

Remnants

All the small pieces of Dress Goods, Gingham, Outing Flannels and Calicos are on the Remnant Table at Remnant Prices. All Good Bargains.

S. E. Young's,

ALBANY, OR.

Good produce, good as cash.

Our Great Clubbing Offer.

From now until Jan. 31, 1897, we will make the following clubbing offer: Express and Weekly Cincinnati Enquirer $1.00 and Toledo Weekly Blade 1.00 N. Y. Weekly Tribune 1.00 Weekly National Recorder 1.00 New York Thrice-a-Week World 1.50 and Weekly Oregonian 2.00 Leslie's Illustrated Weekly 2.50 Ladies Monthly Magazine 1.00 This offer will positively close on Jan. 31, 1897.

Expressions.

Read our great clubbing offer. Teachers' institute, Friday and Saturday. Think of it! The EXPRESS one year for only 50c. Born, to the wife of J. W. Menzies, Jan. 24, a girl. Frank Skipworth returned from Eugene Saturday. Dave Smith is seriously ill at his home in Tallmadge. J. B. Wirt has opened a real estate office in Lebanon. Groceries—quality excellent—prices low—at Bach & Buhl's. Miss Walker returned home Tuesday from a visit to Salem. Save your Hoe Cake soap wrappers, they are worth a cent apiece. B & B are the initials of Bach & Buhl—but their groceries are A. 1. The big sale has commenced at Read, Peacock & Co's Lebanon store. When in Waterloo call on the City Drug Store for fine perfumery, drugs, etc. Ed O'Neill and Wm. Royce returned home yesterday from a trip to Portland. The finest line of dress patterns in the city is to be found at the Racket store. Wash your white clothing with Soap Foam, and they will never turn yellow. Geo. Alexander returned home Monday from a visit with his parents in Eugene. This school district voted a levy of three mills at the special meeting held Tuesday. Rev. J. W. Craig will preach at Tennessie schoolhouse next Sunday, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. E. N. Condit and family, formerly of Albany, are now living at Walla Walla. Look at Read, Peacock & Co's new display ad. It will pay you, as they mean business. Rev. F. S. Doughton will preach at Crabtree church next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Kendrick and Mrs. Martin, of Albany, are visiting this week with Mrs. John Donnan. Read W. R. Blain's display ad in this issue. He's talking about good clothing at low prices. Miss Ada Miller returned home last Friday from Albany, where she has been for the past two months. Are you looking for an engagement or wedding ring? French the jeweler, Albany, has some handsome ones. There's no clay, flour, starch or other worthless filling in Hoe Cake and no free alkali to burn the hands. One-half wool dress goods reduced to 10 cts., and bleached, all linen table cloth for 35 cts. a yard, at the Racket Store. The job bank assignment has come to an end, and the assignee has been discharged and his bondsmen exonerated. The Degree of Honor will give a social entertainment Friday evening, Feb. 5. Rev. D. W. Yankum, of Baker county, will preach in the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday morning and evening.

