The McMinnville Transcript says of the new principal of the Lebanon schools, Prof. L. H. Baker will have charge of the schools at Lebanon, Linn county, the coming school year. Lebanon is to be congratulated upon securing the services of so proficient an instructor as Prof. Baker. We have known him for the past twenty-four years; during which time he has always ranked as an able scholar and his capabilities for handling any school have never been questioned. We are sorry to lose him from Yamhill, however.

Coming to Oregon.

Last week Mr. David Myers closed a sale of 200 acres of his old home farm three miles east of Scio, to an Ohio man, whose name is withheld at this time by request. Consideration $5,000. The buyer states that there will be five or six more families from his locality emigrate to this state and will probably buy farms in this locality, on the strength of his purchase. They are all good citizens and will make valuable acquisitions to our community.—Scio Press.

Residence Burned.

On Tuesday the farm residence and all of its contents, belonging to and occupied by B. F. Darby, northwest of Scio, says the Scio Press, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Darby was absent at the time and no one was at home save the children, who, not having the judgment of older persons, failed to save any of the household goods. There was no insurance on the building.

Obituary.

Geo F. Wheeler was born in Scio, Oregon, May 17, 1856, died in Lebanon, Oregon, June 28, 1896. Age, 40 years 1 month and 11 days. He with his parents moved to Lebanon in 1890. Soon after coming to Lebanon he professed faith in Christ, and joined the M. E. church. For over 20 years he has been a constant sufferer. For several months his suffering has been intense, but he endured them with a Christian fortitude. The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church by the pastor. After which his remains were taken to the Masonic cemetery and laid to rest until the resurrection morn.

Then let our sorrows cease to flow, God has recalled his own; We would not bid our love 1 one come From his eternal home. Then when our race like his is run, We hope to meet again; Where God, the everlasting Son, And where there is no pain.
