STATE AND COAST.

Clipped from our Exchanges Throughout the West.

A kiln of 150,000 brick is ready to be burned in La Grande.

Ground squirrels are becoming so numerous in Curry county that in several places the gardens are being badly damaged.

Harney county is said to have invested $25,000 in bicycles this year—$5000 in cash and the balance on the installment plan.

The four fingers and thumb of Peter Anderson's right hand were cut off by a saw in Watson & Luhr's planing mill in Pendleton, Tuesday.

The run of 24 tons of ore from the Tom Paine mine in the Rachael mill, in Baber City, was finished yesterday, and a clean-up resulted in a yield of $814.49.

The Marshfield Sun says that Receiver Hutcheson has received orders from the court to sell the five-stamp mill at the Divilbles mine, and will soon post notices of the sale.

Joseph Daffron, who was stabbed by a Chinaman at The Dalles the other day, is having a serious time and is recovering slowly. His physician recently discovered an internal wound after the wound had healed outwardly.

George Riddle, of Baker City, went fishing and tied his buggy horse on a sidehill. When he came back the horse had slipped and rolled down the hill in such a way that the halter around his neck had checked him to death.

Judge Hanna overruled all demurrers in the Hammerly lien cases, and set them for trial at the September term of court in Josephine county. Jones & Otter have settled some of the preferred liens, and can continue to work the mine.

The Lafayette Journal has succeeded to the stress of the times and suspended publication. Editor Derby has decided that there is more honor than cash in running a paper. He will continue to operate his job printing office at that place.

The Roseburg Daily Plaindealer suspended publication last Saturday, after an existence of one year, one month and fifteen days. There was not enough money in the venture to justify its continuance. The publishers will, however, continue to issue the twice-a-week Plaindealer.

Jerry Collins came near sharing the fate of Abalom last week, while out horseback-riding over the hills after sheep in Curry county. He was riding along at dusk, and in passing through a clump of brush in a hurry, a forked limb caught him just under the chin. He was unhorsed and left hanging by the neck, from which predicament he was rescued by A. Roberts, who was along with him.

Judge Burt died at Toledo last Monday, and already there is a scramble for the position thus made vacant. Six months ago a petition was presented Governor Lord for the appointment of a successor before Judge Burt's death, and he was appointed before it was known Judge Burt was alive. This was all the result of a joke on J. O. Stearns, the applicant. Now, several others want the job.

Archie Mason, a Salem contractor, finds that men who desire work are scarce. Tuesday he made an offer of $125 per day to a fellow who has several times during the current season approached him for a job, but it was declined with that "it was not enough wages." Mr. Mason wanted additional help in making the extended improvements to the Salem Consolidated street railway track.

The Dalles Fishing Company will ship a lot of salmon from the lower river, where they cannot be cared for, to its cannery at The Dalles. The fish won't swim up to The Dalles, he will send them up by express. A lot of fish were shipped from the Lower Cascades down the river a short time ago. Now the canneries at the Cascades are nearly idle, and could take back as many as they sent down.

Last week the 5-year-old daughter of William Osborn, who lives two miles east of Seio, was severely scalded. She is practically a cripple, and was attempting to crawl up some steps upon which had been placed a bucket of scalding water. She grasped hold of the bucket to assist her in mounting the steps and the bucket was overturned, badly scalding her neck and shoulders.

In 1872 the Albany College was presented with 800 acres of land at the foot of Mary's peak by the wagon road company having the grant of a strip to the bay. No attention had been paid to it until Wednesday when Vice-President Howland and Director J. P. Galbraith paid it a visit. They found the land there, also a man on 100 acres of it, having homesteaded it several years ago. The land is not of any great value.

The dead body of a man was found on Wolf creek, near the railroad station last week. The coroner found that the deceased was a stranger and had evidently fallen off a moving train the night before. The skull was badly fractured by the fall. The man was about medium built, about 35 years of age, and from a letter in his possession addressed to "Stephen Kitchen" it was thought that was his name. No valuables whatever were found on his person. He was buried near by at the expense of the county.

A new specialty company has been organizing in Eugene, for some time, and is soon to be launched upon the theatrical world, says the Guard. The troupe consists of the Cotton children and their mother, who have been spending the summer in Eugene, strengthened by A. Dillard, who will accompany them as musician; Fred Mummy, who will have comedy and basso profundo, and Ralph Brunley, who will also have comedy. George Gill will join the troupe later as manager. The company makes its first appearance at Roseburg.

