The Junction City creamery is now turning out butter.

Tom Reed refused to stop at Salem. Didn't have time.

Keeler H. Gabbert has started the Avalanche Journal at Canyonville.

The tax levy for this year will be between 12 and 13 mills in Clatsop county.

Grant county paid $1600 89 during the last six months to keep those who were unfortunate and could not keep themselves.

A McMinnville young man made a wager with his grandmother of two new dresses against a new hat that the republicans would win the election. The outcome makes grandma very sad.

It is said that the Oregon state fair was unable to pay premiums in full this year except in one or two departments. The fair was favored with good weather, but the attendance was very small.

The U. of O. foot ball team has received a challenge from the Iowa University foot ball team, which is making a tour of the west and will probably be accepted. The Iowans will also play Multnomah and the O. A. C.

A man, who was walking in his sleep, fell from a third story window of the Central hotel, in Astoria, last week. He struck on an awning fifteen feet below, but besides disturbing his sleep, the fall had no effect upon him.

Portland Dispatch: The election last Tuesday was strictly fair and honest in this city. Mayor Penoyer deserves the thanks of all good people for making Portland respectable on election day, and wiping out the stains of fraud and disorder left by his predecessors.

T. J. Newman, who was traveling through Eastern Oregon in the early part of 1895, organizing camps of the Pacific Jurisdiction of the Royal Endeavor, has sued the East Oregonian, A. D. Stillman, G. R. Lash and J. P. Walker, for $7000 damages, for an alleged slander.

A number of quail and Denny pheasants have been turned loose on the John Day river and Canyon creek, in Grant county. As the law strictly forbids their destruction in the counties of Eastern Oregon, it is presumed these birds will be given a chance to multiply and stock the valley.

The second trial of Theodore Cushing for the killing of Thomas King will be commenced in the criminal department of the superior court, in Spokane, this week. By order of Judge Buck, a jury of 24 was drawn from the 500 freeholders, whose names were placed in the box by the county commissioners.

I. D. Applegate's old home place at Swan lake, Elkhorn county, was destroyed by fire one night last week. The parties staying there were aroused by the explosion of cartridges in an adjoining room. The flames were under such headway that all efforts to extinguish them were futile. But little of the contents were saved.

The city council chamber, in Gervais, came near being destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening of last week, while the election board was in session, counting the vote of Gervais precinct. The stovepipe became disjunct in the second story and set the ceiling on fire. It did no damage but gave a bad scare. The counting continued.

A little babe in the home of Ed. B. Horning, in Corvallis, begins its trip through the world with but one hand. The child, a wee girl, but a week old. It is the left hand that is gone, and the arm from the elbow down is missing. The cause is a freak of birth, and the source of the circumstance is that never having had the hand is better than to lose it, says the philosopher of the Times.

Outside sheep have all left the Greenhorn mountains, and most of them are safely in their winter range, says the Long Creek Eagle. Many lands respected the rights of residents of this county and kept a reasonable distance away, while some followed an established precedent of herding up to the rancher's fences, and if the rancher happened to be absent, would allow their band to go inside and destroy his crop.

George Parks was arrested in Eugene last Thursday for trying to pick the pocket of Dick Reeves. Reeves and another were discussing a horse trade. Parks was present, and was standing near Reeves. The other man stepped away to untie one of the horses, and, while doing so, Parks slipped his hand into Reeves' pocket. The latter detected Parks' movement and seized him with both hands. In the scuffle that ensued, Reeves' money was scattered around on the ground, but none of it was gotten by Parks, who made his escape, but was afterward caught.

A resident of Coos river, who is interested in the fishing industry, informs the Coos Bay Mail that great numbers of salmon are wantonly killed every fall in Daniels creek, and, in fact, in nearly all the creeks which empty into the main river. The salmon go up those creeks to spawn, where they prove an easy prey to boys, who kill them with clubs or throw them on banks with pitchforks, just out of pure "cussedness," as the fish are unfit for food. Everybody on the bay is more or less interested in the fishing industry, which annually puts a large sum of money in circulation, and steps should be taken to see that the law is enforced, and that the salmon are protected during the close season.

Extra Session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—An extra session following immediately the inauguration of Mr. McKinley is, in the prevailing opinion, certain. No one professes to have word from Mr. McKinley direct on the subject, but there is good authority for saying that an extra session is on the republican program.

Senator Quay believes an extra session is certain. That is what he had in mind last Saturday when he said: "We shall have a new tariff bill within eight months after McKinley's inauguration."

Senator Quay has the habit of speaking by the card, and to get a new tariff bill passed by that time would require the calling of congress together as soon after March 4, next, as possible.

Eastern Oysters.

The consignment of 25 barrels of Eastern oysters, designed for Yaquina bay, arrived in Albany last Friday, in charge of Mr. C. H. Townsend, of the United States Fish Commission. Fish and Game Protector, H. D. McGuire, Prof. F. L. Washburn, of the university at Eugene, came in on the Roseburg local—Mr. McGuire from Portland and Prof. Washburn from Eugene, and all went to Yaquina bay on the O. C. & E. train, where the oysters will be planted. The plant is in good shape, and if the people of the bay guard them carefully, the result will, without doubt, lead to one of the most important industries on the coast.

Mr. Townsend has already on this trip, planted 25 barrels of oysters at Humboldt bay, as well as a quantity of lobsters at Monterey, and terrapin at the mouth of the Sacramento, as well as some other kinds of fish at different points. The oyster planting is, however, the most important act in the fish planting line that has ever been done on the coast; as the results will show if the bivalves live and thrive, and it depends considerably upon how the people of the bay guard the infant plant in its efforts to gain a start.—Herald.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Linn county like to take the Weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the EXPRESS $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2. per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the EXPRESS gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2. per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the EXPRESS must pay in all arrears, and one year in advance to obtain his special price.

In order to put the EXPRESS in the homes of many who are not now taking it, we have decided to offer it from now until March 1, 1897, for only 25 cents. If you are not taking the EXPRESS already, take advantage of this offer and subscribe at once, and if you are already a subscriber, send it to some Eastern friend for four months.

Thanksgiving Day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The president has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:
 "By the President of the United States:
 "The people of the United States should never be unmindful of the gratitude they owe to the God of nations for his watchful care, which has shielded them from disaster and pointed out to them the way of peace and happiness. Nor should they ever refuse to acknowledge with contrite hearts their proneness to turn away from God's teachings and follow with sinful pride after their own device.
 "To the end that these thoughts may be quickened, it is fitting that, on a day especially appointed, we should join together in approaching the throne of grace with praise and supplication.
 "Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 29th day of the present month of November, to be kept and observed as a day of thanksgiving and prayer throughout our land. On that day let all our people forego their usual work and occupations and assemble in their accustomed place of worship; let them with one accord render thanks to the Ruler of the Universe for our preservation as a nation, and our deliverance from every threatened danger; for the peace that has dwelt within our boundaries; for our defense against disease and pestilence during the years that has followed the labors of our husbandmen; and for all the other blessings that have been vouchsafed to us.
 "And let us, through the mediation of Him who has taught us how to pray, implore the forgiveness of our sins and a continuation of heavenly favor.
 "Let us not forget on this day of thanksgiving the needy, and by deeds of charity let our offerings of praise be more acceptable in the sight of the Lord.
 "Witness my hand and the seal of the United States which I have caused to be heretofore affixed.
 "Done at the City of Washington, this 4th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1896, and the Independence of the United States of America, the 121st.
 (Seal) "GROVER CLEVELAND,
 "By the President."
 "RICHARD OLNEY,
 "Secretary of State."
