

The Shoe Department

has a remnant counter full of bargains. You might find it out accidentally. The object of this is to call your attention to it as a special feature.

Table with 2 columns: Item (Baby shoes, Misses, Boys, Ladies) and Price ($1.00, 2.00, 2.25, 4.00).

S. E. Young's,

ALBANY, OR.

Good produce, good as cash.

Expressions.

Call and see Miller's new stock. The city election comes off next Monday. Where are you going to spend Christmas?

M. A. Miller has a full and complete line of cough syrups. Groceries—quality excellent—prices low—at Bach & Buhl's.

John Hope will shortly open a skating rink at this place. New subscriptions for the Weekly Oregonian taken at this office.

We still have bargains in shoes. READ, PEACOCK & Co. Rev. C. G. Harmon preached an excellent sermon last Sunday evening.

A little money will go a long way if you trade with Read, Peacock & Co. When in Waterloo call on the City Drug Store for fine perfumery, drugs, etc.

Some one is going to get an elegant dressing case free, of Smith, the druggist. Wash your white clothing with Soap Foam, and they will never turn yellow.

The finest line of dress patterns in the city is to be found at the Racket store. Think of it! When Boyd gives you a picture you don't have to have any frame.

Send the EXPRESS to your friends in the East for the next four months; only 25 cents. Rev. W. V. McGee, of Albany, spent Monday night in Lebanon with old friends.

Born, to the wife of Lyle Parker, Dec. 1, 1896, a son. Mother and baby doing well. You can buy a nice, large arm, hand carved rocker of the Albany Furniture Company for $2.55.

Remember French, the jeweler, Albany, when you want something nice for Christmas. Many pipes were damaged by the late cold snap and the plumber has had a rich harvest.

Miss Dumond is selling millinery cheaper than ever before. Call and see the hats and prices. Dr. Parsons, of Salem, will preach in the M. E. church, next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Don't let the catlick the dishes, but make nice soft soap with Soap Foam Directions on each package. A grand opportunity. Sixteen cabinets for a dozen, from now until Jan 1st, at the Lebanon Art Gallery.

Are you looking for an engagement or wedding ring? French the jeweler, Albany, has some handsome ones. See the elegant crayon at the foot of the stairs, given away with each dozen pictures without extra charge.

N. W. Smith, the druggist, informs us he will have the finest line of holiday goods ever brought to Lebanon. All our woolen underwear sold at prices to suit the times.

Blankets, Blankets, Blankets, Where? do you ask. At Read, Peacock & Co.'s. Are sold for 75c, 85c, $1.00 up to $10.00 per pair.

Bud Thompson, who has the management of a hop ranch for Capt. Geo. Pope, just this side of Portland, arrived in Lebanon Monday.

F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, has a very large stock of Rogers Bro's silverware for the Christmas trade, and cash will buy them very cheap.

Ladies, Miss Dumond calls your attention to the new fall millinery. A handsome line has never been brought to Lebanon, and as usual at the lowest prices.

On the 28th the I. O. O. F. elected the following officers: J. G. Boyle, N G; J. W. Bland, V G; A. A. Kees, R Sec; G. W. Cruson, Per Sec; C J Walters, Treas.

The Lebanon train has changed time again. The morning train now arrives at 8:30 and leaves at 8:55; and the evening train arrives at 4:40 and leaves at 5:05.

Read, Peacock & Co. will sell for the next 30 days, cages, jackets and coats, at prices unheard of before. Now is the time to save your money. Call and look over the stock.

Little Joe West is very low and is not expected to live but a short time. His mother, who is in Montana, has been informed and is expected to arrive in Lebanon in a few days.

The Platonic literary society of Santiam academy, will hold an invitation meeting next Friday. No one but constitutional members will be admitted to the previous meetings of this Society.

A letter received this week from J. E. Adcox, of Bandon, Oregon, says that his wife died at that place on November 25. He says he will take his children to Albany about the 10th, where he will leave them with relatives.

The reception given last Tuesday evening by the Rebekah lodge, of this city, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buhl, was an enjoyable affair and every one reported a good time. Games and conversation was indulged in until a late hour.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets do not affect the head or produce nervousness like the Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. N. W. Smith is authorized to refund money in every case where it fails to cure Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Price, 25 cents.

Dr. John Parsons, of Salem, will deliver his popular lecture on the "General Conference," in the M. E. church, next Monday evening at 7:20 o'clock. Those who have heard the lecture report it as being a very fine one. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. It is free.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets move the bowels gently, relieves the cough, cures the feverish condition and headache, making it the best and quickest remedy for Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Cures in one day. "No cure, no pay." Price, 25 cents. For sale by N. W. Smith.

At the regular meeting of Honor Lodge, of the A. O. U. W., last Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected: A. Umphrey, M. W.; Phil Ritter, Foreman; J. F. Hyde, Recorder and Financier; Wm. Robins, Receiver; G. W. Cruson, Guide; G. T. Cotton, Overseer; Z. T. Bryant, Inside Watchman.

