PURELY VEGETABLE.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World.
AN EFFECTUAL SPECIFIC for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.
SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
 Regulates the Liver and prevents CHILLS AND FEVERS, MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COMPLAINTS, RHEUMATISM, JAUNDICE AND NAUSEA.

BAD BREATH!
 Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. Do not neglect to secure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

PILES!
 How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure, owing to the secret suffering from piles. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost anyone who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION
 SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the strict regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat and sleep, and no health can be expected where a costive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE!
 This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as SICK HEADACHE; for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

STATE AND COAST.

Clipped from our Exchanges Throughout the West.

Several of the farmers around Coquille are of the opinion that the recent hot weather has killed the grain aphid. Constable Dan Linton arrested Delwood Taylor, at Elk Prairie, in Lane county, Wednesday, for killing deer out of season.

Wednesday 10 tons of salmon were hauled at the Herrick cannery, at The Dalles, and 365 cases were put up. Thursday about five tons were received.

The Oregon Press Association will hold its annual meeting in Portland about September 1. An interesting programme is already prepared.

Wool from Wallowa county is arriving at Elgin at the rate of 240 bales a day, and the warehouse is being well filled. Buyers are on the ground, but few sales are being made.

H. P. Hayes, the Fall Creek school teacher, who was sent to the penitentiary for one year from Lane county, on the charge of seduction, has been pardoned out, and is now at Junction.

Clarence F. Jewett, secretary of the Pacific Investment Company, has skipped from Portland. His shortage to banks and other creditors is $20,000. He stood high in social and business life.

Frank Spaight was arrested at Albany, Friday, on a charge of stealing $100 worth of wool from May & Sanders, of Harrisburg. He was examined and lodged in jail in default of $300 bonds, to await the action of the grand jury.

Samuel G. Wortman had just returned from a day's work in the bay field, near Mouthout, last Monday, when he suddenly threw up his hands and fell, dying almost immediately. The attending physician said death was caused by heart disease.

The Roseburg Painter says: "It is said misery loves company. The editor of the Painter has been indicted by the grand jury for the publication of libelous matter. It is somewhat consoling, however, to know that in our distress both of the proprietors of the Review have also been indicted for a like offense, viz: slandering D. R. Shambrook and James Batty during the campaign."

Lee Moorhouse has been appointed clerk of the supreme court, at Pendleton, succeeding Henry J. Bean, who resigned to take the office to which he was elected, that of district attorney for the sixth judicial district. Heretofore, the position of clerk has been held by attorneys, the last three incumbents being Mr. Bean, Judge J. A. Lowell, then a practicing attorney, and T. G. Hailey.

Last Wednesday the men at the Coburg mill commenced banking 4,000,000 feet of logs up the McKenzie. It will require about 10 days to complete the banking and then it will take about 16 days more to make the run down to the mill. The owner of the mill has, on the Mohawk, about 500,000 feet which will be brought down as soon as the stage of water will permit.

Mayer Cohen, of San Francisco, and Miss Hinda Greenburg were to be married in San Jose a few days ago. When the wedding hour arrived Cohen failed to appear, and a sensation was the result. Where was Mayer? It was conjectured that he might have committed suicide; but he had not. He had skipped for Oregon's congenial clime, and Friday evening gave himself up in Salem.

The family of John Heilman, residing near Damascus in Multnomah county, was poisoned last week by strychnine being placed in the well. The father, mother and four children partook of the poison, but under the care of a physician all were growing better except one boy, a lad of twelve years, who, at last accounts was dying. No cause can be assigned for the despicable deed.

The 15-year old girl of John Hammer and two other girls, were crossing the O. C. & E. bridge, at Albany, Thursday, when the Hammer girl became dizzy when near the edge of the bridge and fell through the trestle to the ground below, a distance of about 20 feet. She fell feet first, striking upright, but falling in a heap. One of her arms was broken, and she was badly injured. It is not yet known whether there were any internal injuries, but it is thought not. It is a great wonder she was not killed.

All men were not made of dust. Dust settles sometimes, and there are lots of men who never do. When a woman makes up her mind to marry a man, there is no escape for him except to marry some other woman. The law cannot be too severe on doctors who advertise medicine to improve the appetite. It is hard enough these times for a man to satisfy the appetite he has, much less a greater one.

A forest fire has been raging in the vicinity of Detroit, caused by a settler carelessly setting fire to some brush he wished to dispose of. It is thought that, unless checked by rain, hundreds of acres of fine timber will be destroyed in consequence. A strict enforcement of the law might cause settlers and others to be more careful in the future about putting out fire, in a dry place, says the Solo Press.

Word has come down from upper Evans Creek district of a rich strike on the Umpqua divide, near the head of Salt Creek, a tributary of Evans Creek. Charles Raymond and R. S. Radford, two enterprising young miners of Southern Oregon, have discovered a large porphyry reef which shows up rich in free gold, and which, to all reports, will run up from $200 to $500 a ton. The parties claim to be getting from 25 cents to 75 cents a mortar. Considerable excitement prevails in the district.

The Immigration rooms in Albany are becoming quite a museum, and are attracting considerable attention. In one window is a collection of Indian relics, skulls, etc. A jawbone is so enormous that it will go outside the jawbone of an average man. Mortars, arrow heads, stone implements, etc., are displayed. One skull was found in Albany by a man while digging in a garden a year or two ago. A collection of birds' eggs was made by an Albany boy, who robbed nests around the city.

