There's no clay, flour, starch or other worthless filling in Hoe Cake and no free alkali to burn the hands.

Mrs. Ambler and Mr. Alexander and family have moved into the Courtney residence, formerly occupied by Mrs. Warner.

There's more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear as the free alkali rots them. Hoe Cake is pure, and only 5 cents.

We return many thanks to Mr. J. G. Reed for a fine watermelon presented to this office this week. Mr. Reed is now supplying the market with his fine melons.

Rev. Harmon will hold a basket meeting at the Tennessee school house next Sunday. Preaching at 11 and 2 o'clock. All are invited.

J. F. Dell came down from the mountain house Monday. He reports that fire has been very bad in the mountains above the mountain house, and some families had very narrow escapes, and as it was some were badly burned. The fire is now all out.

The city is now without any representative of the Salvation Army in its midst. There is no urgent need for any of them at this time. In case we should find in need of their presence, we will get one earlier.

At the request of S. P. Etkowski, guardian of the Kees fund for the Sabbath Academy, the county court has accepted his resignation and has appointed D. Andrews to take charge of the fund.

All the churches of Lebanon will join in a union service next Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Subject for discussion: "The Enemies of Young People." C. R. LAMAR, Sec. Pastor's Association.

In order to obtain United States Patents you must show an invention not already in use, and entirely different from others. Such is Hoe Cake Soap. The only patented laundry soap in the market. The wrappers are worth a cent apiece, save them.

Mrs. M. M. Isham, a pioneer lady died in Harrisburg yesterday. Her death was sudden, as she had always enjoyed the best of health. Mrs. Isham was a most estimable lady, and well and favorably known. She leaves four children to mourn her death.

The next public holiday in Oregon, as provided by an act of the legislature of 1893, is Labor day—the first Monday in September. It is a non-judicial day. Outside of the county and state departments the day will not be generally observed.

Kareful, considerate consumers considering considerably concerning clothes-kleaving chemical compounds. Beware, but the idea we wish to convey is that those who use Soap Foam washing powder find it does not make the hands sore, nor "yellow the clothes." It is unequalled for the (Sunday) Kitchen or Bath.

Wm. Royce left this morning for Portland where he goes on business.

O. G. Beeler and wife, of Cathlamet, are visiting B. M. Donaca and family.

The finest line of dress patterns in the city is to be found at the Racket store.

Bring the children now. You can get a dozen fine cabinet photos for only $2 for 30 days at Boyd's.

Mrs. J. B. Anderson, who has been visiting relatives here returned to her home in California Friday.

Mr. McCulley's little girl, while playing with some of her little friends in Lebanon yesterday, fell and broke her arm, the bone projecting through the skin. Dr. Foley was called and reduced the fracture.

Elder J. Shea, of Foster, passed through Lebanon Monday on his way to Albany. The Elder informs us that Hans Wadell, late of Wisconsin, is buying up all the land, lots, etc. including the flouring and saw mills, around Foster. He says Wadell expects to bring out a colony from Wisconsin and locate them up there. He also says that Wadell has plenty of money and pays cash for all he buys.

The EXPRESS is informed that Sweet Home has again come to the front with some more sensational news. This time one of the merchants of that place home whipped a woman. We are informed the merchant presented a bill to the woman, and a racket started over the account, in which the woman called the merchant a liar with several oaths added, when said merchant took a horse whip and commenced. At last accounts no arrests had been made.

Messrs. N. S. and Jas. Dagleish received the sad news this week that their mother, Mrs. A. Dagleish, died very suddenly at her home in Langley, B. C., last Saturday Aug. 22. Mrs. Dagleish had a paralytic stroke about 3 years ago, since which time she has never been well, but at the time of her death she did not seem to feel any worse but peacefully and quietly passed away. She was 65 years of age. Messrs. Dagleish have the sympathy of a host friends of this place.

Mrs. H. Nixon, wife Jos. Nixon, deceased, died at her home in this city this morning of lung trouble, at the age of 70 years. Mrs. Nixon was well known all over the county and her husband having crossed the plains and located in this county in 1852, and have lived here continuously ever since. She leaves five children—two daughters and three sons—to mourn her departure. Rev. Harmon will conduct the funeral service at their residence tomorrow at 9 o'clock and they expect to leave the house at 10 o'clock and take the remains to Albany for burial.

Mrs. Ed. O'Neil, who has been visiting in Lebanon for the past two months, left Monday for her home in California. Mrs. Johnny O'Neil, her daughter-in-law, accompanied her home.

Rev. T. P. Boyd, of Portland, formerly of Lebanon, a few days ago saved the lives of three girls at Gearhardt Park, who would have been drowned but for his timely aid. The life line broke leaving them to the mercy of the waves.

On Wednesday a representative of the EXPRESS took a straw vote for president of the business men of this city, including merchants, doctors, lawyers, blacksmiths, etc. We were not out but about an hour and did not see quite all, but those we saw stood 32 for Bryan and 28 for McKinley. While making the rounds we also took a vote of what farmers and laborers we met, which stood 54 for Bryan and 28 for McKinley. The business men of the city are nearly equally divided while the farmers and laborers were nearly two to one for Bryan.

The Democrat is informed that the bridge at Waterloo owned and kept up by the county, is used in an abusive way by the public. There are now 100 officers at Waterloo and horse-men are reported to run their steeds at full speed across the structure, particularly at night. Such a practice can only result in damage to the bridge and a big cost to tax payers. The Democrat is informed that it was a criminal offense for the officials of Waterloo to resign and leave the city without any officers. If so the proper persons should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. If our state laws are to permit the establishment of full fledged cities of a few hundred inhabitants, the people should be made to keep up the machinery of the municipality or pay the penalty.—Albany Democrat.

Fusion in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—The conference between the democratic state committee and the populist representatives today resulted in a plain fusion whereby but one electoral ticket will be in the field. The democrats yielded to the populists to put up electors who would support Bryan and Watson. The populists passed strong resolutions criticizing ex-Governor Pennoyer and demanding that the electors support Watson instead of Sewall for vice president. To carry out this plan all the democratic electors withdrew. Two of the populist electors were left on the ticket, and E. Hofer, of Salem, a free silver republican, and N. L. Butler of Polk county, a free silver democrat, were nominated to complete the electoral ballot.
