The town of Toledo began the new year with no debts, and with $64.92 in ush in the treasury.

Last Saturday there was collected at Wingville, in Umatilia county, about 500 men from the towns and country, to round up the coyotes. The destruction by fire of the residence of Judge Fulierton in Roseburg, caused a loss of fully $10,000. There was only $2000 insurance. F. Crabill, receiver of the Baker City Consolidated Lumber Company, will sell all of the assets of the insolvent corporation, at public auction. Agent Emery has announced his intention of strictly enforcing the law oncerning furnishing liquors to Indians on the Klamath reservation. The Walla Walla Gazette has been sold by W. F. Brock to John J. Schick, of Clarico, Pa. Mr. Brock will engage in the writing of stories

The postoffice and store at Eela, four miles southwest of Salem, Polk county, was burglarized last Thursday night. The booty ecured was $1 50 worth of stamps and a quantity and sketches for a newspaper syndi-of canned goods. The county commissioners of Walla Walla have decided to advertise for bids for the furnishing of 1000 ounces of strychnine, with the option of buying an equal amount at the same figures at a later date.

A very interesting meeting of the Yambill County Hortleultural Society was held lost week at Newberg. committee was appointed to formulate a plan for an association of fruitgrowers to co-operate in the sale of fruit.

Fruitgrowers in the community of Newberg re already making arrange-ments for building large evaporators, in order to be ready to take care of the big fruit crop which the orchards are promising the coming season. The trees are already heavily loaded with fruit buds.

Isaac Stimson was cutting wood at Taylor's sawmill, near Medford, one day last week, and on a hill above him were two men felling a tree. The tree slid down the mountain side, about a quarter of a mile relow Stimson, and before passing him it tore loose a large rock, which came rolling toward him, and before he was aware of his danger struck his leg near the thigh, badly shattering the bone,

M. Herrick is in The Dalles looking arrangements for next season's operahere is little encouragement ners to make extensive preparations for operating the coming season.

Jack Thornton, a young man who escaped from the Oakland Cal. asylum, was last Thursday committed to the asylum from Marion county. He was being held in jail to await the action of the grand jury for boldly walking into a hotel and taking a hat. At the preliminary trial for larceny he surprised the court by ably conducting his own case. He possesses literary attainments, and claims to belong to one of the first familles of Virginia.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock on Wednes day morning of lest week, the room of Mrs. Julia Obarr in the Farmers' hotel. in The Dalles, was burglarized and $130 stolen. Mrs. Obarr, who is the owner of the hotel, had placed the money under her pillow for safekeep ing. The thieves entered by breaking the door to her room. She was awakened by the noise, but was so badly dazed with fright that she could not give the alarm until the burgiars had escaped,

At Riddle, in Douglas county, last week, Levi Crane, a young man, was tried for using obscene language in the presence of a lady, and, pleading guilty, was fined $15 by Justice Dean, which he paid. Crane was then arrested for pointing a gun at another person, and was keld to answer to the grand jury in the sum of $300, in default of which he was brought to Roseburg and lodged in jail. It is alleged that he met the children of Lewis Ash coming home from school, and, by flourishing a pistol and using violent language, frightened them off the road, driving them into the Last week, Sheriff Gray, of Frankfin county, Wash., received a telegram from Lims that four little children ages 8, 10, 11 and 13, had left home without bidding their parents adieu, and that their apprehension was desired. The sheriff was on hand at the arrival of passenger train No. 2, and found the four runaways sitting ou the rear end of the train, where they were discussing the propriety of returning home until the weather moderated. The sheriff took the four in hand, placed them safely on train No. 1, and started for their home. Their reason for leaving home was because their parents went to a dauce and made them go to bed. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of Hillsboro, met one day last week at the bank building, 37 of the 50 shares of stock being represented. The call for the meeting stated, the question of the bank going into voluntary liquida-tion would be seted upon, and at the meeting this was voted down, the vote of two-thirds of the capital stock being required to carry the same. The heavy stockholders were favorable to the proposition of voluntary liquidation and the organizing of a private bank as the government restrictions of a national bank are such as to handicap it in undertaking certain lines of business as opportunity offers.

Swindle that Failed.

A bold swindle was attempted to be perjetrated by two men in California on a wealthy man of Ill., but the scheme wouldn't work, and Horace Hall and William Rusk are now in jail in Santa Rosa.

The scheme was for young Rusk to die figuratively speaking, then under the name of Brown to become admin-inflammatory rheumatism of the istrator of his estate. After this was done, Hall was to write to Rusk's parents, telling them that Rusk was dead, and that Rusk had borrowed $400 from Hall which Brown, the administrator, refused to pay until he had heard from Rusk's father. The letter made it plain that it was Rusk's duty to send the money to Brown so he could pay the debt. Had it not been the desire of the Illinois farmer to see the remains of his son, the game would probably have worked; but after telegraphing about the body to "Brown" and Hall, and receiving no satisfaction, he became suspicious. Hall and Rusk bitterly upraid each other for the fallure of their plans.

The Eglin Mystery.

The Corvallis Times says that his relatives and the public now concede that when James Egliu so mysteriously disappeared on the morning of Jan 2. that he stumbled into the Wilafter his salmon cannery, and making lamette, and that his body is somewhere along the river bottom. tions. Mr. Herrick says the salmon Theories of murder and a hidden trade in the East is extremely dull, the body or a skipping the country, that demand being lighter for canned for a time were rife, have mostly died salmon than ever before, therefore for lack of corroborating circumstances to feed upot and a w that Eglin is only another of the numerous unfortunates the Williamette has claimed, and that the river will, in its own good time, give up its dead. In the ten days of waiting since the disappearance, no new features have developed to re-awaken public interest, or to point out a new theory, and none are likely to happen beyond the fluding of the body and its final entombment in the six feet of sod that awaits all human kind.

The Eugene Guard says; John Lynch, a young man who resides at the west end of Fifth street, completed a ten days' fast Wednesday of last week. Lynch has been a sufferer of stomsch and has tried many remedies for the cure of the disease without obtaining relief. He took a course of treatment from "Hermann, the Heal- son. er," at Portland, among other things, but to no good. Having been told that to fast for 10 days would effect a from the asylum on a six months cure of the disease which tormented leave of absence, him and threatened his life, he resolved to try it. Ten days ago he began fasting and since that time has esten nothing and drank nothing but water. For the first few days he telt the pangs of hunger, especially when the smell of cooking victuals reached him, but after that has not suffered from lack of food and has decreased very little in physical strength. He is unable to tell just what effect the fast will have, but is resolved if it does not cure to try it again, making the Bond of $4500 approved. number of days 30 instead of 10 the next time.

Sensational Death.

Miss Eilen Beach Yaw, who sang in Salem recently and who was heard by several Albany people, died at Binghamton, N. Y., on Jan. 7. Her death was sensational and sudden, says a New York paper. She was singing before an audience and in reaching high notes-for which her volce is has fastened upon almost everyone noted as being higher than Pattl's ever reached-the jugular vein in her throat burst and she bled to death on the stage before her audience. Miss Yaw was able to reach the highestnote of any contratrice in the world, which was due to a peculiar formation of her throat. In straining to get this note, muscles of the throat were pressed against the jugular vein and injured this by abrasion, until the membrane had worn through, causing hemorrhage. She had been warned by the best vocal masters that the result would be so if shu persisted in singing so high, but their warning was not heeded.