Robert Lineberger has told the Malheur Gazette of a monster rattlesnake that was killed by his wife at their ranch near Vale last month. One of the children discovered it in the sagebrush near the house, and, their being no men folks on the place, Mrs. Lineberger very courageously made the attack single-handed. Sorrowing all her courage and a little pitchfork, she made an onslaught upon the formidable reptile, breaking the pitchfork handle the first blow she dealt him. Then, with the remaining portion of the handle, she completed the killing. The snake was as large around and as long as a fence post, and had a large number of rattles.

Killed a Black Bear.

For a long time past the sheep owners residing in King's Valley have been greatly troubled from a black bear. Every known trick was resorted to in order that bruin might be destroyed, but all attempts at capture availed nothing until last Thursday. George Neithamer, a son-in-law of Woods Jackson, concluded he would try his hand and see if he could locate his bearship, so, armed with a rifle and followed by a couple of terrier dogs, Mr. Neithamer took to the woods. Ere long the dogs were on the track of the bear, and after a season of running, followed by a little more nipping of heels than the bear could stand, bruin took to a tree. The bear was shot and proved to be a very large one, weighing 400 pounds. The neighbors of Mr. Neithamer were so elated over the destruction of the bear that they each and all presented the hunter with a sheep apron, and he is now possessed of about 14 head. Sometimes it pays to kill bear.—Corvallis Times.

A Very Economical County.

It is Benton and hereafter all officials must pay their own deputy hire. The county court at its recent session determined not to make an allowance for regular deputy hire, but to allow the clerk two dollars a day for one deputy for each day that the circuit and commissioners court be in session, and to also allow said clerk two dollars per day for each deputy in making up the tax and delinquent rolls, and to allow the sheriff $250 per day for two deputies while the jury is in attendance on the circuit court. This will be hard on the sheriff and clerk as they cannot do the work alone. The Times has investigated the matter of deputies for sheriffs in the different counties with the following result: Baker and Union each one at $1200 and one at $900; Wasco and Grant each one at $1200; Douglas, Malheur and Morrow each one at $1000; Clatsop one at $1200, one at $900; Jackson one at $1500; Harney one at $900; Linn, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Yamhill, each one at $750 and one at $900; Marion two for $3500; Washington one at $500, Multnomah $3 at $74 to $180. Nearly all of them extra deputies as required.—Corvallis Times.

The Salem-Mehama Motor.

Linn county people will watch with interest the efforts of the laboring men of Salem to build a motor line to the Santiam country at a time when it is a difficult thing to inaugurate extensive movements. The Journal says: The work of soliciting subscriptions for the motor railway, the construction of which is contemplated by the Salem Labor Exchange, is moving along nicely, with most satisfactory results to those at the head of the movement. Meetings have been held throughout the valley this past week, and liberal contributions have been received from the different valley towns. The Exchange has been assured pledges of labor and material sufficient to complete the road to Mehama within ninety days, after work commences. Work begins when arrangements can be made whereby iron material necessary for the construction of the road, can be provided for. Salem people will be expected to subscribe for this part of the material, for the road, and we should do all we can to promote such a valuable enterprise. With Salem the central market for all products of the Waldo hills and the Santiam country, times will be improved not a little. At Stayton last evening nearly $1000 in labor, material, cattle, etc., was subscribed, besides grain and other horse feed.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the Express and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the Express $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2. per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the Express gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2. per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the Express must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

The Game Law.

Here is Oregon's game law in a nut shell. Past it in your hat: Game and fish can be killed during the following seasons: Grouse, Mongolian pheasant and quail, September 1 to December 1. Prairie chickens, July 1 to October 1. Wild ducks and water fowls from September 1 to March 15. Deer, Mountain sheep, etc., August 1 to December 1. Killing for hides or part of carcass only is prohibited. Killing spotted fawn is prohibited. East of Cascades it is unlawful to kill at any time, Chinese pheasants, quail or Bob White. Trout, April 1 to November 1. Salmon, December 15 to November 1. Explosives to kill fish, nets, seines, obstructions to free passage of fish, etc., prohibited.