Edward Huston and Miss Dorena Marshall were married in Albany Tuesday. There will be a masquerade skating party at the Band hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 13. Full particulars next week. The S. P. company are having their depot in this city newly painted throughout. W. I. Yawter, of Medford, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F., made the Lebanon lodge a fraternal visit last Friday evening. A. D. Barker, a prominent member of the A. O. U. W. lodge, of Albany, assisted in the burial of W. H. Reed in Lebanon, last Sunday. Mrs. C. O. Peterson returned Monday from a visit with her parents in Oregon City. Her mother, Mrs. Stewart, accompanied her home. It will pay you to take the entire family to town and get them a new outfit while the big sale is going on at Read, Peacock & Co's Lebanon store. Hon. C. S. Dustin, a populist representative from Grant county, and one of the hold outs in the legislature, spent Saturday and Sunday in Lebanon. Rev. M. C. Aldridge is conducting a successful revival at Sodaville. There have been about fifty conversions, and twenty-five additions to the C. P. church. In another column will be found a notice, advertising for a wife. This is no fake, but is by a man that lives in Lebanon and he means business. Here is your chance, ladies. J. B. Wirt was circulating a petition in Lebanon this week, asking for a daily mail service between Lebanon and Laconia. There were only a few who refused to sign the petition. William W. Moore, who occupied the position of foreman in the Eugene-Guard composing rooms for the last 10 years, has purchased the Harrisburg Review, and will take charge February 1. Willie Booth is canvassing for W. J. Bryan's new book, "The First Battle." Willie is doing well with the book, and is talking silver doctrine right along. He has already sold over twenty books. The Degree of Honor are making extensive arrangements for an entertainment and social, to take place Friday evening, Feb. 5. This promises to be the best of the season. Full particulars next week. Reopder Lash, of Pendleton, was last Monday fined $4.00 and sentenced to the penitentiary for three and a half years. Lash has always been a good reputation, and the embezzlement was a great surprise to many. Rev. Sulek, of Albany, will preach in the Presbyterian church in this city next Saturday evening and on Sunday, both morning and evening. He will also conduct the sacrament and receive all who desire to unite with the church. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets do not affect the head or produce nervousness like the Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. N. W. Smith is authorized to refund money in every case where it fails to cure Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Price, 25 cents. Thos. S. Pillsbury has started for Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the purpose of bathing in the medicated waters of that place. The ex-mayor will be greatly missed by Brownsville friends. His family will remain here for the present, at least.—Brownsville Times. There will be quarterly meeting services at the M. E. Church, South, on Feb. 6 and 7. Business session of conference at 2 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 6. Preaching in the evening. Usual services on Sunday. Rev. H. S. Shangle, presiding elder; Rev. J. W. Craig, pastor in charge. A meeting will be held in Union hall on Saturday, Feb. 6, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of considering the establishment of a Co-operative Creamery Co. Farmers and all persons interested are requested to be present. It means good butter, more butter and a good price for it. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets move the bowels gently, relieve the cough, cures the feverish condition and headache, making it the best and quickest remedy for Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Cures in one day. "No cure, no pay." Price, 25 cents. For sale by N. W. Smith. The will of Arthur Saltmarsh was admitted to probate on Monday. The signatures of the witnesses were hard to be proven, as both of them are dead. The will names J. C. and W. A. Saltmarsh, the two sons, as executors without bonds. S. M. Garland is attorney for the estate. The Moderator, of Eugene, edited by H. W. Ross, has ceased to moderate. At the birth of the Moderator Mr. Ross secured control of the Broad Ax material from one of the owners, and it has been replaced by another owner, a cessation of affairs which Mr. Ross could not control. The ownership in the meantime will be decided. For the present a small daily will be issued with the publication of the material.