Mr. H. G. Cotton, of Portland, general manager of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company for Oregon, was in the city a couple of days this week, assisting H. T. Booth in getting business for their company. We understand they have written several policies in Lebanon.

Mr. J. W. Senft, agent for the Insurance Company of North America, paid A. Umphrey $1,600, full face of policy on his house, which burned on the 19th of September. Mr. Senft enjoys an enviable reputation in this community for the promptness and honesty of his companies.

Claud Cruson found a large Arctic owl on the Lebanon canal last week. The bird seemed to be paralyzed, but showed no signs of wounds except an injured eye. It afterwards died. It will be given into the hands of an expert taxidermist to be stuffed. It is a perfect beauty and will be a handsome ornament.

A cook at Eugene, by mistake, used Jimson instead of sage in the dressing for the Thanksgiving dinner. The doctors by active and long continued effort saved the lives of the family and invited guests. Jimson will not be recognized hereafter in the family as a superior flavoring even for turkey dressing.

Mr. Charles Russell, of Eugene, and Miss Emma Hering, living on the Stedman, ran away from the young ladies' home and were married in Florence, and started on the stage for Eugene. The girl's father intercepted the stage with a Winchester rifle, but the driver talked him out of the notion of stopping the young couple, and they were allowed to go on their way rejoicing. That driver has missed his calling, he should take up the business of urging sisters to repentance.

The Stockman Case.

The supreme court Monday handed down its decision in the case of the state against John R. Stockman, who was convicted upon trial in Marion county, of violating section 4, of the act of 1885, commonly known as the warehouse act, by shipping wheat stored in a warehouse, of which he was manager, without the written consent of the holder of the receipt therefor. The evidence showed that at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, the defendant was manager of the Red Crown Roller Mills, of Albany, a corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing flour and other products for sale. A part of the mill building was used for the storage of wheat belonging to the company, and such as it might receive from the neighboring farmers. The wheat so stored was all mixed in one mass, from which the company drew from day to day for its own use. In September, 1894, E. D. Barrett delivered to the company 2198.25 bushels of wheat, taking a receipt therefor. The wheat was mixed with other wheat, manufactured into flour and sold by the company for its own use and benefit. The company failed, and, in March, 1895, Barrett demanded the market value of the wheat, which, being refused, he tendered the storage and demanded the return of the wheat.

In order to sustain a criminal charge, the supreme court says it was incumbent upon the state to prove that the grain was placed in a warehouse and, in addition thereto, to prove that it was placed there on storage. From the evidence, the higher court finds the mill company did not receive grain for storage or safekeeping, but, as was known by Barrett, received the wheat, manufactured it into flour and sold the flour. Its obligations to depositors were satisfied by paying the market price or returning wheat of like quality or quantity. There was an implied contract, says the court, that the wheat deposited by Barrett should be so disposed of, and that the state law in question is plainly intended to apply to warehousemen only, and its principal object is to make warehouse receipts negotiable, securing the depositor by making the bailee liable to criminal prosecution.

It is therefore held that the case should have been submitted to the jury with a direction that they could not convict unless satisfied from the evidence that the place where the grain was deposited was in fact a warehouse for the storage of grain, and that the grain in question was received on storage and not on agreement, express or implied, that the mill company might use it in the course of its business. For the reason these questions were not so submitted, the case is reversed and a new trial ordered.

A. O. U. W. Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor in this city last night, was a success in every respect. The A. O. U. W. "Shake 'Em Up" quartette, of Albany, consisting of D. V. Polling, M. S. Ackers, S. N. Steel and A. M. Lundell, rendered some choice music. This certainly is the finest quartette that has ever visited Lebanon.

The orchestra, consisting of W. W. Crawford, Geo. McKnight and wife and Frank McKnight, entertained the people with some splendid music. It is seldom the people of Lebanon have the pleasure of listening to such music, either vocal or instrumental.

Grand Instructor, D. C. Herren, made an able address, which we believe added many new members to the A. O. U. W. lodge at this place.

At the conclusion of the entertainment at the Band hall, the members of the two lodges went to their hall, where a banquet was served in honor of the grand instructor and visiting brethren. A good time was had and the best of feeling prevailed.

Municipal Ticket.

The following city ticket has been put before the citizens to be voted on next Monday:

- CITIZENS' TICKET. For Mayor—L. Foley. For Councilmen—J. G. Boyle, B. Bartschaw, S. O. Long, N. R. Beaman, C. O. Peterson, W. B. Donaca. For Recorder—G. W. Rice. For Treasurer—J. F. Hyde. For Marshal—John Carroll.

Do you want a first-class watch and chain for Christmas. French, the jeweler, Albany, has some bargains. Some gold filled ones as low as $10.00 warranted.

L. L. Burtenshaw, Esq., a prominent attorney at Myrtle Point, Coos county, Oregon, and a son of B. Burtenshaw, is visiting his parents here. He is on his way to the supreme court at Salem. Mr. Burtenshaw is accompanied by his wife.

