakely slandered as he has been in this campaign I think the voters of Linn county owe it to themselves and for the establishment of justice and right that he be elected sheriff. I have known Mr. Blakely for many years and never heard aught against his character as a man and citizen until the revival of this old indictment which everyone that knows anything about it at all knows Mr. Blakely was innocent. I know enough about him to know that if elected he will honestly and fearlessly do his duty as an officer.
D. G. McCLAREN,
A Republican.

IN SWIFT WATERS.

How Lumber is Rafted Down the Klamath River.

The manner of rafting lumber down the Klamath river at almost railroad speed, from the sawmill at Pokeyama to Honolulu, a distance of 20 miles, is about as exciting as shooting a chute. A raft of about 10,000 feet of lumber is fastened together to float like a barge, leaving the top about five feet above the water line. Four or five men with long poles manage the raft, and keep it from dashing against rocks or running into the bank at crooked turns from the speed attained. The current being very swift, with dangerous cataracts and whirlpools in many places, it requires energetic action on the part of the managers, who seem to have no serious difficulty until reaching Lime Gulch, below the mouth of Humbug creek, where the rafts sometimes strike dangerous rocks, to be broken to pieces, causing the men to swim ashore or save themselves the best way possible. The raft crew watch carefully to keep clear of blind rocks covered by water, on the swift journey, not only to save the lumber from being scattered, but also for their own safety, as it is difficult for the most expert swimmers to reach the shore at any section of the turbulent stream. Residents along the river watch these rafts with intense interest as they fly along the surface of the water, especially through the rapids or winding around crooked turns, fearing disastrous results. By this method a great quantity of lumber is supplied to miners for building water-wheels and wing and head dams at points where there are no wagon roads for hauling by team, or such poor roads as to make hauling very slow and tedious. The men who manage these rafts are experienced river loggers and know all the crooks, turns, eddies, rocks, bars and rapids, hence keep their floats in proper position to shoot through the dangerous places with safety, showing great skill also in landing at points where the cargoes are desired.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the EXPRESS $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2. per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the EXPRESS gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2. per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the EXPRESS must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

A Campaign Falsehood Nailed.

BROWNSVILLE, May 14, 1896.

Editor Democrat:
We, the undersigned have been well acquainted with Henry Blakely, now before the voters of Linn county for sheriff, ever since a small boy, and never knew of him being drunk, notwithstanding what the Daily Herald of May 9th says.

WATERLOO TRUTH.

BY M'GINTY'S GHOST.

Rev. E. E. McVicker went to Hillsboro Tuesday.

Roads are drying up and we are glad as the freighters can drive along without stopping to get a fence stake to sound the mud holes for bottom.

Two republican candidates spoke at Waterloo Monday night. After their arrival, no cigars being handed out, a messenger was dispatched to learn the cause. He returned saying the judge did not smoke. Then a box was opened in honor of S. M. Garland, the democratic nominee for judge, and the way they disappeared was a caution. The messenger was seen to slip one into his pocket. As he did not light it, one old man had the cheek to accuse him of slipping a Garland cigar for the Republican judge.

The long looked for game between Sodaville and Waterloo was played Saturday. Eight innings were played and at the close of the game the score stood Waterloo 16, Sodaville 7. It was an exciting game and there were some good plays.

[Our correspondent has prepared a poem on the ball game, but we omit it owing to lack of space.—Ed.]

Judges and Clerks of Election.

The judges and clerks in part of the various precincts of Linn county are as follows, the first three named being judges and the other two clerks, and first named being chairman:

North Lebanon—Ed Meyers, J. N. Crandall, S. O. Long, Frank Skipworth, Geo. Ross, Jr.

South Lebanon—C. W. Stokes, D. F. Blodgett, G. W. Cruson, R. B. Montague, W. M. Brown.

Center—I. Wheelton, H. R. Powell, W. P. Anderson, D. B. McKnight, C. E. Scott.

Sodaville—W. H. Ingram, A. P. Flory, Peter Lewis, W. E. Parrish, F. G. Burkhardt.

Waterloo—E. Cather, J. C. Hutton, Thos. Rice, C. H. Whitney, M. Lindley. Sweet Home—Benson Howe, W. H. Cooper, F. Barr, W. M. Scott, A. J. McClure.

Foster—T. N. Humphreys, Erastus B. Williams, C. H. Foster, O. J. Meally, John Thompson.

Santiam—G. M. Nelson, Wm. Young, J. C. Hardin, John Griggs, Frank Crabtree.

The last legislature simplified the method of voting under the Australian ballot law. Instead of erasing all the names on the ticket except the one voted for, the voter simply places an X in the space between the number and the name of the candidate voted for. For convenience we give an illustration:

For SHERIFF— Vote for ONE

45. X Henry Blakely Democratic

46. J. R. Cochran Prohibition

47. M. C. Gaines People's

48. J. A. McFeron Republican

The name marked with an X is the candidate voted for, and all others are left blank.

The Woolen Mill.

At the woolen mill the work is going rapidly on. Another carload of machinery arrived yesterday morning and was unloaded during the day. This makes nine carloads that have been received up to date, making a total shipping weight of over 108 tons. One more carload is on the way and will be here some time during the latter part of next week. The contractors have nearly finished painting the roof on the new structure, and with the building completed, the machinery in place and a ready market at home and abroad waiting for the product of the mills it should not be very long until the busy times that Salem people have missed since November last, will be seen again and the humming of this great enterprise be once more sweet music in the ears of the citizens.—Salem Statesman.

Straw hats! straw hats! from 5 to 50c at the Racket Store. Lace curtains 70 cts., $1, and $1.25 per pair. Eight species of belt thread for $10; 3 for $100.