The Corvallis Times says: "Since finding the body of Rockett, and the discovery that, though it had been 26 days in the water, it still would not float, all hope of finding the other missing man (Eglin) except by dragging, has, for the present at least, been given up. Discussion of the matter has about ceased in Corvallis, but many people anxiously await the day when there may come a discovery of the body and a final solution of the mystery." G. L. Rees and Jas. Hunter, of Albany, were in Lebanon Monday to see about establishing a skimming station in this city in connection with the Albany creamery. These gentlemen will return again one week from Saturday and lay the matter before the farmers and business men and if they meet with the proper encouragement they will put in the station right away. This is a fine thing for this community and we hope it will succeed. Lebanon Home Forum, No. 725, installed their officers last Tuesday evening, into their respective places, by Past Grand President, B. F. Kirk. The following officers were installed: G. O., J. C. Allen; Pres, Alice Hyde; vice pres, Dorothy Morgan; sec, Anna Gatchell; treas, Allee Kirk; orator, Hulda Miller. After transacting the regular business the members had a general good time, all feeling better for having been there, and are taking more interest in the order and will try to bring it up to the high standard where it belongs. We have decided to reduce the subscription price of the EXPRESS from $1.50 to $1 per year when paid in advance. This price may be raised to the former price of $1.50 when times get better. We wish to increase our subscription list with 1,000 additional names during the year 1897, and with that object in view, for the month of January we will make the low price of 50 cents per year for this paper, strictly in advance. This offer is good for old subscribers who pay up all arrears and a year in advance. Remember that subscriptions that are not paid in advance will remain at the rate of $1.50 per year. Be sure and read our great clubbing offer in this issue. It is rather late to mention Christmas presents, but unfortunately the news of the following present was not known by us (or by many others, we presume) until this week. On Christmas day G. W. Aldrich gave his son, Ed, a half interest in the Champion Flouring Mills, including the mill property. Ed Aldrich has now been working in the mill for his past three years and thoroughly understands the milling business in all its branches. We are glad to see him become a partner, and feel warranted in saying that in the future he will do, as he has done in the past, all in his power to keep the quality of their flour up to the present standard—the best flour in the county. Teachers' Institute. A teachers' institute will be held in Lebanon next Friday and Saturday, Jan. 29 and 30. Following is the PROGRAMME: FRIDAY, JAN. 29—7:30 P. M. (At Methodist Church.) Music..... Public School Address of Welcome..... Mayor Foley Response..... Supt. Wheeler Music..... Public School Recitation..... Miss Gerlie Davis Recitation..... Miss Effie Michael Music..... Address on Industrial Education..... Pres. Miller, of Corvallis College Music..... SATURDAY, JAN. 30—9:30 A. M. (At Public School Building.) Address..... Prof. Tyne, Albany School Address: "Teaching as a Profession"..... Prof. Truslove Address..... Prof. Crawford, Seio Address..... Prof. Randle History..... Miss Lambson Geography..... Miss Dunham The exercises will be interspersed with music. Everybody is invited. The people of Lebanon should attend these meetings. Attend the Teachers' Institute. As there is to be a county teachers' institute in our city next Friday and Saturday, Jan. 29 and 30, it is to be hoped our citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend, and show their appreciation of the same. S. O. WALLACE, M. A. MILLER, J. C. BILZEU, Directors. Wife Wanted. Must be a good cook and know how to make good bread; must be of good temper, and a Christian lady, with no children; must know how to take care of chickens, and love to see a good garden and flowers. The man's age is 35 years, he is sober and industrious, and uses no tobacco or whiskey. Inquire of, or write to, Peter LaForge, Lebanon, Or. The best dressed men in Linn county are those who buy their clothing from Bach & Buhl. Good suits for low prices. Ripins Tablets cure dizziness. Ripins Tablets cure indigestion.

Joint Installation of Officers. On last Thursday evening a goodly crowd congregated at the Odd Fellows hall and witnessed the installation of the officers of Linn Tent, K. O. T. M., and also the officers of Bina West Hive, L. O. T. M. After the installation the audience was favored with a solo by Miss Iida Elkins, and a piano duet by Misses Elkins and Carson, after which an address in the interest of the two orders was delivered by Hon. M. A. Miller. The address was an able one, full of fraternity and instruction concerning the benefits of the two orders. The Ladies of the Maconbes furnished a delightful lunch for the occasion. Taking the affair altogether, it was a decided success, we believe, in sociability among members of the different orders in Lebanon. R. N. Beaman installed the officers of the Tent, and Mrs. D. F. Hardman, of Albany, was installing officer for the Hive. The floor work of installation was excellent, and was very entertaining to the invited guests. This is the fifth time that Dr. Lamberson has been elected to the highest office of the Tent, which shows that they certainly appreciate his work. The K. O. T. M. and L. O. T. M. are both good lodges, and the Express is glad to see them thrive as they are doing in this city. Following is the list of officers installed: K. O. T. M. T. C. Peebler, past commander; J. A. Lamberson, commander; W. C. Peterson, lieutenant commander; Geo. W. Rice, record keeper; J. F. Hyde, finance keeper; I. Saltmarsh, chaplain; W. E. Lewis, sergeant; Joel C. Mayer, master at arms; F. U. Hlekok, 1st master of guards; A. Eggleton, sentinel; Jos. Mayer, picket. L. O. T. M. Huldah Miller, past commander; Sarah Saltmarsh, commander; Elizabeth Beaman, lieutenant commander; Rebekah DuMont, record keeper; Alice Hyde, finance keeper; Anna Reed, chaplain; Ida Mayer, mistress at arms; Melvina Booth, sergeant; Margaret Thompson, sentinel; Josephine Spurling, picket. Another Pioneer Has Passed Away. W. H. Reed died at his home in this city last Saturday, after an illness of several years. He was 60 years of age. Mr. Reed was born in Des Moines county, Iowa, Dec. 23, 1836. He came to Oregon with his parents in 1852—crossing the plains. They made their home five miles south-east of Albany. In 1855 Mr. Reed enlisted in Company H., Linn County Volunteers, for the purpose of suppressing the Indian hostilities in Yakima, Washington Territory, and served six months, being in several battles during that time. In 1859 he was married to Miss Perrina Parrish. Three children were born to them. Mr. Reed had a very severe attack of grippe in the spring of 1889, from which he never fully recovered, and had been confined to his room for the last five years. He passed to spirit life Jan. 23, 1897. Deceased was a member of the A. O. U. W., in good standing, having been one of the charter members of Honor lodge, which was organized in this city in 1880, and he was buried by that order. Deceased was a resident of Lebanon for twenty years. Mr. Reed leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. T. C. Peebler and C. A. Reed, of this city. Prof. McGee Assaulted. The news comes from Oakland that Prof. McGee was knocked down and kicked severely by Ed. Settle Monday evening. The latter conducts a card and billiard room in connection with a barber shop, and it is alleged that some of the public school boys gamble there in a small way. Prof. McGee's attention was called to the matter by patrons of the school and reprimanded those accused of this conduct, and meeting Settle on the street afterwards was attacked by him, almost without warning, so it is said, the professor being no match physically for his assailant. Settle could not be found when Deputy District Attorney visited Oakland, but it is reported to-day that he appeared and paid a fine of about $20.—Roseburg Review, Jan. 21. Prof. McGee was principal of the Lebanon public school a few years ago and was well liked by our citizens. Save the Wrappers. They are worth a cent apiece if taken from Hoe Cake soap. Your grocer will sell you Schilling's Best tea, and return your money in full if you don't like it. He is our agent to this extent; and we want no better business. Schilling & Company, San Francisco.