Rev. A. Marcellus, at one time pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, died at his home in Lebanon last week, from a stroke of paralysis. He leaves a devoted wife and two sons to mourn his departure. He has a host of friends in this city who extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

From Tennessee.

Mrs. Farrier had the misfortune to lose a fine horse recently.

An entertainment will be given at the school house some time in the latter part of December.

At the shooting match last Wednesday, Frank Bro's won two turkeys, Davis Bro's two, and Thomas McKnight one.

Miss Tessie Weddle, of Sweet Home, has been visiting friends in Tenn., and Dame Rumor has it that the Sweet Home lassies are more attractive to some of the Tenn. lads than the "Belles of Tennessee."

A literary society was organized in this Dist. on last Saturday evening. George Davis was elected president, William Frank vice president, Thomas McKnight secretary, J. D. Frank marshal, and Chas. McKnight critic. This society will meet every Saturday night. The question for discussion next Saturday night is, "Resolved, that Intoxicating Liquor is a Greater Curse than War." The public are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

I see in the last week's issue of the EXPRESS that Caesar takes his pen and with one fell swoop completely annihilates me, (in his mind). Come again Caesar, for as my name indicates, I am with you. Now, Mr. Caesar, you say in your communication last week, "tomorrow, as usual, rain fastens its mighty arms around this little neighborhood of scrambling souls." What do you mean by spelling souls, "s-o-l-s"? Do you want to give out the impression that the people of this community have no souls except such as are put on from time to time by the shoemaker? Some of the people here have feelings if they have no souls; and if, as you say, you do not want to mix their feelings you should be careful. Then you say, "we had one of the grandest little times," and all of us supposed we had a big time. You also say, "the choir sang Sweet Oregon and were called back." They ought to have been called punk. Then there is an error in your basket statistics. Instead of the receipts being $8.75, they were $8.25. Now, Mr. Caesar, you say in one breath that one would think from my looks that I would be a fit subject for a museum, and in the next that I have taken a cowardly advantage because I know you and you do not know me. Very contradictory, is it not, Caesar? Now, Mr. Caesar, as to your little kick on my "blowing my rotten republican slang up against the untarnished principles of true Bryan democracy" as represented by yourself and your distinguished accomplice from New York, D. B. Hill; I have nothing to say—only this is the off year for such democrats. You say you are not a poet. I with many others am glad of this, for if your poetry should prove as rotten as your prose it would be bad indeed. Once more Caesar, I would warn you that many years hence the manager of some museum into whose hands the fossil remains of yourself or D. B. Hill have fallen, will point you out to his gaping audience and tell them that these were in times long ago Democrats of the long and short species, who, like the buffalos, roamed the plains in great herds, but are now extinct. This is a sad picture to contemplate and I hope you may be warned in time. And then if I must scour my brain pan for quotations, I will not have to carry my brain around in a cocoon as you do now.

STAYER.

Last Tuesday night as Mr. D. Andrews was going home from his store, his attention was attracted by a noise in the alley. Looking around, he was surprised to see a man standing near him with a big club in his hands. Mr. Andrews turned his lantern on the man and demanded what he wanted, at which time the man dropped the club and ran. Mr. Andrews thinks it was an attempt to hold him up, but the lantern frustrated the man. This was the first time that Mr. Andrews had carried a light with him. Twice before wire had been stretched across the walk at this point, as it is very dark there. Other attempts have been made lately to hold people up. Our citizens should be on their guard.

Subscribe for the EXPRESS. During our closing out sale no goods will be sold except for spot cash.

The best dressed men in Linn county are those who buy their clothing from Bach & Buhl. Good suits for low prices.

Dr. Cheadle is glad to see the children and examine their teeth. He extracts temporary teeth for children free.

Tam O'Shanter's for Misses and children in all the newest cloths and styles, and from 25cts to $1.50, at Miss Dumond's.

Pugh & Muncy have just opened up the latest line of ladies and gents Mackintoshes ever brought to Lebanon and the prices will suit you.

Ripans Tablets cure liver troubles. Ripans Tablets cure indigestion. Ripans Tablets: pleasant laxative. Ripans Tablets: pleasant laxative.

Fall Season, 1896.

Some people wonder how we can sell such good merchandise for such little prices. Others wonder why we do so. The how and the why matter little, so the fact remains. We'll say this, however, this business has grown to its present proportions by doing just one thing,—selling good articles at low prices. We are still doing this. If you are not now our customer come and see us and be convinced.

Read, Peacock & Co. Lebanon, Oregon.

Oliver Chilled Plows. Superior Stoves AND Ranges. These Plows are A 1. Superior in every way.

Hopkins Bros. Albany, Oregon.

Holiday Goods. Books, Toys, Novelties. Bargains in. Prices Down Low. H. J. JONES, ALBANY, OREGON.

Miss DuMond. Invites the Ladies to call at her Millinery Store and inspect her NEW FALL STOCK, The nicest goods ever brought to Lebanon. Hard Times Prices. LEBANON, OREGON. Money to loan. A limited amount of money to loan on good farm security. Call upon or write to S. N. Steele & Co., Albany, Oregon.