A dispatch from Portland dated June 2 says as far as the count has proceeded in that city the indications are that Ex-Governor Penneyer is elected mayor. Sheriff Sears is defeated by Frazier. The race is very close between Geo. E. Chamberlain and Alfred Sears, Jr., for circuit judge. Lord is elected prosecuting attorney, Moore clerk of the court and Hoyt treasurer. Armstrong superintendent and Greenleaf succeeded himself as assessor. In the race for mayor Beebe was second and Cohen third. The majority of the Mitchell republican legislative ticket was elected. Returns are not in enough to prognosticate the complexion of the legislature, but some are forecasting enough of a populist control to send Sylvester Penneyer to the United States senate.