Read, Peacock & Co., LEBANON, OREGON. OUR GREAT SALE Has commenced. Will only last a short time. Boots and Shoes, Hats and Pants, Jackets and Capes, Groceries, . . . Men's Gloves and Furnishing Goods, Are the Items we Include. Our prices on these goods will surprise you. We have cut them far under Manufacturer's cost so that they may go at once in order to close these lines. Read, Peacock & Co., LEBANON, OREGON. Oliver Chilled Plows. Superior Stoves AND Ranges. These Plows are A 1. Superior in every way. Hopkins Bros. Albany, Oregon. $2,000 Worth of Clothing Almost Given Away. Albany Woolen Mills Clothing. All WOOLEN SUITS, former prices ranging from $10.75 to $27.50, I am now selling from $4.50 to $8.00. Boys' Clothing and Men's Odd Pants at equally low figures. If you want to take advantage of these remarkably Low Prices come soon, for at the present rate they will last only a short time. W. R. BLAIN, ALBANY, OREGON. Two Doors North of the Opera House. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Land Office at Oregon City, Or., Jan. 7, 1897. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of her intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the County Clerk of Linn County at Albany, Or., on February 11, 1897, viz: MRS. MARY A. COOLEY; H. E. 8820, on the N. 1/4 of N. E. 1/4 of Sec. 24, Twp. 13 S., R. 1 W. She names the following witnesses to prove her continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: William H. Cooper, Albert E. Cooper, Thomas Fargison, and Clarence McAlister, all of Sweet Home, Oregon. ROBERT A. MILLER, Register. Good clothing—at a low price—at Bach & Buhl's. Send the EXPRESS to your friends in the East for the next four months; only 25 cents. Money to loan. A limited amount of money to loan on good farm security. Call upon or write to S. N. Brooks & Co., Albany, Oregon. CONCRETE and CEMENT WORK Of all kinds done at Lowest Prices. Cement Sidewalks and Curbing a specialty. All work guaranteed, by Lebanon Electric Light and Water Co., J. S. HUGHES, Propr. and Mgr. LEBANON, OR. Don't Forget That Hoe Cake soap wrappers are worth a cent apiece in valuable presents. M. A. Miller has a full and complete line of cough syrups.