The New County Officers.

The new county officers took their seats yesterday. Col. C. B. Montague is now installed as Linn county's clerk, with his son R. B. Montague as his deputy. Mr. Needham, the retiring clerk, will remain in the office a few weeks. In the sheriff's office Mr. Coley Gains has assumed charge with Mr. A. Luelling as deputy. Judge Barton is looking after probate matters and county bridges, and Mr. Richmond Wheeler is getting acquainted with the teachers and the minutia of the school superintendent's office. Mr. B. A. Stafford will not assume the duties of the assessors office until January. He expects to retain his residence in Halsey. The coroner, Mr. C. F. Wright will, it is understood, also retain his residence at Harrisburg. County Recorder D. F. Hardman, Treasurer P. G. Morris and Surveyor E. T. T. Fisher, the three county officers who were fortunate enough to be re-elected, are serenely attending to business as usual.—Herald

A Fearful Act.

Wednesday a tragic cutting affair took place at Lake Labish, north of Salem. It seems F. J. Beatty had employed Wm. McCormack to dig a well for him, and not being satisfied with the way the work was done, went after McCormack, who was working at a neighbors to do it over. McCormack agreed to do so but wanted to finish some work upon which he was then engaged before doing so. To this Beatty objected and the dispute becoming heated Beatty drew a knife and cut McCormack across the abdomen, making a gash 18 inches long, stabbed him in the left breast and also in the face. McCormack, who has a wife, was taken to the hospital in Salem and will likely recover, though fearfully wounded.—Herald

After the Millers.

Some time since the farmers in the vicinity of Harrisburg met and proceeded to take action against the flouring mills that have entered a combine to reduce the amount of flour given for a bushel from 40 pounds to 34 pounds, and to ascertain and offer patronage to those mills which had not entered the combine. More recently the farmers of Lane county met in Eugene for the same purpose and adopted strong resolutions on the subject, and appointed a committee of prominent citizens to look up the matter. They seem to be in decided earnest in the matter.—Herald

Death of Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Clyde Hill died at her home in The Dalles last night, after an illness of only a few days. She leaves a husband and baby. Mrs. Hill was a young woman of excellent character, whose death will be generally regretted by her friends in Albany. The bereaved husband will have the sympathy of all in his loss.

TENNESSEE HAPPENINGS.

BY CESAR.
 The young folks of this place were all at Waterloo on the Fourth.

Miss Daisy Wood of this place and Mr. L. N. Warnock, of Wallowa county, Or., were married in Albany last Saturday, July 4. They left immediately for Eastern Oregon.

Tennessee vs Lebanon. On the diamond at this place the Lebanon and Tennessee base ball clubs crossed bats and made a very interesting game for those that looked on. The game was exciting all through and at the close of nine innings the score stood Tennessee 10, Lebanon 9. They will meet here again next Sunday.

As a result of the labors of the young folks here, a fine organ is the property of this district. The way in which so much money was collected together for the organ is astonishing for such a small neighborhood. April 11th from the basket social was realized $11.25; from the masquerade social $10.95; from the candy stand $14.50; from subscriptions $1.30; making a total of $47.10 which was paid down and the rest will be paid soon, ($22).

Rev. Baltimore preached at the school house last Sunday.

James Blacklaw has been working at Mr. Wileys saw mill for the past month. He was at home on the Fourth.

The Ten Virgins.

Wednesday evening the Salvation army was out in full force. There were ten women dressed in white, carrying lanterns, in representation of the "Ten Virgins." It may be of interest to some to know that in Christ's time ten virgins, five of whom were wise and five foolish, took their lanterns and awaited the coming of the "Bridegroom." The wise virgins had oil in their lamps, and they were trimmed and burning, while the lamps of the foolish maidens lacked oil and consequently did not burn. The common interpretation of this passage of the Bible is that the bridegroom was Christ, while the virgins were the churches, so to speak. The bridegroom tarried and the intervens were devoted to sleep by the virgins. After a time the cry of "Behold the bridegroom cometh," was raised; then there was a commotion among the girls to prepare their lamps, and those who had no oil, and were consequently foolish, tried to beg some of the wise virgins. Failing in this, they went to buy some and in the meantime the bridegroom appeared and the wise ones were ushered in (presumably in Heaven) and the door locked. When the foolish virgins had prepared their lamps and knocked at the door, begging admittance, Christ exclaimed, "Verily I say unto you, I know you not. The women of Corvallis and vicinity who represented the "Ten Virgins" may compliment themselves that they made a good street appearance in their white garbs, but will they agree on which five of them are to be denied entrance to Heaven? Here comes the "sticker"—the foolish virgins whose lamps were not burning failed to gain admittance to the Kingdom of Heaven.—Corvallis Times.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the EXPRESS $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2. per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the EXPRESS gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2. per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the EXPRESS must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

New subscriptions for the Weekly Oregonian taken at this office.

Passed Away.

At the family residence near the Calapooia bridge, from blood poisoning, on Friday, July 3, 1896, Mrs. E. L. Gilbert, after a short illness. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Briggs, and was but a few days over 20 years of age, being born in Albany, May 4, 1876. She was a bright and most esteemed young lady, of most excellent character, and a graduate of Albany public schools in 1892. Her death will be greatly lamented. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. W. R. Graham on Sunday at 2 P. M.—Herald.
